CHAPTER clxviii.

An Act to amend the Dublin (South) City Market Act, 1876; to enable the Company to construct new Streets; and for other purposes. [21st July 1879.]

A.D. 1879.

WHEREAS by the Dublin (South) City Market Act, 1876, (in this Act referred to as "the Act of 1876,") the Dublin (South) City Market Company were incorporated for the establishment, maintenance, and regulation of a market on the south side of the city of Dublin, and for facilitating the approaches to such market were authorised to alter, divert, and widen existing streets adjoining or near thereto: 39 & 40 Vict. c. ccxxxii.

And whereas by the said Act the capital of the Company was limited to two hundred thousand pounds, divided into twenty thousand shares of ten pounds each, and the Company were empowered to borrow on mortgage any sum not exceeding in the whole fifty thousand pounds:

And whereas the Company have proceeded to act in execution of the powers by the said Act conferred upon them, and have acquired the principal portion of the lands required for the purpose of the market, and the whole of the capital has been subscribed, and four pounds on each share of such capital has been paid up, and they have not borrowed any moneys:

And whereas it is expedient that the further powers in this Act contained should be conferred upon the Company so as to enable them to make new streets or approaches and to improve the existing approaches to the market, to provide slaughter-houses, and to improve their market undertaking, and for such purpose to acquire further lands and to raise additional capital and to borrow further moneys to the extent and subject to the conditions and restrictions herein-after contained:

And whereas a plan describing the lines and situations of the intended new streets, and of the lands and houses authorised to be taken compulsorily under the Act, and sections showing the levels of the intended new streets, with a book of reference to the plan, have been deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of the city of Dublin (which said plan, sections, and book of reference are in this Act referred to as the deposited plan, sections, and book of reference):

A.D. 1879.

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Dublin (South) City Market Amendment Act, 1879, and this Act and the Act of 1876 may be cited together as the Dublin (South) City Market Acts, 1876 and 1879.

Construction of Act.
26 & 27 Vict. c. 118.
10 & 11 Vict. c. 14.

2. The Act of 1876 as amended by this Act and this Act shall be construed together as one Act, and Part II. of the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, and the provisions of the various Acts incorporated with the Act of 1876, except section 19 of the Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847, shall be incorporated with and form part of this Act, and the purposes of the Act of 1876 shall extend to and comprise the purposes of this Act.

Interpretation of terms.

3. In this Act the several words and expressions to which meanings are assigned by the Act of 1876 or by the Acts wholly or partially incorporated herewith have the same respective meanings, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

Power to raise additional capital.

4. The Company may, subject to the provisions of Part II. of the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, from time to time, in addition to the capital by the Act of 1876 authorised, raise any additional capital, not exceeding in the whole seventy-five thousand pounds, by the creation and issue at their option of new ordinary shares or stock or new preference shares or stock, or wholly or partially by one or more of those modes respectively; but the Company shall not issue any share of less nominal value than ten pounds, nor shall any share vest in the person or corporation accepting the same, unless and until a sum not being less than one fifth of the amount of such share shall have been paid in respect thereof.

Shares not to issue until one fifth paid up.

Calls.

5. One fifth of the amount of a share shall be the greatest amount of a call, and two months at least shall be the interval between successive calls, and four fifths of the amount of a share shall be the utmost aggregate amount of the calls made in any year upon any share of such further capital by this Act authorised to be raised.

Except as otherwise provided, new shares or stock to be subject to the same incidents as other shares or stock.

6. Except as by this Act otherwise provided, the capital in new shares or stock created by the Company under this Act, and the new shares or stock therein and the holders thereof respectively, shall be subject and entitled to the same powers, provisions, liabilities, rights, privileges, and incidents whatsoever in all respects as if that capital were part of the now existing capital of the Company of the same class or description, and the new shares or stock were shares or stock in that capital. The capital in new shares or stock so created shall form part of the capital of the Company.

Dividends on new shares or stock.

7. Every person who becomes entitled to new shares or stock shall in respect of the same be a holder of shares or stock in the Company, and shall be entitled to a dividend with the other holders of shares or stock of the same class or description, proportioned to the whole amount from time to time called and paid on such new shares, or to the whole amount of such stock, as the case may be.

Restrictions as to votes in respect of preferential shares or stock.

