Cap. cxxii.

An Act for the Amendment and Continuation of the Burgh Customs, and Water, Shore, and Harbour Rates of the Burgh of Dunbar, and for other Purposes connected with the said Burgh, and the Supply of Water to the same and the Harbour thereof. [14th August 1848.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the better supplying the Town of Dunbar 8 G. 3. c. 57.
with fresh Water: And whereas another Act was passed in the Seventh and Eighth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for the further Improvement and Main- 7 & 8 G.4.
tenance of the Harbour of Dunbar and other public Works within the Burgh c. 104.
of Dunbar, and for the better supplying the said Burgh with Water, the Term of which in certain Particulars is now nearly expired: And whereas it has become necessary to alter, amend, and continue the Customs, Rates, and Duties payable under the said last-recited Act, and to make certain Provisions as to the Supply, Distribution, Use, and Protection of the Water within the said Burgh; to

to establish a new Harbour thereat, and to make Provisions for the Regulation of the same; to provide Facilities in collecting Teind Duty upon Fish; that the Jurisdiction of the Provost and Bailies should be extended within certain Bounds, for the Protection of the Herring Fishery, and for other Purposes; and that other Provisions and Regulations should be made; but as these Purposes cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament, May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight the said recited Acts of the Eighth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and of the Seventh and Eighth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, excepting in so far as the said last-mentioned Act repeals any previous Act of Parliament, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, and that thenceforth the several Rates, Tolls, Customs, Assessments, Powers, Penalties, Forfeitures, Exemptions, Clauses, Matters, and Things in this Act contained shall be granted and levied and put in execution instead thereof: Provided always, that any Contract in regard to the Acquisition of Springs and other Property ratified by the said first-recited Act, and all Rights and Privileges in regard to the same, thereby conferred, shall subsist and remain valid and effectual, notwithstanding the Repeal of the said Act.

Recited Acts repealed.

Rates upon the Articles enumerated in Schedules (A.) and (B.)

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the said Date it shall be lawful to the Magistrates and Town Council of Dunbar, as Trustees for putting in execution the Purposes of this Act, to levy and take, for and in respect of the several Articles and Commodites enumerated and specified in the Schedule (A.) hereunto annexed, the several Rates and Duties in the said Schedule (A.) upon the Importation or Exportation of such Articles and Commodities into or out of the said Burgh of Dunbar or the Harbours or Royalty thereof, and that in lieu of the Rates and Duties which may have been in use to be paid according to any Custom Roll heretofore established, or according to the Schedule annexed to the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, or otherwise howsoever, and also to levy and take the Duties for Anchorage, Wharfage, and Berthage of Vessels enumerated and specified in the Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed, which Rates and Duties hereby granted and made payable are and shall be vested in the said Magistrates and Town Council as Trustees aforesaid, and shall be collected and received by any Person or Persons appointed by them to receive the same: Provided always, that it shall be lawful to the said Trustees and they are hereby empowered, at any Time or Times when the State of the Revenue of the said Burgh and Harbour will admit thereof without impeding the Execution of the several Purposes to which the same is applicable, to diminish or lessen all or any of the Rates and Duties leviable under this Act as contained in the said Schedules (A.) and (B.) or either of them, and to advance the same again; but none of such Rates and Duties shall be at any Time or Times diminished or advanced except to such Amounts and at such Periods as Trustees may remit or lessen certain Duties in certain Cases.

as shall be approved of by the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, and of the Board of Council for Trade and Plantations, such Approvals to be signified in Writing under the Hands of the Secretary of the Admiralty and the Secretary of the said Board of Council for Trade and Plantations.

Duty on Porter, &c. brewed in Dunbar.

III. And be it enacted, That from and after the said Date it shall be lawful to levy, in lieu of the Duty of Two Pennies Scots, or One Sixth of a Penny Sterling, leviable upon every Scots Pint of Porter, Ale, or Beer, under the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, an Imposition or Duty of Ten-pence Sterling per Hogshead upon all Porter, Ale, or Beer exceeding in Value the Sum of Twenty Shillings per Hogshead which shall be brewed for Sale within the said Burgh of Dunbar and Royalty thereof, including the Villages of Belhaven and Westbarns, or within the Distance of One Mile from the Royalty of the said Burgh, and upon all such Porter, Ale, or Beer brought into or vended within the said Burgh and Royalty thereof; and the said Duty shall be payable and be paid by the Brewers for Sale, Venders or Sellers of all such Porter, Ale, and Beer, to the said Magistrates and Town Council of the said Burgh; and the Money raised and collected in Name of such Imposition or Duty is also hereby vested in the said Magistrates and Town Council as Trustees aforesaid, and shall be collected and received by such Person or Persons as the said Trustees shall from Time to Time appoint to receive the same: Provided always, that the said Duty or Imposition shall not be due or leviable for or in respect of any Porter, Ale, or Beer which shall not exceed in Value the Sum of Twenty Shillings per Hogshead.

