The Cheltenham (Electoral Changes) Order 2023

Made - - - -

Coming into force in accordance with article 1(2), (3) and (4)

Under section 58(4) of the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009(a) ("the Act"), the Local Government Boundary Commission for England(b) ("the Commission") published a report dated April 2023(c) stating its recommendations for changes to the electoral arrangements for the Borough of Cheltenham. The Commission has decided to give effect to the recommendations.

A draft of the instrument has been laid before each House of Parliament and a period of forty days has expired since the day on which it was laid and neither House has resolved that the instrument be not made.

The Commission makes the following Order in exercise of the power conferred by section 59(1) of the Act.

Citation, commencement, extent and application

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Cheltenham (Electoral Changes) Order 2023.

(2) This article and article 2 come into force on the day after the day on which the Order is made.

(3) Articles 3 and 4 come into force—

(a) for the purpose of proceedings preliminary or relating to the election of councillors, on 15th October 2023;

(b) for all other purposes, on the ordinary day of election of councillors in England(d) in 2024.

(a) 2009 c. 20.

(b) The Local Government Boundary Commission for England was established on 1st April 2010 by section 55(1) of the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009.

(c) The report is available for inspection at reasonable times at the principal office of the Local Government Boundary Commission for England, 1st Floor, Windsor House, 50 Victoria Street, London SW1H 0TL. It is also accessible online at https://www.lgbce.org.uk/all-reviews/cheltenham.

(d) The ordinary day of election of councillors in England is prescribed by section 37(1) of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (c. 2), as amended by section 18(2) of the Representation of the People Act 1985 (c. 50), renumbered by

(4) Article 5 comes into force—

(a) for the purpose of proceedings preliminary or relating to the election of parish councillors, on 15th October 2025;

(b) for all other purposes, on the ordinary day of election of parish councillors in England(a) in 2026.

(5) This Order extends to England and Wales but applies in relation to England only.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In this Order, "the map" means the map marked "Map referred to in the Cheltenham (Electoral Changes) Order 2023", held by the Local Government Boundary Commission for England(b).

(2) Where a boundary is shown on the map as running along a road, railway line, footway, watercourse or similar geographical feature, it is to be treated as running along the centre line of the feature.

Wards of the borough of Cheltenham and numbers of councillors

3.—(1) The existing wards of the borough of Cheltenham are abolished.

(2) The borough of Cheltenham is divided into the 20 wards listed in Schedule 1.

(3) Each ward comprises the area identified on the map by reference to the name of the ward.

(4) The number of councillors to be elected for each ward is two.

Elections of the borough of Cheltenham

4.—(1) Elections of all councillors for each ward of the borough of Cheltenham are to be held simultaneously on the ordinary day of election of councillors in England in 2024.

(2) The councillors holding office for any ward abolished by article 3(1) immediately before the fourth day after the ordinary day of election of councillors in 2024 are to retire on that fourth day, and the newly elected councillors are to come into office on that fourth day.

(3) Of the councillors elected for a ward in 2024—

(a) one is to retire on the fourth day after the ordinary day of election of councillors in England in 2026;

(b) one is to retire on the fourth day after the ordinary day of election of councillors in England in 2028.

(4) Of the councillors elected for a ward in 2024, the first councillor for each ward to retire is to be the councillor elected by the smallest number of votes.

(5) In the case of an equality of votes between any persons elected which makes it uncertain which of them is to retire in any year, the person to retire in that year is to be determined by lot.

(6) If an election of councillors for any ward is not contested, the person to retire in each year is to be determined by lot.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order makes changes to electoral arrangements for the borough of Cheltenham following recommendations made by the Local Government Boundary Commission for England. The area of the borough remains unchanged.

Article 3 abolishes the existing electoral wards of the borough of Cheltenham and replaces them with 20 new ones. It establishes the names and areas of the new electoral wards and the number of councillors for each.

Article 4 makes provision for a whole borough council election in 2024. Subsequently, the council will revert to the existing system of election by halves. That article also provides for the order of retirement of councillors in 2026 and 2028 and the election of their replacements.

Article 5 makes changes to parish wards that are consequential on the changes made by article 3, those changes coming into force in relation to elections occurring in 2026 and in respect of subsequent parish elections.

The area covered by each ward created by this Order is identified on a map which is available for inspection at reasonable times at the offices of the Local Government Boundary Commission for England, 1st Floor, Windsor House, 50 Victoria Street, London, SW1H 0TL.

The map may also be accessed at https://www.lgbce.org.uk/all-reviews/cheltenham.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on the private or voluntary sectors is foreseen.