8. Except as otherwise expressly provided by the resolution creating the same, no person shall be entitled to vote in respect of any new shares or stock to which a preferential dividend shall be assigned.

Power to borrow on mortgage.

9. The Company may, in respect of the additional capital of seventy-five thousand pounds which they are by this Act authorised to raise, from time to time borrow on mortgage any sums not exceeding in the whole twenty-five thousand pounds; and the Company may, as each sum of fifteen thousand pounds of such additional capital has been issued and accepted, and one half the amount of each such sum has been paid up, borrow on mortgage in respect of each such sum of fifteen thousand pounds any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole five thousand pounds; but in no case shall any part of the said respective sums of five thousand pounds be borrowed until shares for so much additional capital in respect of which such borrowing powers are sought to be exercised as is to be raised by means of shares are issued and accepted, and one half of such additional capital is paid up, and the Company have proved to the justice who is to certify under the fortieth section of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, before he so certifies, that shares for the whole of such additional capital have been issued and accepted, and that one half of such additional capital has been paid up, and that not less than one-fifth part of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 16.

A.D. 1879.

the amount of each separate share in such additional capital has been paid up on account thereof before or at the time of the issue or acceptance thereof, and until stock for one half of so much of such additional capital in respect of which such borrowing powers are sought to be exercised as is to be raised by means of stock is fully paid up, and the Company have proved to such justice as aforesaid, before he so certifies, that such shares or stock, as the case may be, were issued and accepted and paid up bonâ fide, and are held by the persons or corporations to whom the same were issued, or their executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, and also, so far as the said additional capital is raised by shares, that such persons or corporations, or their executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, are legally liable for the same; and upon production to such justice of the books of the Company, and of such other evidence as he shall think sufficient, he shall grant a certificate that the proof aforesaid has been given, which certificate shall be sufficient evidence thereof.

General borrowing powers of the Company.

10. The borrowing powers of the Company under the Act of 1876 and this Act shall be expressly subject to and exercised in accordance with the following provisions; (that is to say,)

The market undertaking as defined by section 2 of the Act of 1876 shall be deemed to comprise and include two portions, whereof one (distinguished as "the market") shall consist of the Dublin (South) City Market, and all market places and market houses, and all dwelling-houses, buildings, shops, works, approaches, conveniences, and appurtenances therein or connected therewith, together with all powers, rights, privileges, claims, and demands of the Company, in respect of the market under the Act of 1876 and this Act, and the other (distinguished as "the residue of the undertaking") shall consist of all the lands of the Company acquired under the provisions of the Act of 1876 or of this Act, other than those comprised or included in the market, together with all or any powers, rights, privileges, claims, and demands of the Company in respect of such lands:

The limits of "the market" and of "the residue of the undertaking" respectively shall be those which are shown on the plan of the market undertaking signed by the Marquess of Ripon, Chairman of the Committee of the House of Lords to whom the Bill for this Act was referred, and which limits respectively on the said plan are thereon coloured green as to the limits of the market, and are coloured pink as to the limits of the residue of the undertaking:

Duplicates of the said plan of the market undertaking, duly authenticated as aforesaid, shall be deposited for the purposes of this Act with the clerk of the peace for the county of the city of Dublin and at the offices of the Company within one month after the passing of this Act:

The market and the property comprised within the limits thereof as shown on the said plan and thereon coloured green shall be the security upon and with respect to which the borrowing powers of the Company under the Act of 1876 and this Act may be exercised, and as to which and none other (save as herein-after expressly provided with respect to any "special mortgages") the mortgages of the Company and the rights and remedies of their holders shall extend and apply, and such limits and lands for all purposes in relation to borrowing of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Act of 1876 and this Act, shall be as if they were the only lands upon which the Company are or were at any time authorised to borrow.

Residue of undertaking, &c. not to be included in mortgages other than special mortgages.

11. The residue of the undertaking and the property comprised within the limits thereof as shown on the said plan shall not be included in any mortgage other than a special mortgage granted by the Company under the Act of 1876 or this Act, but shall be deemed to be lands upon and with respect to which the powers of the Company under section 48 of the Act of 1876, or other the powers of the Company (save as to borrowing otherwise than upon special mortgages) under the Act of 1876 or this Act, may be exercised.