Duty upon spirituous Liquors.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to the said Magistrates and Town Council as Trustees aforesaid, from and after the said Date, to continue to impose, levy, and take, for and in respect of all spirituous Liquors of every Kind retailed within the said Burgh and Royalty thereof, a Duty of One Halfpenny Sterling for each Imperial Gallon thereof, over and above the Duties of Excise payable to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to be levied and collected in the same Way that the said Duty upon Porter, Ale, and Beer is herein-before appointed to be levied and collected.

Drawback allowed.

V. And be it enacted, That a Drawback or Deduction of the said Duties shall be allowed to the Brewers within the said Burgh and Royalty thereof, and District aforesaid, for and in respect of Porter, Ale, or Beer, and to the Retailers of spirituous Liquors, for and in respect of such spirituous Liquors respectively sent beyond the Bounds of the said Burgh, Royalty, and District, or shipped from the Harbour of Dunbar, upon rendering an Account to the said Trustees of the Quantity so sent or shipped, and making a Declaration in regard to the same every Three Months; and if the said Brewers or Retailers of spirituous Liquors shall neglect to render such Account and make such Declaration every Three Months no such Drawback or Deduction as aforesaid shall be allowed.

VI. And

Beer, Spirits, &c. brought into the Town, not having paid the Duties, to be confiscated.

VI. And be it enacted, That if at any Time any Porter, Ale, or Beer, or spirituous Liquors shall be brought into the said Burgh or Royalty thereof, not having paid the Duties hereby imposed and made payable when the same shall have been demanded, or shall be vended or sold within the said Burgh or Royalty thereof, not having first paid the Duties hereby imposed and made payable, such Porter, Ale, or Beer, or spirituous Liquors, with the Casks or other Vessels containing the same, shall be confiscated for the Use of the Community of the said Burgh.

Duties how to be ascertained.

11 G. 4. & 1 W. 4. c. 51.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Extent or Quantity of Porter, Ale, or Beer chargeable with the Duties hereby granted shall be ascertained according to the Mode prescribed by the Act of the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth and First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to repeal certain of the Duties on Cyder in the United Kingdom, and on Beer and Ale in Great Britain, and to make other Provisions in relation thereto: Provided always, that the Provisions of the said Act in regard to the Returns to be made by Brewers, and other Matters and Things to be done by them, shall also apply to the Importers and Vendors of Porter, Ale, and Beer under this Act: Provided also, that the Extent or Quantity of spirituous Liquors chargeable with the Duties hereby granted may be ascertained by the Account taken by the Officers of Excise for the Time being of the Quantity of spirituous Liquors legally brought into the Stock of each Retailer of such Liquors within the said Burgh or Royalty, and of the Quantity of such Liquors in the Stock of such Retailers at the End of each Quarter of a Year; and the Collector or Officer of Excise for the Time being is hereby required to deliver such Account, or an authentic Copy or Copies thereof, gratis, once in every Twelve Weeks, or oftener if required, to some one of the said Trustees, or to the Collector or Collectors of the Duties hereby granted, to be used for that Purpose; and the Extent or Quantity of such spirituous Liquors shall and may be also ascertained by the Declaration of the Person liable in Payment thereof, who is hereby required to keep an exact Account thereof, and to give in such Account to the said Magistrates and Town Council on the Twenty-fourth Day of March, the Twenty-fourth Day of June, the Twenty-fourth Day of September, and the Twenty-fourth Day of December in every Year.

