Doddington Rectory Division.

Dornington in the Diocese of Ely in the County of Cambridge comprised the whole of the Township of Doddington otherwise Dornington, the Hamlet of Benwick, the Hamlet of Wimblington, and the Township, Chapelry, or Hamlet of March, and the Income of such Rectory was very considerable, and such Parish was extensive and populous, and reciting that the Advowson, Gift, free Disposition, and Right of Patronage of the Rectory and Parish Church of Doddington otherwise Dornington, with the Chapels of March and Benwick, situate in such Parish, stood limited and settled to such Uses as Sir Henry Peyton Baronet and Henry Peyton Esquire, during their joint Lives, should, by any Deed or Deeds, or Instrument or Instruments in Writing, to be by them sealed and delivered in the Presence of and attested by Two or more credible Witnesses, jointly direct, limit, or appoint, and also reciting that the Reverend Algernon Peyton was the Rector of the Rectory and Parish Church of Doddington otherwise Dornington, with the Chapels of March and Benwick as aforesaid, and that the Tithes of the said Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington had been commuted under the Act for the Commutation of Tithes in England and Wales, and that there was in the said Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington the consecrated Parish Church and also the consecrated Chapel at March, at which Church and at which Chapel all the Offices of the Church had been and were still celebrated and performed, and a Chapel at Benwick within such Parish, of the Consecration of which last-mentioned Chapel no Record existed, although Divine Service and Christenings and Churchings had been for many Years then past celebrated and performed therein, but which Chapel had lately fallen down and was then in a ruinous and decayed Condition; and that it was highly desirable, for the better religious Instruction and pastoral Superintendence of the Inhabitants of the said Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington, that the said Rectory and Parish should be divided into Three separate and distinct Rectories and Parishes for Ecclesiastical Purposes, and that each such separate and distinct Rectory and Parish should be endowed out of the Revenues of the then present Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington, and that Provision should be made for rebuilding on an enlarged Scale the then present ruinous and decayed Chapel at Benwick as aforesaid, and for building thereafter an additional Church or additional Churches in one or each of such separate and distinct Parishes, and for obtaining a Site or Sites for such additional Church or Churches, and forming for each one of such Churches a new, separate, and distinct Rectory and Parish out of such first-formed Rectories and Parishes, and for endowing each such new Rectory and Parish out of the Revenues of either or all of such first-formed Rectories and Parishes, and that Provision should be made for the Repairs and Sustentation of the then existing Churches or Chapels as aforesaid, and of such new or additional Church or Churches, and

for

for providing Parsonage Houses, with their Appurtenances and Glebe Lands, for the respective Incumbents of the Churches of the new, separate, and distinct Parishes of March and Benwick, and of the additional Church or Churches as aforesaid, and that Lands should be purchased and Funds provided for effecting those Purposes, and that the Purposes aforesaid, however beneficial the same might be, could not be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament; it was enacted, that from and immediately after the then present Incumbency of the said Algernon Peyton should cease in the said Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington, or if the said Algernon Peyton should at any Time during such Incumbency consent thereto in Writing (under his Hand and Seal, and in Manner and Form as set forth in the Fourth Schedule to that Act annexed), from and immediately after such Consent the said Parish and Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington should be divided into and should form Three separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories as therein-after next mentioned, (that was to say,) the Township of Doddington and the Hamlet of Wimblington should form and be One separate and distinct Parish and Rectory for all Ecclesiastical Purposes, and should be called by the Name of the Parish and Rectory of Doddington; the Township, Chapelry, or Hamlet of March should be and form a separate and distinct Parish and Rectory for all Ecclesiastical Purposes, and should be called by the Name of the Parish and Rectory of March; and the Hamlet of Benwick should be and form a separate and distinct Parish and Rectory for all Ecclesiastical Purposes, and should be called by the Name of the Parish and Rectory of Benwick; but it was provided that if the said Algernon Peyton should during his Incumbency as aforesaid consent in Writing under his Hand and Seal, and in Manner and Form (mutatis mutandis) as set forth in the Fourth Schedule to that Act, to the Division in part of the said Parish and Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington into One or more of the Divisions created by that Act, such Consent should be as valid for the Purpose of carrying the Division or Divisions to which he should so consent into effect as if he had consented to the Formation of the Three separate and distinct Parishes as therein-before mentioned; and it was enacted, that the Consent in Writing of the said Algernon Peyton as aforesaid should be registered in the Registry of the Diocese of Ely, and an examined Copy thereof to be furnished by the Registrar of such Diocese should be Evidence that the Division of the said Parish and Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington, or of so much thereof as such Consent should comprise, had taken effect under the Provisions of that Act; and it was enacted, that for particularizing the Lands to be comprised in the said Three Parishes respectively, but not so as to vary the Contents of such respective Parishes according to the general Description thereof respectively therein-before contained, the said Lands were mentioned or referred to in the Three Schedules to that Act, with the Quantities of such Lands, and the Rentcharges in

in lieu of Tithes apportioned on such as were titheable according to the confirmed Apportionment under the said Act for the Commutation of Tithes in England and Wales, with the Numbers referring to the Plan referred to in such Apportionment; and the Lands intended to form and be the Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington were mentioned or referred to in the First Schedule to that Act; and the Lands intended to form and be the Parish of March were mentioned or referred to in the Second Schedule to that Act; and the Lands intended to form and be the Parish of Benwick were mentioned or referred to in the Third Schedule to that Act; and the said Schedules should be Evidence of the Amount of the several Rentcharges in lieu of Tithes apportioned thereon respectively under the said Act for the Commutation of Tithes; but it was provided, that in case any Discrepancy should be shown between the said Schedules and the said confirmed Apportionment, it should be competent for any Person to show such Discrepancy, and the said confirmed Apportionment, or such Copies thereof as were receivable in Evidence according to Law, should in that Case be conclusive; and it was enacted, that when such Division of the said Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington should have taken effect either wholly or in part, each of the said Three Parishes with respect to which such Division should have taken effect should for ever thereafter for all Ecclesiastical Purposes be a separate and distinct Parish of itself, and should be a distinct Rectory, and when and as the respective Rectors thereof should be duly instituted and inducted thereto the Rector for the Time being of each such Rectory should continue to perform Divine Service in the Church of such Rectory, and to preach and administer the Holy Sacrament, and should have the exclusive Cure of the Souls of the Inhabitants of such Parish and Rectory, and should publish or continue to publish Banns, and solemnize or continue to solemnize Marriages either by Banns or Licence, and administer or continue to administer Baptisms, and perform or continue to perform Burials in the Church of his said Rectory, and should perform all other parochial Functions of a Minister, in the same Manner and with the same Powers, Privileges, Rights, and Immunities as the then present Rector of Doddington otherwise Dornington was then by Law empowered to do and might be entitled to exercise respectively within the said Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington, and the Rector for the Time being of each Parish and Rectory formed under that Act should for ever after the Formation of such Parish and Rectory should have taken effect, be subject to such legal Provisions as to Presentation, Institution, and Induction, and to all such Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction as were then by Law applicable to the said then present Rector of Doddington otherwise Dornington, and each such new Rector should from the Time of such his Institution and Induction as aforesaid have the like Authority and Powers over the Curates and Ministers of the several Chapels and Churches within his separate Parish (subject to any additional Church or