Power to grant special mortgages limited to 40,000*l*.

12. Subject to the foregoing provisions, in case the Company think fit they may from time to time borrow, on the security of any lands forming part of the residue of the undertaking, any moneys which they are authorised to borrow on mortgage by the Act of 1876 and this Act, and may secure the repayment of the moneys so borrowed, together with the interest thereon, by mortgage of such lands. Every such mortgage shall contain a full description of the lands comprised therein, and shall be called a "special mortgage," and on the same such name and a reference to this section shall be indorsed, and every such special mortgage may contain such powers and provisions for enforcing the payment of the moneys secured thereby as may be agreed on. The lands included in any special mortgage shall be the only security for the repayment of the moneys secured thereby and the interest thereon, and the market and the residue of the undertaking shall (save as to such lands) be absolutely freed and discharged from all liability in respect of such moneys and interest: Provided always, that the borrowing powers of the Company to be exercised with reference to any lands forming part of the residue of the undertaking shall not exceed in the whole the sum of forty thousand pounds, but if after having borrowed any part thereof the Company pay off the same, it shall be lawful for them again to borrow the amount so paid off, and so from time to time.

A.D. 1879.

Limitation of borrowing powers.

13. The total amount borrowed and owing under the authority of the Act of 1876 and of this Act shall not at any one time exceed in the whole the sum of seventy-five thousand pounds.

As to appointment of receiver.

14. Section 10 of the Act of 1876 is hereby repealed, but without prejudice to any appointment heretofore made or proceeding now pending. The mortgagees of the Company other than special mortgagees may enforce payment of arrears of interest or principal, or principal and interest, due on their mortgages by the appointment of a receiver. In order to authorise the appointment of a receiver in respect of arrears of principal, the amount owing to the mortgagees by whom the application for a receiver is made shall not be less than five thousand pounds in the whole.

Debenture stock.

15. The Company may create and issue debenture stock, subject to the provisions of Part III. of the Companies Clauses Act, 1863; but, notwithstanding anything therein contained, the interest of all debenture stock at any time after the passing of this Act created and issued by the Company shall rank pari passu with the interest of all mortgages other than special mortgages at any time after the passing of this Act granted by the Company, and shall have priority over all principal moneys secured by such mortgages other than special mortgages.

Application of moneys.

16. All moneys raised under the Act of 1876 and under this Act, whether by shares, stock, debenture stock, or borrowing, shall be applied for the purposes of the Act of 1876 or of this Act only.

Power to make new streets according to deposited plan.

17. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Company may, in the situation and on the levels shown on the deposited plan and sections, and within the limits of deviation shown on the said plan, lay out and make the streets herein-after described; (that is to say,)

A street (No. 1) in the parish of St. Andrew, commencing at a point in Trinity Street on its south-western side at the junction therewith of Dame Lane, and terminating at a point in Exchequer Street at its northern side opposite to the junction therewith of Drury Lane:

A.D. 1879.

A street (No. 2) in the parish of St. Anne, commencing at the junction of Chatham Street and Clarendon Street, and terminating at William Street at a point 20 feet or thereabouts to the north of the north-west quoin of the house known as No. 1, Johnson's Place.

The streets mentioned in this section when laid out and made shall vest in and be maintained by the corporation as public highways.

Limits of deviation.

18. In making the new streets and works connected therewith by this Act authorised the Company may deviate to an extent not exceeding three feet from the levels shown on the deposited sections, and may deviate laterally from the lines shown on the deposited plan within the limits of deviation shown on that plan, and the Company may deviate beyond the last-mentioned limits with the consent of the person through whose lands any such deviation is to be made.

Company not to acquire compulsorily more than part of certain property.

19. The Company for the purpose of widening South Great George's Street in manner provided by the Act of 1876 shall not acquire compulsorily more than a depth of 3 feet in the property numbered on the deposited plans 39, in the parish of Saint Andrew, measured from the western wall thereof; and in the event of the owner or owners thereof not demanding or receiving from the Company any payment or compensation in money in respect of such acquisition, the Company shall and they are hereby required to rebuild the wall which shall or may have been taken down in acquiring such portion of the said property for the purposes of such widening as aforesaid.

Applying certain sections of 39 & 40 Vict. c. ccxxxii.

