Made - - - 24th September 1974

Coming into Operation 30th September 1974

The Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by Section 2 as read with Section 11 of the Diseases of Fish Act 1937(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf and having been satisfied as respects the area hereinafter mentioned that certain waters therein are infected waters, hereby makes the following order:—

Citation and Commencement

1. This order may be cited as the Diseases of Fish (Infected Area) (Scotland) Order 1974 and shall come into operation on 30th September 1974.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In this order "the area" means such part of Kames Bay, Loch Melfort, Argyll, up to the High Water Mark of Ordinary Spring Tides as lies to the south of a line drawn between the headlands called Rubh'an Aird Fhada and Rubh'an Tighe Loisgte.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) shall apply for the interpretation of this order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Infected Area

3. The area is hereby declared to be an infected area for the purposes of the Diseases of Fish Act 1937.

Control of Movement of Fish etc.

4. No person shall without the previous consent in writing of the Secretary of State move out of the area any live fish or eggs of fish or foodstuff for fish.

Given under the seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.

Eric Gillett,
Fisheries Secretary,
Department of Agriculture and Fisheries for Scotland.

24th September 1974.
