(20) POTTERY

The Domestic and Ornamental Pottery (Manufacture, Marking and Supply) (Amendment) Order, 1951

1951 No. 595

Made - - - -	6th April, 1951
Laid before Parliament	7th April, 1951
Coming into Operation	16th April, 1951

The Board of Trade in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by Regulations 55 and 55AA of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, as having effect by virtue of the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945(a), as extended by the Supplies and Services (Extended Purposes) Act, 1947(b), and continued in force by the Supplies and Services (Continuance) Order, 1950(c), hereby order as follows:—

1. The Domestic and Ornamental Pottery (Manufacture, Marking and Supply) Order, 1950(d), shall have effect subject to the following amendments:—

(1) for Article 6 there shall be substituted the following:—

" Records

6. A person who supplies any decorated pottery by export shall keep a record containing the following particulars:—

(a) a description, and in particular the quantity, of the pottery supplied;

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 10; and S.R. & O. 1945 (No. 1618) II, p. 48.
(b) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 55. (c) S.I. 1950 (No. 1769) III, p. 51.
(d) S.I. 1950 (No. 1130) III, p. 844.

(b) if the pottery is exported by parcel post, the date of posting; or, if it is exported by sea or air, the date of loading into the vessel or aircraft and the name of the vessel, or sufficient particulars to identify the aircraft, in which it is loaded; and

(c) the name of the consignee and the destination to which the pottery is consigned.

Such record shall be preserved for a period of eighteen months after the pottery was posted or loaded in the vessel or aircraft, as the case may be.";

(2) for paragraph (2) of Article 11 there shall be substituted the following:—

"(2) 'export' means export from the United Kingdom otherwise than to the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands and includes delivery on board a vessel or aircraft for carriage to a place outside the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands and sending to such a place by parcel post from the United Kingdom;";

(3) for paragraph (7) of Article 11 there shall be substituted the following:—

"(7) 'undecorated pottery' means controlled pottery—

(a) made from a white or light ivory body glazed with a colourless or white glaze; or

(b) being stoneware glazed with a colourless, white or brown glaze on the outside and a white or colourless glaze on the inside; or

(c) made from a red ware body, being a natural clay body made in the natural colour of the clay, unglazed on the outside and glazed with a colourless, brown, white or cream glaze on the inside; or

(d) made from a yellow ware body, being a natural clay body made in the natural colour of the clay, glazed on the outside with a colourless glaze and on the inside with a white glaze or a colourless glaze over a white slip; or

(e) made in jet, rockingham, samian or parian style;

irrespective of its shape, but does not include any pottery which is coloured, except to the extent indicated in any one of the heads (a) to (e) (inclusive) of this paragraph, or which bears any letter, figure, design or other mark produced wholly or partly by the application of material or colour different from that of the body of the pottery, except—

(i) the letters or word referred to in paragraph (1) or (3) of Article 2,

(ii) the name of the manufacturer,

(iii) a registered trade mark of which the manufacturer is either the proprietor or a registered user, or the symbol referred to in paragraph (2) of Article 2 in relation to that manufacturer,

(iv) the words "made in" followed by a word indicating the part of the United Kingdom in which the pottery was manufactured; and";

(4) the last item in the First Schedule shall be omitted; and

(5) for the Third Schedule there shall be substituted the following:—

"THIRD SCHEDULE

(1) Teapots, teapot stands, jugs, sugar bowls and coffee pots—

(a) which by reason of the colouring in the glaze are not undecorated pottery but have no other embellishment except embossing produced in the mould; or

(b) which by reason of their having coloured slip bands are not undecorated pottery but have no other embellishment, except russet roughening or embossing (or both), and are made from a natural clay body in the natural colour of the clay;

(2) any article of stoneware, marked indelibly with the word "stoneware" and the manufacturer's name or a trade mark of which he is the proprietor or a registered user or an identification symbol, being stoneware which by reason of the colouring in the glaze is not undecorated pottery but has no other embellishment, except one or more of the following:— (i) embossing produced in the mould; (ii) throwers' or turners' lines; (iii) roughening; being in each case pottery which bears no letter, figure, design or other mark produced by the application of material or colour different from that of the body of the pottery, except as provided above or in heads (ii) to (iv) inclusive of paragraph (7) of Article 11.".

2. This Order may be cited as the Domestic and Ornamental Pottery (Manufacture, Marking and Supply) (Amendment) Order, 1951, and shall come into operation on the 16th day of April, 1951.

Dated this 6th day of April, 1951.

Arthur G. Bottomley,
Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Trade.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends the Domestic and Ornamental Pottery (Manufacture, Marking and Supply) Order, 1950. The principal changes are as follows:—

(a) the principal Order now applies to the containers which were formerly excluded from the definition of "controlled pottery";

(b) the list of articles, other than "undecorated pottery", which may be supplied on the home market without licence has been extended (see the new Third Schedule);

(c) provision is made for the export of pottery by parcel post;

(d) a new definition of "undecorated pottery" is provided.
