Coming into Operation	22nd November, 1953

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of November, 1953

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in pursuance of section one of the Emergency Laws (Transitional Provisions) Act, 1946(b), as applied by section one of the Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1947(c), is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Paragraph (2) of Regulation ninety-three of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939 (which provides that proceedings under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts which may be taken against a person in respect of an offence against any of those Regulations may be commenced at any time not later than twelve months from the date of the commission of the offence or, where the offence was committed by that person outside the United Kingdom, from the date on which he first lands in the United Kingdom after having committed the offence) is hereby revoked except in relation to persons against whom proceedings have, by virtue of that paragraph, been commenced before the date of the coming into operation of this Order.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Defence Regulations (No. 13) Order, 1953.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the twenty-second day of November, nineteen hundred and fifty-three.