20. The provisions contained in the following sections of the Act of 1876; (namely,)

Section 27. Application of road material excavated by the Company;

Section 29. Power to make subsidiary works, first providing proper substitutes for sewers;

Section 30. Notice to be served on engineer or other officer of the corporation before stopping up streets, etc.;

Section 31. Streets, etc., broken up to be reinstated without delay;

Section 32. Penalty for default in respect of temporary diversions, etc.;

Section 33. In case of delay, engineer may reinstate and recover the expenses;

Section 34. Alteration of gas pipes, etc.;

A.D. 1879.

Section 35. Corporation and Company may contract for making roads, etc.

Section 38. Correction of errors as to lands;

Section 39. Consideration for acquisition;

Section 48. Power to appropriate certain lands, etc.,

Section 73. Saving privileges of lord mayor and corporation; shall, mutatis mutandis, extend and apply to the Company in the execution of the powers by this Act conferred upon them with respect to the making of new streets and works connected therewith, and the lands to be acquired therefor in this Act mentioned, and the appropriation of lands acquired by the Company under the authority of this Act, and not required for the purposes of their undertaking, in like manner in every respect as if the same had been included in the powers by the Act of 1876 conferred upon the Company, and the said sections had been made applicable to the making of the new streets and works connected therewith by this Act authorised, and to the appropriation of lands acquired under the authority of this Act; and the term "the deposited plan, sections, and book of reference in the said section" shall be construed to mean the deposited plan, sections, and book of reference as the same are by this Act defined.

Power to take and use certain lands.

21. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Company may at any time after the passing of this Act from time to time enter upon, take, and use such of the lands shown on the deposited plan and described in the deposited book of reference as may be required for the purposes of this Act.

Company may extinguish rights of way over streets, &c. on lands acquired.

22. The Company may remove, destroy, stop up, enclose, use, and appropriate all or any part of any street, square, place, court, alley, or passage, whether a thoroughfare or not, or of any thoroughfare, road, lane, or way, or of any void ground or other property situate or being in, over, or upon any lands acquired by them under the powers of this Act shown on the deposited plan and described in the deposited book of reference, and thereupon all rights of way over the same shall be extinguished.

Restrictions as to acquisition of lands and execution of works.

23. The Company may forthwith after the passing of this Act proceed to lay out and make the Street No. 1 by this Act authorised, and may also forthwith acquire the premises No. 10 on the deposited plan, in the parish of St. Bridget, and also such premises as may be requisite for the widening of South Great George's Street as provided for by the Act of 1876: Provided always, that the Company shall not expend out of the capital authorised by the Act of 1876 any sum or sums exceeding in the whole the sum of twenty-five thousand pounds in the laying out and making of such street and in the purchase of the lands and premises required therefor, or in the purchase of the other lands and premises in this section mentioned, and, save as aforesaid, the Company shall not, except with the consent of the corporation, proceed to acquire under the authority of this Act any lands or premises, or to execute any works by this Act authorised, unless and until they have completed the works authorised by the Act of 1876, and in respect of the lands necessary for which plans and schedules have been deposited by the Company in pursuance of the said Act of 1876 and of the Railways (Ireland) Act, 1851. A.D. 1879. 14 & 15 Vict. c. 70.

Arbitrator may award compensation to be paid in money or land, or both.