Churches

Churches being built therein, and to a separate and distinct Parish being provided for each such Church as therein-after provided), and should also appoint Parish Clerks, Sextons, and other Officers, and should have all such other Powers in each such Parish and Rectory as the Rector of Doddington otherwise Dornington was then entitled to exercise in the Rectory or Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington aforesaid; and such Act contained Provisions in reference to the Appointment of Churchwardens for each such Parish when such Division should have taken effect, and the Continuation of Churchwardens in Office at the Time of the forming of new Parishes and the preserving Rates and Assessments made during the Continuance in Office of such Churchwardens, and as to Clerks and Sextons Fees, and the Compensation to the Person who was then the Parish Clerk of the Church of Doddington otherwise Dornington; and it was enacted, that when such Division into separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories as aforesaid should have taken effect wholly or in part under that Act, each Rector as aforesaid of such Parish and Rectory, the Formation of which should have taken effect, should be entitled to all the Tithes or the Commutation Rents for the same arising within his separate Parish and Rectory which were then payable to the Rector of Doddington otherwise Dornington aforesaid, and to the like Easter Dues, Oblations, Offerings, Fees, and Emoluments, and also such Fees for or in respect of the Publication of Banns and the Celebration of Marriages, and Performance of Burials, or the Erection of any Monument or Tombstone within such Church or Burial Ground, and to all Remedies for obtaining and recovering the same respectively to which the Rector of the Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington aforesaid would have been entitled if that Act had not been passed; and it was enacted, that each Rectory formed under that Act should, when such Formation should have taken effect, be a separate Ecclesiastical Benefice, and the Incumbent of each such Rectory should be a Body Corporate with perpetual Succession, in the same Manner as the Rector of an Ecclesiastical Benefice then was by Law, and should be subject to the Jurisdiction of the Bishop of the Diocese of Ely, and he and his Successors might take and hold such Endowments in Messuages, Lands, or Tithes, or any such Augmentation as should be granted to him and them in pursuance of that Act; and it was enacted, that the Patron or Patrons and Rectors of such Rectories should respectively be subject to the like Laws as were then and should for the Time being be in force in respect to Ecclesiastical Benefices, and to the Presentation, Institution, and Induction thereto; and by the said Act it was provided and enacted, that if the said Algernon Peyton should, during his Incumbency of the then present Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington, consent in Writing as therein-before provided to the Division of the then present Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington into Three separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories as aforesaid, or should consent as aforesaid to the Formation during

during his then present Incumbency of any one of such distinct and separate Parishes and Rectories, it should not be necessary for him to resign the new, separate, and distinct Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington formed by that Act, but he should be Rector of such new, separate, and distinct Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington, without any fresh Nomination, Presentation, Institution, or Induction to such Rectory being had, observed, or required; or if he should only consent as aforesaid during his then present Incumbency as aforesaid to the Formation of one of such separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories, it should not be necessary for him to resign that Part of the said Rectory not included in his Consent, but he should be Rector of such Part of the said Rectory as was not included in his Consent, without any fresh Nomination, Presentation, Institution, or Induction to that Part of the said Rectory, or other Form of Law being had, observed, or required; and it was enacted, that the Advowson, Gift, free Disposition, Right of Patronage and Presentation to the respective Rectories formed as aforesaid should from the Time of such Formation stand and be limited, settled, and assured to the Uses, upon the Trusts, and with, under, and subject to the Powers, Provisoes, and Declarations to, upon, with, under, and subject to which the Advowson, Gift, free Disposition, Right of Patronage and Presentation to the Rectory divided, stood limited, settled, and assured at the Time of such Formation; and it was thereby enacted and declared, that every Power of Sale over such last-mentioned Advowson, Gift, free Disposition, Right of Patronage and Presentation, and all Powers in connexion therewith, should be exerciseable as to the Advowson, Gift, free Disposition, Right of Patronage and Presentation to the respective Rectories formed or to be formed as therein-before and therein-after mentioned; and it was enacted, that when the Division of the said Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington into separate and distinct Parishes should have taken effect wholly or in part under that Act, the said Church and Churchyard or Burial Ground at Doddington otherwise Dornington, should be the Parish Church and Burial Ground for all the Inhabitants of the said new Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington, and the said Chapel at March and Burial Ground should, on the Formation of the separate and distinct Parish and Rectory of March taking effect, be the Parish and Burial Ground for all the Inhabitants of the said Parish of March, and the then existing Chapel or new Church of Benwick, and any Ground which was then or might thereafter be appropriated as a Burial Ground thereto, should, on the Formation of the separate and distinct Parish and Rectory of Benwick taking effect, be the Parish Church and Burial Ground for the Inhabitants of the said Parish of Benwick; and each of the said Churches of Doddington otherwise Dornington, March, and Benwick, when they should become separate and distinct Rectories and Parishes as aforesaid, and every additional Church which might be thereafter erected in such Parishes respectively under that Act,

Act, should be maintained at the sole Costs and Charges of the Inhabitants of the respective Parishes in which such Churches respectively might be situate, and all Sums of Money requisite for that Purpose should be provided by Rates to be made, raised, and levied within such respective Parishes, and should be applied in the Repair and Maintenance of such Churches respectively, and such Inhabitants should meet in Vestry in all respects as Inhabitants of a Parish were entitled to do, and each such Vestry should have the Powers of a Parish Vestry; and by the said Act it was provided and enacted, that so far as any permanent Provision independent of Church Rates had been made or secured before the passing of that Act for the Maintenance of the Fabric of the then present Parish Church at Doddington otherwise Dornington, or of the then present Church at March, or of the then present decayed Chapel at Benwick, each such Provision respectively after such Division should have taken effect should continue to be applied to the Maintenance of the Fabric of the Church at Doddington otherwise Dornington, and of the Church at March, and of the new Church to be built at Benwick as therein-after provided, as the Case might be, and the Church Rate or Church Rates for the Maintenance of each such Church raiseable under that Act should pro tanto be diminished according to the Amount applicable from such separate permanent Provision as aforesaid when each such Church Rate should be made for the Maintenance of the Fabric of each such Church as aforesaid; and it was by the said Act enacted and provided, that it should be lawful for any of the Inhabitants within the said Two separate Parishes of March and Benwick as aforesaid, after the Formation thereof under that Act or either of them should have taken effect, to be buried in the Churchyard at Doddington otherwise Dornington aforesaid without any other Fees being payable in respect of such Burials than would have been payable in respect of Burials of Inhabitants of Doddington if that Act had not been passed, but such Privilege should cease as to the Inhabitants of each such Parish at the Expiration of Twenty Years next after such Division as aforesaid should have taken effect under that Act; and it was enacted, that the Parsonage House and Premises at Doddington otherwise Dornington aforesaid (with the Glebe Land and Appurtenances thereto belonging), upon the Separation and Division of the said Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington into separate and distinct Parishes under that Act taking effect either wholly or in part, should be for ever thereafter the Parsonage House and Glebe Land of the new Rectory of Doddington aforesaid; and it was enacted, that the Glebe Land situate in the Township, Chapelry, or Hamlet of March aforesaid should, on the Division of the said Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington into separate and distinct Parishes with respect to the Township, Chapelry, or Hamlet of March taking effect under that Act, become and be for ever thereafter the Glebe Land of the Rectory of March aforesaid, and that in order to provide suitable Residences for the respective Incumbents of the said Rectories of March and Benwick as aforesaid, and also a suitable Amount of Glebe Land for the Rectory of Benwick as aforesaid, the Patron for the Time being of such Two last-named respective Rectories, should with the Consent of the said Algernon Peyton during his Incumbency, and of the Bishop of the Diocese of Ely, under their respective Hands and Seals, or after the Determination of the Incumbency of the said Algernon Peyton with the Consent only of the Bishop of the Diocese of Ely under his Hand and Seal, severally apply, at any Time, after the passing of that Act, any Sum or Sums to be raised as therein-after mentioned, not exceeding such Sum as was therein-after mentioned, to the Purchase of a suitable Quantity of Glebe Land for the Rectory of Benwick as aforesaid, and to the Purchase or Erection of a House and Offices, or to the Purchase and Alteration or Adaptation of a House and Offices already erected, suitable for actual Occupation as a Parsonage House for the Rector for the Time being of the Rectories of March and Benwick respectively, and also to the Purchase of sufficient Land for the Site of each such House respectively, and any Garden respectively contiguous thereto or convenient to be occupied therewith; and each such House should be situate within the respective Rectories of March and Benwick as aforesaid, and should be built or remodelled, if need were, upon such Plan and in such Manner as the Patron of the said Rectory of March or Benwick, as the Case might be, for the Time being should think fit, so that the whole Quantity of Land so to be purchased for the Purpose of Glebe Land for the Rectory of Benwick should not exceed Ten Acres, and for the Purpose of a House, Offices, and Garden for the respective Rectories of March and Benwick should not exceed in each such Case Five Acres; and such Glebe Lands, and any Houses and Offices to be erected or purchased and altered, and any Garden or Land to be occupied therewith as aforesaid, should from and after the Erection, Purchase, and Completion thereof respectively be deemed and taken to be the Glebe Land, House of Residence, Offices, and Gardens of and belonging to the Rectory of March or Benwick, as the Case might be, for which the same should have been obtained; and it was enacted, that the Patron for the Time being of the said Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington, or of the said Rectory of March, or of the said Rectory of Benwick, might, with the Consent of the Rector of each such Rectory during his Incumbency, and of the Bishop of the Diocese of Ely, under their respective Hands and Seals, or after the Avoidance of the Incumbency of such Rector, with Consent only of the Bishop of the said Diocese of Ely, under his Hand and Seal, apply, at any Time after the Division of the said Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington should have taken effect under that Act, any Sum or Sums to be raised as therein-after mentioned, not exceeding such Sum as was therein-after mentioned, for the Purchase of such Quantity or Quantities of Land as to the said Patron for the Time being should seem necessary, at a convenient Spot or convenient Spots within the Limits

Doddington Rectory Division.

