EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

Under the Dangerous Drugs Act 1965 (Modification) Order 1965 (S.I. 1965/1534) dextropropoxyphene is freed from control under the Dangerous Drugs Act 1965, and these Regulations accordingly provide for deleting the reference to that drug in the Regulations having effect under that Act. In addition, these Regulations make provision for inserting nicocodine, hitherto subject to full control under the Regulations, into Schedule 2, drugs in which are subject to control modified in certain respects: in particular, they can be obtained from an authorised seller of poisons without a prescription.
