EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends Regulations 55, 55AA and 55AB of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, the scope of which was limited by the Defence Regulations (No. 9) Order, 1954, S.I. 1954/1480 (1954 II, p. 2040). Paragraph (1) of Article 1 confers power to regulate or prohibit a number of activities concerning the substances specified in the Schedule (including, in particular, production, distribution and consumption). Paragraph (2) of that Article confers power to require undertakings concerned with any of those substances to keep books and furnish information and power to authorise the inspection of such undertakings. Paragraph (3) of that article enables price control to be imposed on any of those substances.

The Defence Regulations (No. 6) Order, 1956

Made - - - -	29th November, 1956
Laid before Parliament	5th December, 1956
Coming into Operation	1st January, 1957

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of November, 1956

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in pursuance of section three of the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945(a), as extended by the Supplies and Services (Extended Purposes) Act, 1947(b), and the Supplies and Services (Defence Purposes) Act, 1951(c) and continued in force by the Supplies and Services (Continuance) Order, 1955(d), is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) The powers conferred by paragraph (1) of Regulation fifty-five of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939 (which relates to the general control of industry) shall cease to be exercisable as regards goods of the following kinds, namely, paper, tin plate, terne plate and black plate, except for the purpose of imposing in respect of the movement, transport, disposal or acquisition of goods of any of those kinds situated outside the United Kingdom or the re-export of goods of any of those kinds from the United Kingdom, such prohibitions or restrictions as appear to a competent authority to be expedient having regard to any agreement or arrangement concluded in respect of defence matters, or any consultations held in respect of such matters, between Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the government of any country outside the United Kingdom.

(2) In this Article "paper" includes all descriptions (whether laminated or coated or not) of paper, paper board and pulp board.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Defence Regulations (No. 6) Order, 1956.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends Regulation 55 of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939. The powers conferred by paragraph (1) of that Regulation (namely, to regulate or prohibit the production, etc., of certain articles) cease to be exercisable in relation to paper, tin plate, terne plate and black plate; except that, in connection with defence matters, the power to control the re-export of such articles from the United Kingdom and, in so far as such articles are situated outside the United Kingdom, the power to control their movement, transport, disposal and acquisition continue.