Limits of each such Rectory as to the said Patron should seem proper for the Site or Sites of an additional Church or Churches and for any Purposes connected therewith, and for the Purchase of a Site or Sites for a proper and convenient Parsonage House and Offices, and for a Garden and Glebe Land to be attached to each such additional Church, and for erecting and completing in all respects fit for Divine Service, and furnishing with all Things necessary and proper for the Performance of Divine Service, a fit and convenient additional Church or Churches, and for erecting and completing for actual Occupation each such Parsonage House and Offices, and for enclosing such Church or Churches and each such Garden and Glebe Lands respectively, or for the Purchase of a Quantity or Quantities of Land sufficient for the Purposes aforesaid, with House and Offices already erected thereon, and for the Alteration or Adaptation of such House and Offices suitable for actual Occupation, and which said Purchase or Purchases should be made, and such new Church or Churches, Parsonage House or Houses and Offices, Garden or Gardens, and Glebe Land or Lands, should be erected, built, or altered, and enclosed and appropriated respectively, upon such Plan and in such Manner as the said Patron for the Time being of each such Rectory in which the same should be situate, with the Consent of the said Bishop of Ely, should think proper; and the said Church and Churches so to be erected should be duly consecrated, but the whole Quantity of the Land to be purchased within each such Parish and Rectory for the Purposes aforesaid should not in any One Case exceed Fifteen Acres, and each Parsonage House to be erected or purchased and altered as last aforesaid, and any Land to be purchased as and for Glebe Land as last aforesaid, should from and after the Erection, Purchase, and Completion thereof respectively be deemed and taken to be the House of Residence and Glebe respectively for the Minister for the Time being serving the said additional Church, and each such additional Church should be a Chapel of Ease to the Parish Church of the Parish in which it was situate, and should be served by a licensed Stipendiary Curate to be appointed by the Rector of such Parish Church, and such Curate should be subject to the Laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, but each such additional Church should be subject to be made a new Parish Church, with a separate and distinct Parish as therein-after provided; and such Act contained certain Provisions as to providing additional Churches and Parsonage Houses with their Appurtenances, and as to creating the same into new Parishes, and other Provisions in connexion therewith; and after reciting that the aforesaid Chapel at Benwick having lately fallen down, and being then in a ruinous and decayed Condition, it was expedient that the same should be rebuilt on an enlarged Scale, in order that it might be fit to be used as a Parish Church for the Inhabitants of the distinct and separate Parish of Benwick formed by that Act, it was enacted, that it should be

lawful for the Patron for the Time being of the said Parish and Rectory of Benwick, with the Consent of the aforesaid Algernon Peyton the then present Rector of Doddington otherwise Dornington, and the Bishop of the Diocese of Ely, under their respective Hands and Seals, or after the Avoidance of the Incumbency of the said Algernon Peyton with the Consent only of the Bishop of the said Diocese of Ely, to apply at any Time after the passing of that Act any Sum or Sums of Money, to be raised as therein-after mentioned, not exceeding such Sum as was therein-after mentioned, towards the rebuilding and enlargement of such Chapel on the same or on another Site, and for putting such new Church into a proper State and Condition, and fit to be used as a Parish Church for the Inhabitants of the distinct and separate Parish of Benwick formed under that Act; and it was enacted, that after the Division of the said Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington into separate and distinct Parishes should have taken effect wholly or in part under that Act, the Publication of Banns and Solemnization of all Marriages by Banns or Licence, and the Administration of all Baptisms, and the Performance of all Burials of the Inhabitants within each of the said Three separate and distinct Parishes, should be had and solemnized as followed, (that was to say,) the Publication of Banns, the Solemnization of all Marriages by Banns or Licence, and the Administration of all Baptisms, and the Performance of all Burials of Inhabitants within the said new Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington, should be had and solemnized in the said Parish Church at Doddington; and the Publication of Banns, and Solemnization of all Marriages by Banns or Licence, and the Administration of all Baptisms, and the Performance of all Burials of Inhabitants within the said Parish of March, when the Formation of the same should have taken effect, should be had and solemnized in the said Church in the said Parish of March; and the Publication of Banns, and Solemnization of all Marriages by Banns or Licence, and the Administration of all Baptisms, and the Performance of all Burials of the Inhabitants within the said Parish of Benwick, when the Formation of the same should have taken effect, should be had and solemnized at the Parish Church of Benwick, but subject and without Prejudice to the Right of any Inhabitants of the then present Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington to be buried in the Churchyard at Doddington as therein-before provided; and all such Banns and Marriages so published and solemnized in the respective Churches of the said Parishes should in all respects and for all Purposes be as valid and effectual as if such Banns and Marriages had been published and solemnized in the Parish Church of Doddington or Chapel at March before the passing of that Act, but subject to all the Laws, Restrictions, and Penalties then in force or that might be thereafter enacted respecting the Publication of Banns or the Solemnization of Marriages of any Persons residing in any separate and distinct Parish; but it was provided that nothing in that Act

contained should alter or affect the then existing Powers, Privileges, or Customs by which Divine Service, as well as all the Offices of the Church, or any or either of them, were then performed and celebrated in the then present Parish Church of Doddington otherwise Dornington, or at the Chapels of March or Benwick as aforesaid, or the Rights or Privileges of the Inhabitants of the then present Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington to be married, buried, or baptized, or to attend Divine Service at such Church or Chapels respectively, until the Division of the then present Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington into Three separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories under the Provisions of that Act should have wholly or in part taken effect, and that such then existing Powers, Privileges, and Customs should apply to and be in force with respect to the then present Parish and Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington, or such Part thereof as should not have become a separate and distinct Parish and Rectory, and until the same should have taken effect wholly or in part, as the Case might be, under that Act; and it was enacted, that from and after the Division of the said Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington into separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories should have taken effect wholly or in part under that Act, all Acts of Parliament and Laws and Customs relating to publishing Banns of Marriage, Marriages, Baptisms, Burials, and Churchings, and the keeping of the Books of Registry thereof, and registering the same respectively, and to Certificates or Extracts from the same Books of Registry respectively, and to all Ecclesiastical Fees, Oblations, or Offerings, should apply to all the said Three separate and distinct Parishes and the Churches thereof, and to the other separate and distinct Parishes thereafter to be formed as aforesaid, and to the Churches thereof, and to the Ecclesiastical Persons having Cure of Souls therein or serving the same respectively, in like Manner in every respect as if the same respectively had been ancient, separate, and distinct Parishes and Parish Churches by Law to all Intents and Purposes; and it was enacted, that all Hereditaments to be purchased for any of the Purposes of that Act should be conveyed to the Rector of the Parish to which such Hereditaments were intended to belong, and his Successors, and such Conveyance should be valid notwithstanding the Statutes of Mortmain, and such Hereditaments should vest in the Rector for the Time being of such Parish and his Successors without further Conveyance, notwithstanding any Law or Statute to the contrary, and any Conveyance to be made as aforesaid might be made in the Form set forth in the Fifth Schedule to that Act annexed, or as near thereto as Circumstances might admit; and after reciting that the Parish Clerk of the Church of Doddington otherwise Dornington was entitled to receive certain Fees as such Parish Clerk for and in respect of the occasional Marriages of the Inhabitants of Doddington otherwise Dornington in the then present Church thereof, which Marriages of some of such Inhabitants would be discontinued from and after the Division of the said Rectory under the Powers of that Act, and the said Parish Clerk of Doddington otherwise Dornington would thereby sustain a certain Loss of Fees, it was enacted that in lieu of such Fees, and as a Compensation for the Loss of the same, the then present Parish Clerk of Doddington otherwise Dornington, in case he should continue such Parish Clerk when the Division of such Parish into distinct and separate Parishes under that Act should have taken effect, should, so long as he should continue such Parish Clerk, be entitled to and be paid a Moiety of any Fees which might be due to and received by the Parish Clerk of the Churches of March and Benwick aforesaid, or of the additional Church or Churches which might be erected as aforesaid, for the Solemnization of any Marriages in the said last-mentioned Churches; but it was provided that, except in the Case of the then Parish Clerk of Doddington, and so far only as before mentioned, and so long only as such Parish Clerk should continue Parish Clerk of Doddington Church, the future Parish Clerk of Doddington should not be considered to be entitled to any Fee for or in respect of any Offices or Services to be done and performed in the Churches of the Parish of March and Benwick or in the additional Church or Churches as aforesaid; and by such Act certain Limits were put to the Sums raiseable under the Provisions of that Act for the several Purposes therein mentioned (beyond the Expenses attending the raising the same, and the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of obtaining and passing that Act as therein-after mentioned); and it was enacted, that the Clauses in "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the Purchase of Lands by Agreement, and with respect to the Purchase Money or Compensation coming to Parties having limited Interests or prevented from treating or not making Title, and with respect to the Conveyance of Lands, should be incorporated with that Act; but it was provided, that the Consideration to be paid for the Purchase of any Hereditaments which should be purchased for the Purposes of that Act should be a gross Sum, and the same should not be paid for by any annual or other Rentcharge, and that all Hereditaments which should be purchased for the Purposes of that Act should be conveyed as therein-before directed, and the Patron for the Time being of the said Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington, or of the said Rectory of March, or of the said Rectory of Benwick, as the Case might be, should for the Purposes of the said Provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," thereby incorporated, be deemed "the Promoter of the Undertaking;" and it was enacted, that the Amount of all Costs, Charges, and Expenses which had been and should be incurred preparatory and with a view to that Act, and in obtaining and passing the same, and of the Proceedings and Instruments for ascertaining the Amount thereof, and the Expenses of raising such Monies, and the Interest of all such Monies when raised, should be (subject to existing Charges on the same) a Charge on

