EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO

THE INTERNATIONAL TAX ENFORCEMENT (TURKS AND CAICOS ISLANDS) ORDER 2010

2010 No. [XXXX]

1. This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by HM Revenue and Customs ("HMRC") and is laid before the House of Commons by Command of Her Majesty.

2. Purpose of the instrument

The Order brings into effect arrangements for the exchange of information for tax purposes between the Governments of the United Kingdom and the Turks and Caicos Islands ("the Arrangements").

3. Matters of special interest to the Select Committee on Statutory Instruments

None.

4. Legislative Context

4.1 General

The Order is being made to give effect in UK legislation to the Arrangements. The Arrangements are scheduled to the Order, and are thus given domestic legislative effect.

4.2 EU Legislation

The Order does not implement EU legislation.

5. Territorial Extent and Application

The Order applies to all of the United Kingdom.

6. European Convention on Human Rights

The Exchequer Secretary to the Treasury, David Gauke, has made the following statement regarding human rights:

"In my view the provisions of the International Tax Enforcement (Turks and Caicos Islands) Order 2010 are compatible with the Convention rights."

7. Policy background

- What is being done and why

7.1 Tax Information Exchange Arrangements of the kind scheduled to the Order facilitate the exchange of information between tax authorities relevant to the administration or enforcement or recovery of taxes, and debts relating to those taxes, covered by the arrangements. They therefore assist HMRC in carrying out its tax compliance activities, such as combating tax avoidance and evasion, by allowing it to receive information from and disclose information to other countries or territories which helps to ensure that taxpayers pay the right amount of tax at the right time in the right country or territory.

More generally, Tax Information Exchange Arrangements assist in improving the efficiency of tax information exchange and help to ensure that the international consensus on fiscal transparency and exchange of information is met.

All of the UK's recent Tax Information Exchange Arrangements broadly follow the approach adopted in the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development's ("OECD") Model Agreement on Exchange of Information on Tax Matters. The Arrangements contained in the Schedule to the Order continue that approach.

- Consolidation

7.2 Not applicable.

8. Consultation outcome

HMRC regularly consults with external interested parties, including business representatives, about the effectiveness of existing arrangements for the avoidance of double taxation and fiscal evasion, including information exchange, as well as new needs. The annual treaty negotiating programme is agreed with Ministers and published on the HMRC web site at: http://www.hmrc.gov.uk/si/dtc-2010.htm

9. Guidance

General guidance on the operation of the UK's Tax Information Exchange Agreements can be found on the HMRC web site at: http://www.hmrc.gov.uk/manuals/intmanual/INTM156000.htm

10. Impact

10.1 The impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies is negligible.

10.2 There is no impact on the UK public sector. HMRC already operates the terms of many other very similar arrangements currently in force.

10.3 An Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this Order.

11. Regulating small business

None of the provisions of the Arrangements scheduled to the Order affect the taxation of small business.

12. Monitoring and review

Both Governments will keep the Arrangements scheduled to the Order under review to ensure that they meet the policy objectives set out above in section 7.