24. The arbitrator appointed in manner prescribed by the Railways (Ireland) Act, 1851, when ascertaining the compensation to be paid in respect of any lands taken by the Company under the authority of the Act of 1876 or of this Act, may, on the application in writing of the owner of such lands, and with the consent of the Company, order that the compensation in respect of all or any part of the lands of such owner shall be the grant by the Company by way of exchange of some of the lands of the Company which they may not require for the purposes of their undertaking and which they may be willing to give in exchange, or that such compensation shall consist partly of a grant by the Company by way of exchange of some of such lands of the Company as aforesaid, and partly by the payment of money or by the grant by the Company by way of exchange of some of such lands of the Company as aforesaid exceeding in value the land of such owner proposed to be taken, but subject as to the whole or any part thereof to the payment by way of compensation to the Company for such excess in value of a sum of money to be paid to the Company, or of a sum of money, or of a perpetual rentcharge of such amount as in the opinion of the arbitrator it is just should be paid to the Company or be charged upon the land or any part of the land of the Company so given in exchange to such owner, regard being had to such excess in value and to the value of the land or part of the land charged with the payment of such sum of money or such rentcharge so that such sum of money or rentcharge may be an equivalent for such excess, and that the land charged with the payment of the same may afford a sufficient security for such sum of money or rentcharge. The said arbitrator may by such award order any such exchange to be made, and thereupon such order shall be of the same force and effect and be carried into execution in like manner in every respect, and subject to the same conditions, as any other part of the said award, but the same shall not be subject to appeal by way of traverse or otherwise, and the same shall be final, binding, and conclusive upon the parties. In every such order for exchange, or in a map or plan annexed thereto, shall be shown the lands given and taken in exchange respectively under such order, and all lands taken upon such exchange under such order by any such owner as aforesaid shall, without any conveyance or other assurance in relation thereto, go and enure to and upon the same uses, trusts, and purposes, and be subject to the same limitations, conditions, charges, and encumbrances, and in the same manner, as the land given on such exchange would have stood limited or been subjected to in case such order had not been made.

A.D. 1879.

Power to take easements, &c. by agreement.

23 & 24 Vict. c. 106.

25. Persons empowered by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, to sell and convey or release lands may, if they think fit, subject to the provisions of that Act and of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860, and of this Act, grant to the Company any easement, right, or privilege, not being an easement of water required for the purposes of this Act, in, over, or affecting any such lands, and the provisions of the said Acts with respect to lands and rentcharges, so far as the same are applicable in this behalf, shall extend and apply to such grants and to such easements, rights, and privileges as aforesaid respectively.

Extinguishment of rights of market (if any) and other rights, easements, &c.

26. When and so soon as the Company have acquired under the compulsory powers of this Act any of the lands delineated on the deposited plan and described in the deposited book of reference, all franchises, liberties, and rights of market (if any) in respect of or upon such lands existing at the time of such acquisition, and all other easements, powers, or privileges (not otherwise expressly provided for by this Act) in, under, or upon the said lands, shall be extinguished and shall cease to be exercised by any person. In case any person shall within three months after the acquisition of such lands by the Company claim any compensation on account of any such franchise, liberty, right of market, easement, power, or privilege in respect of or upon such lands, then and in such case, the claim of such person to such franchise, liberty, right of market, easement, power, or privilege, and (if the same shall be decided to be just) to any compensation in respect thereof, shall be decided by an arbitrator to be appointed in manner prescribed by the Railways (Ireland) Act, 1851, for the appointment of an arbitrator to adjudicate upon the compensation to be paid for lands, and such arbitrator shall have in respect of the matters to be decided by him, and to the costs of the proceedings before him, full and absolute power.

Power to take lands by agreement.

27. In addition to the lands which the Company are by the Act of 1876 and by this Act authorised to take, the Company may from time to time, by agreement but not otherwise, and for the purpose of improving any approach to the market, acquire any such lands not exceeding two acres as may adjoin or which may abut upon or front towards the lands of the Company on either side of any street, lane, or passage abutting upon or fronting towards the market or any approach thereto.

Extending time for compulsory purchase of certain lands.

28. The powers conferred upon the Company by the Act of 1876 for the compulsory purchase of the lands delineated on the plans and described in the books of reference deposited with reference to that Act are as regards the lands numbered on such plans and described in such books of reference as 4, 7, 75, 76, 77, and 78, in the parish of St. Andrew, and 186 to 221, both numbers inclusive, in the parish of St. Bridget, hereby extended, and the said powers and the powers by this Act conferred for the compulsory purchase of lands shall continue in force until the eleventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

Extending time for completion of market, new streets, &c.

29. The powers of the Company for the making and completing of the market, new streets, improvements, and alterations in existing streets and works connected therewith, limited by section 45 of the Act of 1876, are hereby extended, and the said powers and the powers of the Company for the making of the new streets and works connected therewith by this Act authorised may be exercised until, but not after, the eleventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and from and after that day the powers of the Company under the Act of 1876 and this Act for the making and completing of the market, new streets, improvements, and alterations in existing streets and works connected therewith, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall cease to be exercised, except as to so much thereof as shall be then completed.

Power to enter into agreements with corporation and provost, &c. of Trinity College, Dublin.