on the Tithes and Tithe Rents arising within the new Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington formed under that Act, and that such Charge should apply to such Tithes and Tithe Rents, although the Division of the Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington into Three separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories should not have taken effect under that Act, and that the other Monies required for all and every the Purposes of that Act should be (subject to existing Charges on the same) a Charge on the Tithes and Tithe Rents of the several Parishes and Rectories formed by that Act for whose Use and Benefit such Monies were required; and it should be lawful for the Patron for the Time being of the said Rectory of Doddington, or of the said Rectory of March, or of the said Rectory of Benwick, with the Consents of the Lord Bishop of Ely and of the Rector of the said respective Rectories during his Incumbency, under their Hands and Seals, and after the Determination of such Incumbency then for such Patron, with the Consent only of the said Lord Bishop under his Hand and Seal, by Deed to demise such Tithes and Tithe Rents to any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, who should be willing to lend or advance the same Monies, or any Part thereof, or to such Person or Persons as such Lender or Lenders might nominate or appoint for any Term or Terms of Years, but to be subject to a Proviso or Provisoes in such Mortgage or Mortgages to be contained for the Cesser of every such Term or Terms of Years on Payment to the Party or Parties, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, who should advance the same or any Part or Parts thereof, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, of the Principal Sum or Sums so to be borrowed, and such Interest as should become due for the same, at the Times and in manner therein-after mentioned, (that was to say,) the Interest thereof, or of so much thereof as from Time to Time should remain unpaid, at such Rate as should be agreed upon not exceeding Five Pounds for every One hundred Pounds by the Year, to be paid by equal half-yearly Payments on the Days to be therein appointed, and One Thirty-fifth Part of the Principal Money at the End of the First Year from the Day of advancing or lending such Sum or Sums of Money respectively, and a like Thirty-fifth Part of the Principal Money at the End of each Year, until the Principal should be repaid; but it was provided, that in case and so often as any such Sum of Money should be borrowed during the Incumbency of the then present Rector of Doddington the aforesaid Algernon Peyton, the said Algernon Peyton should keep down the Interest on such Sum, but should not be liable to repay or contribute to the Repayment of any Part of the Principal Money, and the Proviso in every such Mortgage as aforesaid to be made during the Incumbency of the said Algernon Peyton should be modified accordingly, so that One Thirty-fifth Part of the Principal Money thereby secured should first become payable on the Second of the half-yearly Days therein appointed for Payment of Interest which should happen after the Determination of such Incumbency, and a like Thirty-fifth Part at the End of each following Year, until the Principal should be paid; and such Act contained Clauses providing Remedies for Mortgagees, restricting the Amount of Arrears of Interest recoverable, and apportioning Instalments of Principal between a prior Incumbent or his Representatives and a new Incumbent, and providing Indemnity for the said Algernon Peyton in respect of Monies borrowed during his Incumbency, and as to ascertaining Costs, Charges, and Expenses, and as to the Amount of Charges, and as to the Person into whose Hands Monies borrowed were to be paid, and the Receipts of such Persons, and indemnifying Parties paying the same, and the Application of any Balances of Mortgage Monies, and as to depositing Accounts and Vouchers, and as to Advances by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty; and such Act contained Provisions defining and explaining who should be Patrons within the Act, and providing for the Incapacity or Disability of Patrons and Rectors, for regulating the Registration of Instruments, and as to Copies of such Instruments; and by the said Act it was provided and enacted, that nothing in that Act contained should affect or alter the Application of any charitable Devises, Bequests, or Gifts then applicable to the Maintenance, Repair, or Restoration of the said Church at Doddington otherwise Dornington and the said Chapel of March, or either of them, but the same Devises, Bequests, and Gifts respectively should remain applicable to the respective Purposes to which they were then lawfully applicable, notwithstanding the Division of the said Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington, and the Conversion of the said Chapel of March into a Parish Church, intended to be effected by that Act; and by the said Act it was provided and enacted, that nothing in that Act contained should make any Alteration in the Division of the said Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington into Townships or Divisions for the Maintenance of the Poor, or in any Civil Purpose whatsoever relating to the then present Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington; and it was enacted, that the Privileges, Exemptions, and Provisions of the several Acts recited in the Preamble to an Act passed in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the further Amendment of the Church Building Acts, being the Church Building Acts, and of that Act, might be used for the Purpose of carying that Act into execution, so far as the same were applicable to and not inconsistent with or repugnant to the Provisions of that Act; and the Act now in recital contained an Interpretation Clause of certain Words and Expressions used in that Act: And whereas the said Sir Henry Peyton has departed this Life, and is herein-after described as Sir Henry Peyton deceased, and the said Henry Peyton Esquire is now Sir Henry Peyton, and is herein-after described as Sir Henry Peyton, and the Advowson, Gift, free Disposition, and Right of Patronage of the Rectory and Parish Church of

of Doddington otherwise Dornington, with the Chapels of March and Benwick, stand limited and settled to the Use of the said Sir Henry Peyton for his Life, with Remainder to Algernon William Peyton Esquire, his eldest Son, in Fee: And whereas the Tithes or Commutation Rents to which the Rector for the Time being of the Parish of Doddington formed by the herein-before recited Act would be for the Time being entitled in respect of the Lands and Hereditaments situate within the Township of Doddington, and comprised in the First Part of the First Schedule to the said Act, and the Glebe Lands which under such Acts are to belong to the Rectory of Doddington, are subject to the Payment of an annual Sum of Sixteen Pounds in lieu of Land Tax; and the Tithe or Commutation Rents to which the said last-named Rector would be for the Time being entitled in respect of the Lands and Hereditaments situate within the Hamlet of Wimblington, and comprised in the Second Part of the said First Schedule to the said Act, are subject to the Payment of an annual Sum of Nine Pounds Twelve Shillings in lieu of Land Tax; and the Tithe or Commutation Rents to which the Rector for the Time being of the Parish of March formed by the herein-before recited Act would be for the Time being entitled, and the Glebe Lands which under such Act are to belong to the Rectory of March, are subject to an annual Payment of Nineteen Pounds Four Shillings in lieu of Land Tax; and the Tithe or Commutation Rents to which the Rector for the Time being of the Parish of Benwick formed by the herein-before recited Act would be for the Time being entitled are subject to the Payment of an annual Sum of Five Pounds Eight Shillings in lieu of Land Tax: And whereas under the herein-before recited Act the Three separate and distinct Parishes thereby created cannot be further subdivided until after there shall have been Incumbents thereof respectively, and such Incumbents shall have ceased to be such Incumbents, unless with the Consent of such Incumbents: And whereas the Division of the said Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington into the Three separate and distinct Rectories and Parishes into which the same is divided by the herein-before recited Act, will not sufficiently provide for the religious Instruction and pastoral Superintendence of the Inhabitants of the Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington (the now existing Parish being herein so described as dintinguished from the Parish of Doddington, the Name of One of the Three new Parishes created by the herein-before recited Act), and the Sums by the herein-before recited Act made raiseable for the Purposes therein specified are insufficient for such Purposes; and it is highly desirable that at an earlier Period than is mentioned and provided for that Purpose in and by the herein-before recited Act the Parish and Rectory of Doddington created by the herein-before recited Act should be divided into and form Two separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories, and that the Parish and Rectory of March created by the herein-before recited Act should be divided into and form Four separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories, and Provision should be made for there being a Chapel of Ease in One of such Parishes, and that adequate Provision should be made for the Division of the said Parishes and Rectories of Doddington and March respectively into such Parishes as aforesaid, and for providing such Chapel of Ease; but the Purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: Wherefore Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the said Sir Henry Peyton and Algernon William Peyton, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Income of the new Rectory of Doddington, after providing the Incumbent 1,700*l.* a Year, to be a Fund to provide a Church and Parsonage House in a new Parish to be formed out of it.

