4. Legislative context

4.1 The proposed Order is being made to enable the Secretary of State to contribute further to the IDA (the UK has contributed to the previous fifteen replenishments). The purpose of this further contribution, together with contributions pledged by other donors, is to provide the IDA with commitment capacity for lending on highly concessional terms and to provide grants to the poorest countries in the world over the period, 2011-2014. This Order is made under section 11 of the International Development Act 2002 which permits the Secretary of State to make relevant payments to multilateral development banks where the Government of the United Kingdom is bound to make such a payment, but that in order to make a payment he must make an order, which has Treasury approval and a draft of which has been approved by the House of Commons.

5. Territorial Extent and Application

5.1 This instrument applies to all of the United Kingdom.

6. European Convention on Human Rights

Andrew Mitchell, the Secretary of State for International Development has made the following statement regarding Human Rights:

In my view the provisions of the International Development Association (Sixteenth Replenishment) Order 2011 are compatible with the Convention rights.

7. Policy background

7.1 IDA is part of the World Bank Group. It aims to help the poorest countries reduce poverty by providing grants and highly concessional loans (no or low interest rates and long grace and maturity periods). Its policy framework focuses on macroeconomic growth; social sector support; protecting the environment for sustainable development; fostering recovery in post-conflict countries; and promoting trade and regional integration.

7.2 The other organisations that make up the World Bank Group are the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD), the International Finance Corporation (IFC), the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency (MIGA) and the International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID). The overarching goal of the Group is to reduce poverty and improve living standards by supporting sustainable growth and investment in people. IDA plays an important role in helping the world meet the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs).

7.3 IDA replenishments are generally at three-year intervals. The United Kingdom's contributions to the last six replenishments have been as follows:

Eleventh (interim) replenishment (1997)	£177.7 million
Eleventh replenishment (1998)	£299.2 million
Twelfth replenishment (2000)	£511.3 million
Thirteenth replenishment (2002)	£964.8 million
Fourteenth replenishment (2006)	£1,430.0 million
Fifteenth replenishment (2008)	£2,134.0 million

7.4 The Association adopted the Sixteenth Replenishment Resolution (Resolution No. 227) on 26th April 2011. A copy of Resolution No. 227 has been laid in the House of Commons library. In accordance with Resolution No. 227 the United Kingdom's contribution will be made in the form of non-negotiable, non-interest bearing promissory notes expressed in pounds sterling and encashable on demand.
