23. The following words and provision in the Defence (Recovery of Fines) Regulations, 1942 (which, by reason of the revocation of other provisions, have become of no effect), are hereby revoked, namely:—

(a) in Regulation twelve, the words "subject to the provisions of Regulation five of these Regulations"; and

(b) in Regulation fourteen:—

(i) in the definition of "sentenced to a large fine", the word "whether" and the words "or on conviction on indictment";

(ii) paragraph (i) of the definition of "sum sentenced to be paid".

24. This Order may be cited as the Defence Regulations (No. 2) Order, 1952, and shall come into operation on the seventh day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of December, 1952

Present

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

Her Majesty, in pursuance of section three of the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945(a), as extended by the Supplies and Services (Extended Purposes) Act, 1947(b), and the Supplies and Services (Defence Purposes) Act, 1951(c), and continued in force by the Supplies and Services (Continuance) Order, 1951(d), and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. For sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (2) of Regulation sixty J of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939 (which enables an order under that Regulation to make provision for directions to the owner of household chattels stored in accordance with such an order, requiring him to remove them from store) there shall be substituted the following sub-paragraph:—

"(b) to give notice to the person appearing to a person authorised to act under the order to be entitled to any household chattels stored in accordance with the order that if the chattels are not removed from store within such time, not being less than six months from the giving of the notice, as may be specified therein, the chattels may be disposed of;".

2. At the end of sub-paragraph (c) of the said paragraph (2) (which enables an order under the said Regulation sixty J to provide for the disposal of unclaimed household chattels stored in accordance with such an order) there

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Regulation 60J of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939 enables provision to be made for storing chattels salvaged from premises damaged by war operations, for their disposal if their owner is not known, and for directions to be given to the owner, if he is known, to remove the chattels from store. If the directions are not complied with, the owner is liable to a fine.

This Order removes the power to give directions but enables provision to be made that if chattels are not removed after not less than six months' notice they may be disposed of.