I. From the Time that the Township of Doddington and the Hamlet of Wimblington shall, under the herein-before recited Act, form the Parish and Rectory of Doddington, the Tithes or Commutation Rents and all other the annual Income to which the Rector for the Time being of the Parish of Doddington shall under the Provisions of the herein-before recited Act be entitled, excepting only Easter Dues, Oblations, Offerings, and Fees, and excepting the Rents and Profits of such Glebe as after the Division herein provided for shall be Glebe of the Parish of Doddington, shall be received and applied in manner following; (that is to say,) such Tithes or Commutation Rents and annual Income (except as aforesaid) shall be received by the Trustees or Trustee for the Time being acting under this Act, and shall be applied as follows, (that is to say,) there shall in the first instance be paid thereout all Rates, Charges, and Assessments due and payable in respect of such Tithes or Commutation Rents and annual Income, and in the next place there shall be paid thereout unto such Rector, until such Time as he shall under the Provisions herein-after contained be entitled to the Receipt of the Tithes or Commutation Rents and annual Income arising within what will constitute the Parish and Rectory of Doddington after the Creation of the new Parish of Wimblington, for the Creation of which Provision is hereby made, the annual Sum of One thousand seven hundred Pounds, and so in proportion for any less Time than a Year, the same to be in addition to any Easter Dues, Oblations, Offerings, and Fees which he may receive during the current Year or Part of a Year, and subject thereto there shall be paid thereout the Costs, Charges, and Expenses which by the herein-before recited Act are made a Charge on the Tithes and Tithe Rents arising within the Rectory of Doddington formed under that Act, and the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and attending the collecting and applying in manner herein provided such Tithes and Commutation Rents and annual Income, and of and attending the raising any Monies which may be raised under the herein-before recited Act and this Act for Expenditure in the said

Parish

Doddington Rectory Division.

Parish of Wimblington, together with the Costs, Charges, and Expenses which have been or may be incurred preparatory and with a view to this Act, and in obtaining and passing the same, and carrying the same into execution, and incidental thereto respectively; and the surplus Fund shall be a Fund applicable for or towards the purchasing a Site within the said Parish of Wimblington of a Church to be called the Parish Church of Wimblington, and the erecting upon such Site and completing in all respects fit for Divine Service, and furnishing with all Things necessary and proper for the Performance of Divine Service, a fit and convenient Church, and if the Patron of the Rectory of Doddington and the Bishop of Ely shall so direct, for purchasing within the Parish of Wimblington a suitable Quantity of Glebe Land for the Rectory of Wimblington, and for the purchasing or erecting within such Parish of a House and Offices, or the Purchase and Alteration or Adaptation of a House and Offices already erected within such Parish, suitable for actual Occupation as a Parsonage House for the Rector for the Time being of the said Parish of Wimblington, and the Purchase within such Parish of sufficient Land for the Site of such House and any Garden and Out-building thereto or convenient to be occupied therewith, and for the enclosing of all or any of such Premises, but so as that every Purchase be made with the Consent of the Patron for the Time being of the Rectory of Doddington and of the Bishop of Ely, and the Church, the House, and the Land be built and enclosed according to such Plan and in such Manner as such Patron and Bishop shall approve of; and if such surplus Fund shall not be exhausted by the Means aforesaid the unapplied Part thereof shall belong to such Person as shall be the Rector of Doddington when the Purposes aforesaid shall have been satisfied by the Means aforesaid, unless any Moneys shall have been borrowed for such Purposes, in which Case the same shall be applied in or towards Payment thereof.

The Rectory of Doddington divided into Two Parishes and Rectories from a Time to be specified by the Bishop.

II. From such Time subsequent to the Township of Doddington and the Hamlet of Wimblington under the herein-before recited Act forming the Parish and Rectory of Doddington, as the Patron of the Rectory of Doddington and the Bishop of Ely shall by Writing under their Hands and Seals, registered in the Registry of the Diocese of Ely, in that Behalf appoint, the said Parish and Rectory of Doddington shall be divided into and form Two separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories as herein-after next mentioned; (that is to say,) so much thereof as is comprised in the First Schedule hereto shall form and be One separate and distinct Parish and Rectory for all Ecclesiastical Purposes, and shall be called by the Name of the Parish and Rectory of Doddington; and so much thereof as is comprised in the Second Schedule hereto shall form and be One separate and distinct Parish and Rectory for all Ecclesiastical Purposes, and shall be called by the Name of the Parish and Rectory of Wimblington.

III. From

Doddington Rectory Division.

When Doddington is formed into Two Parishes each Rector to receive the Income from his own Parish.

III. From the Time when such Division of the said Parish and Rectory of Doddington into Two distinct and separate Parishes and Rectories as aforesaid shall take place the Receipt and Application of the Tithes or Commutation Rents and annual Income, for the Receipt and Application of which Provision is herein-before made, shall cease and determine, and the Rector of each of the Two new Parishes and Rectories shall be entitled to all the Tithes or Commutation Rents and the Rents and Profits of all Glebe Lands for the Time being arising within his separate Parish and Rectory (but subject to the Provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act, and to any Charge created or to be created in pursuance thereof respectively), and also to the like Easter Dues, Oblations, Offerings, Fees, and Emoluments, and also such Fees for or in respect of the Publication of Banns and the Celebration of Marriages and Performance of Burials, or the Erection of any Monument or Tombstone within the Church or Burial Ground of his Parish, and to all such Remedies for obtaining and recovering the same respectively, as the Rector of the Rectory out of which the new Rectory or Parish shall have been formed would have been entitled to had such Division not taken place.

The Income of the new Rectory of March, after providing the Incumbent an annual Income of 1,300*l.*, to be a Fund to provide new Churches and Parsonage Houses in Three new Parishes to be formed out of it.

IV. From the Time that the Township, Chapelry, or Hamlet of March shall, under the herein-before recited Act, form the Parish and Rectory of March, the Tithes or Commutation Rents, and all other the annual Income to which the Rector for the Time being of the Parish of March shall, under the Provisions of the herein-before recited Act, be entitled, excepting only Easter Dues, Oblations, Offerings, and Fees, and excepting also the Rents and Profits of such Glebe as after the Division herein provided for shall be Glebe of the Parish of March, shall be received and applied in manner following; (that is to say,) such Tithes or Commutation Rents and annual Income (except as aforesaid) shall be received by the Trustees or Trustee for the Time being acting under this Act, and shall be applied as follows, (that is to say,) there shall in the first instance be paid thereout all Rates, Charges, and Assessments due and payable in respect of such Tithes or Commutation Rents and annual Income; and in the next place there shall be paid thereout unto such Rector, until such Time as he shall under the Provisions herein-after contained be entitled to the Receipt of the Tithes or Commutation Rents and annual Income arising within what will constitute the Parish and Rectory of March after the Creation of the new Parishes of Saint Mary March, Saint John March, and Saint Peter March, for the Creation of which Provision is hereby made, the annual Sum of One thousand three hundred Pounds, and so in proportion for any less Time than a Year, in addition to any Easter Dues, Oblations, Offerings, and Fees he may receive during the current Year or Part of a Year, and subject thereto there shall be paid thereout the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and attending the collecting and applying in manner herein provided such Tithe

As to a Chapel of Ease in Saint Mary March.

