2. This Order may be cited as the Defence Regulations (No. 2) Order, 1951, and shall come into operation on the first day of April, 1951.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Milk Act (Northern Ireland), 1950, repeals those provisions of the Milk and Milk Products Acts (Northern Ireland), 1934 to 1938, which were suspended or amended by Part III of the Defence (Agriculture and Fisheries) (Northern Ireland) Regulations, 1940, and are now superseded by the Agriculture Act, 1947, and the Northern Ireland Act of 1950. This Order accordingly revokes Part III of the 1940 Regulations as from 1st April, 1951, the date on which the Northern Ireland Act of 1950 is to come into operation.

The Defence Regulations (No. 5) Order, 1951

1951 No. 2115

Made - - - -	4th December, 1951
Laid before Parliament	5th December, 1951
Coming into Operation	9th December, 1951

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of December, 1951

Present,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

His Majesty, in pursuance of section one of the Emergency Laws (Transitional Provisions) Act, 1946(a), as applied by section one of the Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1947(b), and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. In Regulation sixteen of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939 (which empowers the Minister of Fuel and Power by order to provide for the stopping-up or diversion of a highway, if he considers it necessary so to do for the purpose of working open-cast coal or constructing or extending an electricity generating station), the words " or constructing or extending an electricity generating station " are hereby revoked.

2. Regulation thirty-three of the said Regulations (which empowers local supervising authorities to exempt certain women from the provisions of the enactments relating to midwives) shall cease to have effect as respects Scotland, and accordingly, paragraph (3) of that Regulation (which specifies the modifications subject to which that Regulation has effect in its application to Scotland) is hereby revoked.

3. Paragraph (2) of Regulation forty-five A of the said Regulations (by virtue whereof the Secretary of State is empowered to make provision by order for the issue of identity cards to persons employed or engaged in aircraft and for prohibiting the employment of persons in aircraft unless they are the holders of identity cards issued under the order) is hereby revoked.

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 26. (b) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 10.

4. In Regulation three of the Defence (Armed Forces) Regulations, 1939 (which extends the Uniforms Act, 1894, so as to restrict the unauthorised wearing of the uniforms of the Women's Royal Naval Service, the Auxiliary Territorial Service and the Women's Auxiliary Air Force, in like manner as the unauthorised wearing of naval and military uniforms is restricted by that Act), the words: —

" and

(b) references in sections two and three of that Act to His Majesty's Military Forces and the Air Force included references to the Auxiliary Territorial Service and the Women's Auxiliary Air Force respectively " are hereby revoked.

5.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Defence Regulations (No. 5) Order, 1951.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the ninth day of December, 1951.

F. J. Fernau.