30. The Company on the one hand, and the corporation and the corporate body of the provost, fellows, and scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, or either of them, on the other hand, may, as regards the corporation with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and as regards the said college with the consent of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, from time to time enter into agreements for the sale or exchange of lands necessary for the purposes of the Act of 1876 or of this Act, and every such agreement shall be binding on the parties thereto, and for the purpose of carrying the same into effect they shall respectively have and may exercise all such powers and authorities as may be necessary therefor, anything in any Act, statute, charter, ordinance, or other instrument to the contrary notwithstanding.

A.D. 1879.

Power to provide slaughter-houses, &c. 41 & 42 Vict. c. 52.

31. Subject to the provisions of section twenty-five of the Act of 1876, and to the corporation byelaws as to slaughter-houses, and to the provisions of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, and to any byelaws made or to be made under that Act, the Company from time to time may provide such slaughter-houses and such other buildings, works, and conveniences necessary for the purpose of slaughtering cattle, sheep, and other animals as they may think proper, and for such purpose may acquire by agreement, but not otherwise, any lands not exceeding in the whole three acres.

Recovery of penalties.

32. All penalties incurred under the provisions of sections thirty-two or thirty-three of the Act of 1876 or under the preceding section of this Act shall be recoverable by process before the divisional justices.

Tolls in respect of slaughter-houses.

33. The Company may from time to time demand and take in respect of such slaughter-houses and other buildings provided by them, such tolls as the Company may from time to time think fit, not exceeding the slaughter-house tolls specified in the schedule to this Act annexed.

Powers of purchase of corporation under 39 & 40 Vict. c. ccxxxii. extended to purchase of certain property under this Act.

34. For the purpose of extending to the property and works of the Company under this Act the provisions of section sixty-one of the Act of 1876 and of sections sixty-three to seventy-one, both inclusive, of the said Act, the said sections shall be read and construed so that the expression "market undertaking and works connected therewith" and "market undertaking" respectively used in the said sections shall include all the property, real and personal, of the Company under this Act, and all the powers, rights, privileges, claims, and demands of the Company in respect thereof under this Act: Provided always, that in case the corporation desire to exercise the powers of purchase conferred upon them by section sixty-one of the Act of 1876 as amended by this Act in relation only to any slaughter-house, buildings, works, and conveniences connected therewith provided by the Company under this Act, then and in such case, for the purpose of the purchase of such slaughter-house, buildings, works, and conveniences connected therewith, the provisions of section sixty-one and of sections sixty-three to sixty-nine, both inclusive, of the Act of 1876 shall be construed as though they authorised and related to the purchase of such slaughter-house, buildings, works, and conveniences connected therewith separately, and not as forming part of the market undertaking and works connected therewith, and subject also to such modifications as may be necessary for the purposes of such construction.

Power to collect parcels, &c. and to enter into agreements for transmission of same.

35. The Company may and they are hereby authorised to collect and deliver parcels, goods, and marketable commodities coming from or destined for the market undertaking, and to make charges for such services. And the Company may from time to time enter into and carry into effect, alter, vary, and rescind contracts or arrangements with any railway, canal, or other company or person with respect to the interchange, transmission, collection, and delivery of parcels, goods, and marketable commodities coming from or destined for the market undertaking, and with respect to the fixing, collection, division, apportionment, and appropriation by and between the Company and any such railway, canal, or other company or person of the tolls, rates, or charges payable in respect thereof, and with respect to all matters and things incidental thereto.

Company not exempt from provisions of any future general Act.

36. Nothing in this Act shall exempt the Company from the provisions of any general Act hereafter passed with respect to markets, or from any revision by Parliament of the tolls by this Act granted to the Company.

Expenses of Act.

37. All the costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to the preparing and applying for and the obtaining and passing of this Act shall be borne and paid by the Company.

SCHEDULE.

Tolls for Use of Slaughter-houses.

	s.	d.
For every bull or cow, bullock, steer, or heifer - -	2	6
For every calf - - - - - -	1	6
For every goat, sheep, or lamb - - - -	1	0
For every boar, hog, sow, or pig - - - -	0	9
For every other beast - - - - -	2	0

LONDON: Printed by George Edward Eyre and William Spottiswoode, Printers to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty. 1879.