V. Each new Church to be erected under the Provisions of this Act shall, when the Ordinary shall have approved the Title to the Land on which such Church shall have been built, be duly consecrated, and the Site thereof and other the Premises to be purchased for the Rector of

Each new Church to be consecrated, and the Site of each new Church and Parsonage House to be conveyed to the Rector of the Rectory out of which it is formed, &c.

of such Church shall be conveyed to the Rector for the Time being of the Parish out of which the new Parish is to be formed, and his Successors, and such Conveyance shall be valid and effectual notwithstanding the Statutes of Mortmain, and such Conveyance may be in the Form in that Behalf provided by the herein-before recited Act, or as near thereto as Circumstances will admit; but when and so soon as there shall be appointed a Rector for the Time being of such new Parish, the same shall vest in such Rector and his Successors; and the Parsonage House and Premises which by the Provisions of the herein-before recited Act were attached to the Rectory out of which the new Rectories so to be formed under this Act are to be formed (excepting only, as regards the Rectory of March formed by the herein-before recited Act, any Glebe within either of the said new Rectories of Saint Mary March, Saint John March, and Saint Peter March) shall from the Time of the Division of such Rectory be the Parsonage House and Premises of the Rectory and Parish bearing the Name given by the herein-before recited Act, and shall be vested in the Rector of such Rectory and his Successors; and any Glebe Lands which may be situate within the said Parishes of Saint Mary March, Saint John March, and Saint Peter March respectively shall, after the Formation of such Parishes, respectively belong to the Rectory and Parish within which the same may be situate, and shall be vested in the Rector of such Rectory and his Successors.

Parsonage House, &c. attached to Rectories created by existing Act, to be, after further Division of those Rectories, attached to the Rectories bearing same Name, but Glebe to be attached to the Rectory within which it is situate.

The Rectory of March shall be divided into Four Parishes and Rectories from a Time to be specified by the Patron and Bishop.

VI. From such Time subsequent to the Township, Chapelry, or Hamlet of March under the herein-before recited Act forming the Parish and Rectory of March, as the Patron of the Rectory of March and the Bishop of Ely shall by Writing under their Hands and Seals, registered in the Registry of the Diocese of Ely, in that Behalf appoint, the said Parish and Rectory of March shall be divided into and form Four separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories as herein-after next mentioned; (that is to say,) so much thereof as is comprised in the Third Schedule hereto shall form and be One separate and distinct Parish and Rectory for all Ecclesiastical Purposes, and shall be called by the Name of the Parish and Rectory of March; so much thereof as is comprised in the Fourth Schedule hereto shall form and be One separate and distinct Parish and Rectory for all Ecclesiastical Purposes, and shall be called by the Name of the Parish and Rectory of Saint Mary March; so much thereof as is comprised in the Fifth Schedule hereto shall form and be One separate and distinct Parish and Rectory for all Ecclesiastical Purposes, and shall be called by the Name of the Parish and Rectory of Saint John March; and so much thereof as is comprised in the Sixth Schedule hereto shall form and be One separate and distinct Parish and Rectory for all Ecclesiastical Purposes, and shall be called by the Name of the Parish and Rectory of Saint Peter March; provided, that in case such Patron and Bishop shall by Writing under their Hands and Seals registered as aforesaid so appoint, the

One or Two of the Three

the said Parish of March shall in the first instance be divided into Two or Three separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories only, One or Two, as the Case may be, of such Parishes and Rectories consisting of such One or such Two, as the Case may be, of the Parishes of March, Saint Mary March, Saint John March, and Saint Peter March, as may be in that Behalf named in such Writing, and the other Part consisting of the Remainder of the said Parish of March, and being called by the Name of the Parish and Rectory of March, unless in case of the Parish of March being named in such Writing, in which Case the Remainder of the Parish of March shall, until the complete Division of the Parish into Four Parishes, be called by the Name of the Parish and Hamlet of March; and in case of such partial Division a further Division of the said Parish of March shall not take place until a further Writing under the Hands and Seals of such Patron and Bishop appointing the Time for such further Division of the Parish and Rectory of March be registered as aforesaid, such Patron and Bishop having the Power, in case of the Division in the first instance being into Two Parishes and Rectories, to make a further Division so as to create One other of the said Parishes and Rectories which might as aforesaid have been created in the first instance, and subsequently to make the final and complete Division into Four Parishes and Rectories as provided by this Act.

new Parishes and Rectories to be created out of March may be created in the first instance.

VII. From the Time when such Division of the said Parish and Rectory of March into Four distinct and separate Parishes and Rectories as aforesaid shall take place, the Receipt and Application of the Tithes or Commutation Rents and annual Income, for the Receipt and Application of which Provision is herein-before made, shall cease and determine; and the Rector of each of the Four new Parishes and Rectories shall be entitled to all the Tithes or the Commutation Rents, and the Rents and Profits of all Glebe Lands for the Time being arising within his separate Parish and Rectory (but subject to the Provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act, and to any Charge created or to be created in pursuance thereof respectively), the whole of the said Land Tax of Nineteen Pounds and Four Shillings being borne and paid by the Rector for the Time being of the Parish of Saint Mary March, and to the like Easter Dues, Oblations, Offerings, Fees, and Emoluments, and also such Fees for or in respect of the Publication of Banns and the Celebration of Marriages and Performance of Burials, or the Erection of any Monument or Tombstone within the Church or Burial Ground of his Parish, and to all such Remedies for obtaining and recovering the same respectively, as the Rector of the Rectory out of which the new Rectory or Parish shall have been formed would have been entitled to had such Division not taken place; and in case of either One or more of the said Parishes of March, Saint Mary March, Saint John March, and Saint Peter March being separately divided and formed from and out of the said Parish of March, under the Provisions

When March shall be formed into Four Parishes, each Rector to receive the Income of his own Parish, and the like Provision if there be an earlier partial Division.

The annual Sum of 19*l.* 4*s.* in lieu of Land Tax to be borne by the Parish of Saint Mary March.

Doddington Rectory Division.

Provisions herein contained in that Behalf, the Receipt and Application in manner aforesaid of the Income of such Parish or Parishes of March, Saint Mary March, Saint John March, or Saint Peter March, as the Case may be, but not of the Income of any other Part of the said Parish of March, shall thereupon cease; and the Rector of such Parish or of each such Parish as may be so separately divided and formed shall receive the Income the Receipt of which shall so have ceased (subject as herein-before mentioned), the Rector of the Parish of Saint Mary March bearing such Payment for or in lieu of Land Tax as aforesaid, and each such Parish shall in all respects be in the same Position as if the said Parish of March had become divided into Four separate and distinct Parishes.

Examined Copies of Writings registered, &c., Evidence of Division.

VIII. An examined Copy of any Writing, registered under this Act as aforesaid, furnished by the Registrar of the Diocese, and certified under his Hand as a true Copy of such Writing, shall be Evidence of any such Division of a Parish as may be stated therein.

Services of the Church to be performed in each Church when formed, and each Rector to have Rectorial Jurisdiction and Powers.

IX. When and as the Rector of each of the said Parishes of Doddington, Wimblington, March, Saint Mary March, Saint John March, and Saint Peter March respectively shall be duly instituted and inducted to such Rectory, the Rector for the Time being of each of the said Parishes shall perform Divine Service in the Church of his Rectory, and shall preach and administer the Holy Sacrament, and shall have the exclusive Cure of the Souls of the Inhabitants of his Parish and Rectory, and shall publish Banns and solemnize Marriages either by Banns or Licence, and administer Baptisms, and perform Burials in the Church of his Rectory, and perform all other parochial Functions of a Minister in the same Manner and with the same Powers, Privileges, Rights, and Immunities as the Rector of the Parish out of which the same shall have been formed was previously by Law empowered to do; and the Rector of the Parish of Saint Mary March shall provide a licensed Stipendiary Curate for the said Chapel of Ease in his Parish, such Stipendiary Curate to be subject to all the Laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates; and each such Rector for the Time being shall for ever after the Formation of his Parish and Rectory be subject to such legal Provisions as to Presentation, Institution, and Induction, and to all such Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction as were by Law applicable to the Rector of the Rectory out of which each Rectory was formed; and each such Rector shall from the Time of such his Institution and Induction as aforesaid have the like Authority and Powers over the Curates and Ministers of the several Chapels and Churches in his separate Parish, subject to any additional Church or Churches being built therein, and to a separate and distinct Parish being provided for each such Church or for the Chapel of Ease for the Erection of which Provision is hereby made, as by the herein-before recited Act and this Act in that Behalf provided, and shall appoint

Doddington Rectory Division.

Parish Clerks, Sextons, and other Officers, and shall have such other Powers in each such Parish and Rectory as the Rector of the Rectory out of which the same was formed was entitled to exercise in such last-mentioned Rectory.

Provisions of recited Act as to Fees, and as to Repair of Churches, extended to new Churches under this Act.

