4. This Order shall be laid before Parliament. It shall come into operation on the second day of June, 1949, and the Right Honourable Ernest Bevin, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs is to give the necessary directions herein.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This amending Order is required because Article 8 (1) of the previous Order did not quite correctly provide for the position resulting from the tripartite character of the International Labour Organisation, under which each Member country has representatives of its Government and of the organisations of employers and employees in its territory, and because Article 12 of the previous Order by inadvertence included a reference to Article 11 which was not intended.

And Whereas His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom has, in accordance with Section 41 of the said Convention, acceded to the said Convention in respect of the International Refugee Organisation by depositing with the Secretary-General of the United Nations an instrument of accession:

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The purpose of this Order is to extend the privileges and immunities already granted to the International Refugee Organisation by an Order in Council(a) made earlier in the year. The Organisation has now deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations the final text of its Annex to the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialised Agencies (Cmd. 7673) and has thus completed the final step of the procedure for the unification of privileges and immunities referred to in the Resolution of the General Assembly of the United Nations on 13th February, 1946 (Cmd. 6753), and as explained in the Note to the earlier Order now revoked it is now necessary to make a further Order granting the extended privileges and immunities permissible in that event and required to fulfil His Majesty's Government's obligations under the above-mentioned Convention to which His Majesty's Government have now acceded in respect of this Organisation.