Penalty for concealing or smuggling any Spirits, &c liable to pay Duties.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time conceal or smuggle any Porter, Ale, or Beer, or spirituous Liquors, subject and liable to the Duties by this Act granted and made payable, in order to avoid the Payment of such Duties, the Magistrates of the said Burgh for the Time being, or any One of them, shall, upon the Information of any Person or Persons, summon such Offender or Offenders before them, and the Party offending shall, upon Conviction, forfeit the Value of what shall be so concealed or smuggled, and also the Sum of Ten Shillings of Costs, to be recovered by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Effects of the Party offending in manner herein-after directed with regard to the Recovery of Rates, Duties, and Assessments.

IX. And

Assessment upon the Rents of Houses, &c.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and in the Power of the said Magistrates and Town Council as Trustees aforesaid, from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of September next, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to impose and levy an annual Assessment upon all Lands, Tenements, and Heritages situated within the said Burgh and Royalty thereof, not exceeding Three-pence per Pound of the actual Rents payable for such Lands, Tenements, and Heritages, or at which the same might be let, to be collected by any Person or Persons appointed by the said Trustees to collect and receive the same, and that over and above any yearly Assessment levied to pay the Land Tax and Prison Rate payable to the said Burgh, which Assessment upon the actual Rents of such Lands, Tenements, and Heritages as aforesaid shall be payable in the first place by the Tenants or Occupiers of the said Lands, Tenements, and Heritages, or any One of the Tenants or Occupiers of any particular Lands, Tenements, or Heritages, and which Tenants or Occupiers so paying shall have Right to deduct and retain the Sums actually paid by them in respect of such Assessment, whether on their own Account or also on behalf of their Co-tenants, out of the Rents payable to their Landlords, or the Owners of such Lands, Tenements, and Heritages: Provided always, that it shall and may be competent to recover the said Assessments from the said Tenants or Occupiers by Distraint and Arrestment of their Goods and Effects; and provided also, that the Landlord or Owners of such Lands, Tenements, or Heritages shall be bound to receive their said Rents, after Deduction of the said Assessment, where the same has been paid by such Tenant or Occupier, whether on their own Account or also on behalf of their Co-tenants; and provided farther, that the Line of the North British Railway shall be assessed according to the agricultural Value of the adjoining Lands only, and the Station Houses and Warehouses of the same shall be assessed at the same Rate as Dwelling Houses and Warehouses within the said Burgh.

New Duties liable for Debts, &c. under former Acts.

X. And be it enacted, That the Rates, Duties, Customs, and Assessments hereby authorized to be levied, excepting the Rate and Assessment in regard to the Supply of Water herein-after mentioned, and the aforesaid Duties to be levied and collected under the Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed, shall, under the Conditions and Provisions herein-after mentioned, be and the same are hereby made subject and liable to the Payment of all Sums of Money now due and owing on the Credit of any former Act, and of all Interest due or that may become due thereon, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Money had been borrowed or had become due and owing on the Credit of the Rates, Duties, Customs, and Assessments (excepting the said Rate and Assessment in regard to the Supply of Water, and the Duties to be levied and collected under the Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed,) by this Act authorized to be levied and taken; and all and every Person or Persons indebted in any Sum or Sums of Money under any former Act shall be liable in Payment thereof to the Magistrates and Town Council of Dunbar as Trustees under this Act, and all Covenants, Agreements, Conveyances, or Securities entered into or made by any Person or Persons with or to the Trustees for executing such former Acts, according to the Provisions and Directions thereof, shall remain in full Force and Effect, and be and continue available in all Courts of Law and Equity, until the same shall be fully satisfied and performed; and all Assignments and Conveyances of Rates, Duties, and Customs, Orders, Contracts, and Agreements, duly made or entered into by the said Trustees for executing such Acts, shall, so far as the same are not altered, repealed, or made void by this Act, remain in full Force and Effect, and be observed and kept by the Trustees acting by virtue of this Act, under the Terms and Stipulations thereof respectively; and all Rates, Duties, Customs, and Assessments, Penalties and Forfeitures, due or incurred in virtue of such former Acts, shall be held to be due or incurred and shall be exigible by the Trustees under this Act, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Application of the preceding Rates and Duties.

