6. Legislative Context

6.1 The Commission has power under section 59 of the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009 (the 2009 Act) to make an order giving effect to recommendations contained in a report, prepared under section 58(4) of the 2009 Act, after conducting an electoral review under section 56(1) of that Act. This instrument is being made to give effect to the Commission's recommendations for new electoral arrangements set out in its report prepared following an electoral review of Hartlepool Borough Council.

7. Policy background

What is being done and why?

7.1 The purpose of an electoral review is to decide on the appropriate electoral arrangements including the number of councillors and the names, number and boundaries of wards or divisions for a specific local authority. The Commission began the electoral review of Hartlepool Borough Council in May 2018. The Commission decided to conduct the review as, based on the December 2016 electorate figures, 45% of wards had an electoral variance of greater than 10% from the average for the authority.

7.2 An electoral review aims to ensure that the number of electors represented by each county or district councillor is as close to equal as possible, but the recommendations must also have regard to community identities and interests and the need for effective and convenient local government. To achieve these aims, the Commission tries to ensure that the number of electors per councillor in every division or ward is as close as possible to the average for the authority, but is happy to show flexibility in moving away from the average based on the evidence provided during the consultation stages of the review. Following a four-stage review process the Commission published its 'Final recommendations – 'New electoral arrangements for Hartlepool Borough Council'[1] on 5 February 2019.

7.3 The Order provides for changes to the electoral arrangements for Hartlepool Borough Council at the borough elections in 2020 as recommended by the Commission. The existing wards of the council will be replaced by 12 new ones. All 12 wards will each return three councillors. The Commission considered that the evidence received justified no wards having electoral variances of greater than 10% from the authority average by 2024.

8. European Union (Withdrawal) Act/Withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union

8.1 This instrument does not relate to withdrawal from the European Union.

9. Consolidation

9.1 This Instrument does not amend or revoke any legislation.

10. Consultation outcome

10.1 The Order gives effect to recommendations that were consulted on during the review of electoral arrangements from May 2018 to February 2019. During the course of the review, the Commission received approximately 180 representations. The consultations involved the Borough Council, parish and town councils, the local MP, local residents and other interested parties. There was an initial eleven-week consultation, during which the Commission asked for proposals on the most appropriate number of councillors and ward boundaries for the borough. The Commission considered that a council size of 36 would ensure effective and convenient local government for the authority. Having considered the submissions received, the Commission published its 'Draft recommendations - New electoral arrangements for Hartlepool Borough Council'[2] on 2 October 2018. Following a ten-week consultation on the draft recommendations, the Commission considered the further evidence received and published its final recommendations.

10.2 In response to the consultation on the draft recommendations, the Commission made no changes and thereby confirmed its draft recommendations for the borough as final.

10.3 A detailed analysis of the outcome of the consultation is set out in the report 'Final recommendations - New electoral arrangements for Hartlepool Borough Council' which is available at http://s3-eu-west-2.amazonaws.com/lgbce/Reviews/North%20East/Hartlepool/Final%20Recs/Web%20Hartlepool%20Final%20Recommendations%20Report.pdf

11. Guidance

11.1 The Commission does not intend to issue any guidance alongside this instrument. This is not considered necessary as the Order is self-explanatory and gives effect to recommendations following consultation with interested parties as to the changes to electoral arrangements.

12. Impact

12.1 There is no impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies.

12.2 The impact on the public sector will be limited to the area for which the Order makes provision. The one-off cost of producing the map referred to by the instrument is to be funded by the Commission. The one-off cost of amending the electoral register to reflect the new wards is to be funded by Hartlepool Borough Council.

12.3 An Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument.

13. Regulating small business

13.1 The legislation does not apply to activities that are undertaken by small businesses.

14. Monitoring & review

14.1 The Commission will have no role in monitoring the Council's implementation of the Hartlepool (Electoral Changes) Order 2019. The Commission is not required to undertake such monitoring; that is a matter for the relevant officers of Hartlepool Borough Council. The Order will be reviewed insofar as the Commission continually monitors local authorities in England to identify any that meet its criteria for electoral reviews.