X. The Provisions in the herein-before recited Act contained in reference to the Appointment of Churchwardens to each Parish, the Continuance of Churchwardens in Office at the Time of the forming of new Parishes, the preserving Rates and Assessments made during the Continuance in Office of such Churchwardens, as to Clerks and Sextons Fees, and the Compensation to the Person who at the Time of the Provisions of the herein-before recited Act was the Parish Clerk of the Church of Doddington otherwise Dornington, shall be applicable to the Parishes and Rectories to be formed under this Act and the Clerk and Sexton of each such Parish and Rectory; and the Church of each such new Parish shall be maintained and repaired at the Costs and Charges of the Inhabitants of the Parish in like Manner as by the herein-before recited Act in that Behalf provided as to the Churches of the Three Parishes thereby formed as aforesaid, the Parishes which shall comprise the now existing Churches respectively being exclusively entitled to the Benefit of any Provisions independent of Church Rates for the Maintenance of the Fabric of such Churches respectively, and nothing in this Act contained or to be done under the same shall affect the Rights of Burial provided for by the herein-before recited Act.

Rights of Burial under former Act not to be affected.

Laws as to Publication of Banns, &c., applicable to the new Parishes.

XI. All Acts of Parliament and Laws and Customs relating to publishing of Banns of Marriage, Marriages, Baptisms, Burials, and Churchings, and the keeping of the Books of Registry thereof and registering the same respectively, and to Certificates or Extracts from the same Books of Registry respectively, and to all Ecclesiastical Fees, Oblations, or Offerings, shall apply to all the said separate and distinct Parishes to be formed under this Act, and the Churches thereof, and to the Ecclesiastical Persons having Cure of Souls therein or serving the same respectively, in like Manner in every respect as if the same respectively had been ancient, separate, and distinct Parishes and Parish Churches by Law to all Intents and Purposes.

Each new Rectory to be a separate Benefice under the Jurisdiction of the Bishop of Ely, &c.

XII. Each Rectory to be formed under this Act shall, from the Time specified in the said Writing under the Hand of the Patron and Bishop, be a separate Ecclesiastical Benefice, and the Incumbent thereof shall be a Body Corporate with perpetual Succession, in the same Manner as the Rector of an Ecclesiastical Benefice now is by Law, and shall be subject to the Jurisdiction of the Bishop of the Diocese of Ely, and he and his Successors may take and hold such Endowments in Messuages, Lands, and Tithes or Tithe Rents as shall be vested in him and them under this Act.

Doddington Rectory Division.

Rectors of Doddington and March respectively to continue Rectors after Division without fresh Presentations, &c.

XIII. After any Division of the said Parishes of Doddington and March respectively under this Act, the Incumbents (if any) of each of such Parishes at the Time of such Division shall after such Division be the Rector of the new Parish of Doddington and March respectively, and in the Case herein-before in that Behalf provided for of the new Parish and Hamlet of March, without any fresh Nomination, Presentation, Institution, or Induction.

Patrons and Rectors of the new Rectories to be subject to general Law as to Ecclesiastical Benefices, &c.

XIV. The Patron or Patrons and Rectors of each of the said several Rectories shall, after the same shall have been created and formed as aforesaid respectively, be subject to the like Laws as are now and shall for the Time being be in force in respect of Ecclesiastical Benefices, and to the Presentation, Institution, and Induction thereto.

The Advowsons of new Rectories to stand limited as the Advowsons of Rectories out of which new Rectories formed.

XV. The Advowson, Gift, free Disposition, and Right of Patronage and Presentation to each of the Rectories formed and to be formed under the herein-before recited Act and under this Act respectively is hereby limited to the Uses, upon the Trusts, and under and subject to the Powers, Provisoes, and Declarations to, upon, with, under, and subject to which the Advowson, Gift, free Disposition, Right of Patronage and Presentation of the Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington stands limited, and may at any Time hereafter be aliened and dealt with as a separate and distinct Advowson, Gift, free Disposition, and Right of Presentation, as the Advowson of a Rectory may by Law be aliened and dealt with.

Power to raise Moneys for the Purposes of this Act upon the Tithe Rentcharge of Doddington or March.

XVI. Any Sums of Money which the Bishop of Ely with the Sanction of Her Majesty in Council shall think it desirable to raise in aid of the Funds herein-before provided for the Purpose of being applied to all or any of the Purposes herein-before specified, may be raised by the Patron for the Time being of the Rectory of Doddington or the Rectory of March for the Time being, according to whether such Moneys are to be applied in the one Parish or the other, at such Time or Times as may be thought most convenient; and for securing such Sums such Patron, with the Consent of the said Bishop, may demise the Tithes and Tithe Rents of the Parish of Doddington or March, as the Case may be, or any Part or Parts thereof, to any Person or Persons or Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate who shall be willing to lend or advance the same Monies or any Part thereof, or to such Person or Persons as such Lender or Lenders may nominate or appoint, for any Term or Terms of Years, but to be subject to a Proviso or Provisoes in such Mortgage or Mortgages to be contained for the Cesser of every such Term or Terms of Years on Payment to the Party or Parties, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, who shall advance the same or any Part or Parts thereof, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, of the Principal Sum or Sums so to be borrowed, rowed, and such Interest as shall become due for the same, at the times and in manner herein-after mentioned, (that is to say,) the Interest thereof or so much thereof as from Time to Time shall remain unpaid, at such Rate as shall be agreed upon, to be paid by equal half-yearly Payments on the Days to be therein appointed, and One Thirty-fifth Part of the Principal Money at the End of the First, Second, or Third Year from the Day of advancing or lending such Sum or Sums of Money respectively, and a like Thirty-fifth Part of the Principal at the End of each Year until the Principal shall be repaid: Provided always, that in case and so often as any such Sum of Money shall be borrowed during the Incumbency of the present Rector of Doddington the aforesaid Algernon Peyton, the said Algernon Peyton shall keep down the Interest on such Sums, but shall not be liable to repay or contribute to the Repayment of any Part of the Principal Money, and the Proviso in every such Mortgage as aforesaid to be made during the Incumbency of the said Algernon Peyton shall be modified accordingly, so that One Thirty-fifth Part of the Principal Money thereby secured shall first become payable on the Second of the half-yearly Days therein appointed for Payment of Interest which shall happen after the Determination of such Incumbency, and a like Thirty-fifth Part at the End of each following Year until the Principal shall be paid; provided, that in any such Mortgage the Commencement of all or any Part of the Instalments of the Principal Money borrowed may be postponed until the Second half-yearly Day next after the Time when the Parishes or One of the Parishes, or the Parish for which the Money thereby secured shall be raised, shall be formed into separate Parishes or a separate Parish under this Act, or for a shorter Period, and in the meantime the Interest of the Money borrowed shall be kept down out of the Fund which by this Act is made applicable for the same Purposes as the Money borrowed.

The Interest to be paid half-yearly, and the Principal paid off by Instalments.

If Money borrowed during Incumbency of Rev. A. Peyton, he to pay Interest only, and Instalments to be postponed.

Instalments may be postponed until new Parish formed.

XVII. Provided, always, That upon the said Parish and Rectory of Doddington being divided into Two separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories under this Act, the Moneys borrowed upon any Security of the Tithes and Tithe Rents of the Parish of Doddington, or upon any such Tithes or Tithe Rents, shall be charged upon the Tithes or Tithe Rents issuing out of the Lands comprised in the First and Second Schedules hereto, or on either of them, and if more than One then in such Shares and Proportions and generally in such Manner as the Patron of the Rectory of Doddington with the Consent of the Bishop of Ely shall by Writing under their respective Hands and Seals in that Behalf specify: Provided always, that any such Charge or Apportionment as aforesaid shall operate only as between the different Rectories, and shall not affect any Person to whom any Security shall have been made unless it shall have been so provided in such Security.

Upon the Division of the Parish of Doddington, Money borrowed upon Mortgage of Tithe Rentcharge of that Parish to be apportioned.

XVIII. Pro-

Doddington Rectory Division.

Corresponding Provisions as to Parish of March.

