The Defence Regulations (No. 7) Order, 1950

1950 No. 1189

Made - - - -	21*st July*, 1950
Laid before Parliament	22*nd July*, 1950
Coming into Operation	24*th July*, 1950

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of July, 1950

Present,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

His Majesty, in pursuance of section three of the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945(a), as extended by the Supplies and Services (Extended Purposes) Act, 1947(b), and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. In sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (2) of Regulation sixty J of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939 (which enables a competent authority to make provision for the removal of chattels from war damaged premises and for the storage and disposal of such chattels) the words " which are of no appreciable value " shall be omitted and sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (5A) of the said Regulation and the words from " and " at the end of sub-paragraph (b) of that paragraph to the end of the Regulation are hereby revoked.

2. This Order may be cited as the Defence Regulations (No. 7) Order, 1950, and shall come into operation on the twenty-fourth day of July, nineteen hundred and fifty.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Under Regulation 60J as in force before the making of this Order provision could be made for disposing of unclaimed household chattels recovered from premises damaged by war operations if the chattels had been stored for not less than six months and were of no appreciable value (paragraph (5A) enabling any chattel to be treated as of no appreciable value if it could be sold only as scrap). This Order enables unclaimed household chattels to be disposed of in cases where they have not only scrap value. It also dispenses with the requirement that chattels must have been stored for at least six months: none of the chattels stored by virtue of Regulation 60J have been stored for less than five years.