XVIII. Provided also, That upon the Parish of March becoming divided into Four separate and distinct Parishes and Rectories under this Act, the Moneys borrowed upon the Security of the Tithes and Tithe Rents of the Parish of March, or upon any of such Tithes and Tithe Rents, shall be charged upon the Tithes and Tithe Rents issuing out of the Lands comprised in the Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Schedules hereto, or in any One or more of such Schedules, and if more than One, in such Shares and Proportions and generally in such Manner as the Patron of the Rectory of March with the Consent of the Bishop of Ely shall by Writing under their respective Hands and Seals in that Behalf specify; and in case of One or Two of the said Parishes of March, Saint Mary March, Saint John March, and Saint Peter March, being formed in the first instance, or previously to the Subdivision of the Parish and Rectory of March, into Four distinct Parishes and Rectories, all or any of the Moneys so borrowed may, if thought desirable, be thereupon in manner aforesaid charged upon the Tithes and Tithe Rents of such Parish or Parishes, or either of such Parishes, in which Case all the other Moneys borrowed shall, upon the Formation of the other or others of such Parishes, be exclusively charged on such other Parish or Parishes, with such Power as aforesaid of charging or apportioning such other Monies upon or between such other Parishes or any or either of them, and the Payment of the First Instalment of any Moneys charged or apportioned as aforesaid may in any Security be postponed until the half-yearly Day next after any such Formation as aforesaid: Provided always, that any such Charge or Apportionment as aforesaid shall operate only as between the different Rectories, and shall not affect any Person to whom any Security shall have been made unless it shall be so provided in such Security.

Moneys in hand may be temporarily invested, and a Receiver may be appointed, and his Remuneration and other Costs of carrying into execution the Act to be paid.

XIX. Any Moneys arising from Income or raised by Mortgage, and respectively applicable under the Provisions of this Act, may, if and when not required for immediate Application under this Act, be laid out and invested in the Purchase of Exchequer Bills, or in or upon the Parliamentary Stocks or Public Funds of Great Britain, and the Income arising therefrom may be invested together with the resulting Income thereof in like Manner, and the Investments for the Time being may be varied for some other of such Investments as aforesaid; and the Persons for the Time being acting in the Administration of the said Funds may from Time to Time appoint a Receiver or Receivers to collect and get in the Income for the Time being applicable under the Provisions of this Act, and from Time to Time remove such Receiver or Receivers, and appoint a new Receiver or Receivers, and the Remuneration to be made to such Receiver or Receivers, and the Costs, Charges, and Expenses to be incurred by the Patron or Patrons aforesaid in or about the carrying into execution this Act and incident thereto, shall be included in the Costs, Charges, and Expenses for which Provision is herein-before made, and shall be paid accordingly.

Sums authorized by former Act to be raised may be increased by Order in Council.

XX. In such of the Cases provided for by the herein-before recited Act as are not already provided for by this Act, any Sum in addition to those by the herein-before recited Act authorized to be raised by Mortgage may be raised for the like Purposes, provided that the raising thereof be sanctioned not only by the Patron for the Time being and the Bishop of Ely, but also by an Order of Her Majesty in Council.

If the Parish of Doddington become under former Act a separate Parish during Incumbency of Rev. A. Peyton, no further Division thereof to take place during his Incumbency without his Consent.

XXI. Provided always, That in case the Parish of Doddington shall become a separate and distinct Parish from both or either of the Parishes of March and Benwick during the Incumbency of the said Algernon Peyton, then and in such Case the further Division of such Parish of Doddington into Two Parishes under the Provisions of this Act, and other the Provisions of this Act in reference thereto, so far as regards such Parish of Doddington, shall be suspended until the said Algernon Peyton shall cease to be Incumbent of such Parish of Doddington, unless the said Algernon Peyton expressly consent, in like Manner as provided by the herein-before recited Act for his consenting to the Division of the said Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington, to the Division under this Act of the said Parish of Doddington.

Provisions of first-recited Act as to additional Churches preserved and applied to Parishes formed under this Act.

XXII. The several Provisions in the herein-before recited Act as to providing additional Churches and Parsonage Houses with their Appurtenances, and the Creation of the same into new Parishes, and other the Provisions of that Act in connexion therewith, shall and may be acted upon and applied to the new Parishes to be formed under this Act, as if such Act had originally provided for such a Division of Parishes as herein-before is provided for, and such several Provisions had been framed and adapted accordingly.

Certain Clauses of first-recited Act to be applicable to this Act.

XXIII. The Provisions of the herein-before recited Act providing Remedies for Mortgagees, restricting the Amount of Arrears of Interest recoverable, and apportioning Instalments of Principal between a prior Incumbent or his Representatives and a new Incumbent, and the Provisions therein for the Indemnity of the said Algernon Peyton in respect of Moneys borrowed during his Incumbency, and as to ascertaining Costs, Charges, and Expenses, and as to the Amount of Charges, and as to the Persons into whose Hands Moneys borrowed are to be paid, and the Receipts of such Persons, and indemnifying Parties paying the same, and the Application of any Balances of Mortgage Moneys, and as to depositing Accounts and Vouchers, and as to Advances by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, and defining and explaining who shall be Patrons, and providing for the Incapacity

Doddington Rectory Division.

Incapacity or Disability of Patrons and Rectors, and regulating the registering of Instruments, and as to Copies of such Instruments, and as to the Parish of Doddington otherwise Dornington not being divided into Townships or Divisions for the Maintenance of the Poor or any Civil Purposes, and as to the Provisoes, Exemptions, and Provisions of the Church Building Acts, and other the Provisions of the herein-before recited Act in connexion therewith respectively, and the Interpretation Clause in the herein-before recited Act, shall extend and apply to this present Act and the Provisions thereof, and nothing herein contained shall affect the Provisions of the herein-before recited Act as to any Charitable Donations, Bequests, or Gifts now applicable to the Maintenance, Repair, or Restoration of the existing Churches of Doddington otherwise Dornington and the said Chapel of March.

Trustees to be appointed for the Administration of the Trust Funds under this Act.

XXIV. For the Purpose of administering the Trust Funds applicable for the Purposes aforesaid, there shall be appointed Two Trustees, One of whom shall be appointed by the Bishop of Ely, and the other of whom shall be appointed by the Patron for the Time being of the Rectory of Doddington, otherwise Dornington, or of March, as the Case may be, each Appointment being by Writing under their respective Hands and Seals; and a Trustee may be appointed from Time to Time by the Bishop or Patron, as the Case may be, in lieu of the Trustee appointed by the Bishop or Patron, as the Case may be, who shall die, desire to be discharged, or refuse, decline, or become incapable to act, or go to reside in Parts beyond the Sea, and the Two Trustees so for the Time being appointed originally or subsequently as aforesaid shall by Writing under their Hands and Seals appoint a Third Trustee to act with them, and so from Time to Time there shall be appointed by the Two Trustees or their Successors a Third Trustee, when and so often as the Third Trustee or his Successor shall die or desire to be discharged, or refuse, or decline, or become incapable to act, or go to reside in Parts beyond the Sea as aforesaid; and all the Trustees so to be appointed as aforesaid shall be reimbursed out of the Trust Funds their Costs, Charges, and Expenses properly incurred in the Execution of the Trusts aforesaid.

Trustees not to be liable for the Defaults of others.

XXV. The Trustees or Trustee for the Time being acting in execution of the Trusts of this Act shall be charged and chargeable respectively only for such Moneys as they or he shall respectively actually receive by virtue of or under this Act, notwithstanding their or his giving or signing, or joining in giving or signing, any Receipt or Receipts for the Sake of Conformity, and any one of them shall not be answerable or accountable for the other of them, or for the Acts, Receipts, Neglects, or Defaults of the other of them, or for any Receiver, Banker, or other Person employed by them or him, or with whom any Trust Moneys may be deposited, or for any other Loss that may be sustained in the Execution of the Trusts hereby created, created, except the same shall happen by or through his or their own wilful Default respectively.

General Saving of Rights.

XXVI. Saving always to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and to all and every other Person and Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, his, her, and their Heirs, Successors, Executors, and Administrators respectively, (save and except the said Algernon Peyton, Sir Henry Peyton, and Algernon William Peyton, and his Heirs and Assigns, so far as they are respectively affected thereby, but no further or otherwise,) all such Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Claim, and Demand of, in, to, or out of the Advowson of the present Rectory of Doddington otherwise Dornington aforesaid, and all and singular the Tithes, Tithe Rents, Glebe Lands, and Emoluments of the same Rectory, as they or any of them had before the passing of this Act, or could or might have held or enjoyed in case this Act had not been passed.

Act as printed by Queen's Printers to be Evidence.

XXVII. This Act shall not be a Public Act, but shall be printed by the several Printers to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty duly authorized to print the Statutes of the United Kingdom, and a Copy thereof so printed by any of them shall be admitted as Evidence thereof by all Judges, Justices, and others.