XI. And be it enacted, That the whole Monies levied and collected by means of the said Duties upon Porter, Ale, Beer, and Spirituous Liquors, and upon the Articles and Commodities specified in the Schedule (A.) hereunto annexed, and by the said Assessment upon Lands, Tenements, and Heritages, shall, after defraying the necessary Expenses of collecting the same, and a Proportion of the Expenses of procuring and passing this Act, in manner herein-after mentioned, be applied by the said Trustees towards Repayment of all Sums of Money now due and owing upon the Credit of any former Act, and Interest due thereon, as before mentioned, and towards improving, repairing, deepening, and preserving the Harbour of Dunbar and Piers thereof, repairing or rebuilding the Town House of Dunbar, maintaining a Market Place where all the Butchers Meat shall be sold within the said Burgh, and other public Purposes, for the Benefit and Utility of the said Burgh and the Inhabitants thereof; but the whole Monies levied and collected by means of the said Duties enumerated and specified in the Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed shall be applied by the said Trustees solely towards improving, repairing, deepening, and preserving the Harbours of Dunbar and Piers thereof, and other Works connected therewith, and the Payment of a Proportion of the Expenses of applying for, procuring, and passing this Act, in manner herein-after mentioned: Provided always, that so soon as the Debts with which the said Harbours and Piers are burdened shall be paid off and discharged the said Trustees shall be bound, if required so to do by the Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, to apply the Rates and Duties leviable as Shore Dues under the said Schedule (A.) solely in improving, repairing, deepening, and preserving the said Harbours and Piers, and for the other Purposes of the same.

Assessment for the Expense of Waterworks.

XII. And be it enacted, That in order to defray the Expense of the Works for the Supply of Water to the said Burgh, authorized by any former Act or this Act, and for maintaining and keeping the same in repair, it shall and may be lawful for the said Magistrates and Town Council as Trustees aforesaid, from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of September next, to continue to levy and assess annually upon the Occupiers or Possessors of Houses within the said Burgh and Royalty thereof, where the Rent of any such House shall amount to Three Pounds of yearly Rent or Value and upwards, and upon the Occupiers cupiers and Possessors of Breweries, Malthouses, Soapworks, or other similar Property within the said Burgh and Royalty thereof, and upon the Occupiers and Possessors of Houses, Breweries, Malthouses, Soapworks, or other Property beyond the Bounds of the said Burgh and Royalty thereof, who may have the Benefit of a Supply of Water from the said Works, any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds per Centum of the Sums which may from Time to Time be laid out and expended for the Purpose of paying the Expenses already incurred in bringing in the said Supply of Water, and may remain unpaid, and of such Works as may be hereby authorized, of repairing and maintaining the same, and defraying the Proportion of the Expenses of procuring and passing this Act, in manner herein-after mentioned; such Assessment to be apportioned upon the several Occupiers of Houses, Breweries, Malthouses, Soapworks, or other Premises, both within the said Burgh and Royalty thereof and also beyond the Bounds of the said Burgh and Royalty thereof which may have the Benefit of a Supply of Water from the said Works, according to the yearly Rent or Value of such Houses, Breweries, Malthouses, Soapworks, or other Property, which yearly Rent or Value shall be ascertained either by the Receipts for Rent or be valued by the Stent Masters annually appointed in the said Burgh: Provided always, that the Station Houses and Warehouses of the North British Railway Company shall not be assessed at a higher Rate than as Dwelling Houses and Warehouses within the said Burgh.

Reduced Assessment for Maintenance of the Works.

XIII. And be it enacted, That a separate Account shall be kept of the Receipts and Disbursements on account of the said Supply of Water distinct from all other Funds, Duties, Imposts, or Customs payable to the said Magistrates and Town Council as Trustees aforesaid; and when and so soon as the Sum or Sums laid out and expended in procuring and bringing in such Supply of Water as aforesaid, with all Interest thereon, shall have been fully repaid, the said Magistrates and Town Council as Trustees aforesaid shall not be entitled to levy any greater Assessment than Five Pounds per Centum upon the whole Sums which had been expended for the Purpose of procuring and bringing in such Supply of Water as aforesaid, which reduced Assessment shall be applied to the Repair and Maintenance of the Works for supplying the said Burgh and Royalty thereof with Water: Provided always, that no Rates or Duties shall be demanded from any Person or Persons for and in respect of the said Supply of Water other than and except the Assessments before mentioned; but such Supply of Water shall be free at the public Wells or Fountains to all the Inhabitants of the Burgh of Dunbar and Royalty thereof, and to all Persons beyond the Royalty, who shall be assessed in manner before mentioned in respect of the same.

Assessment for Payment of Part of Expenses of the Act.

XIV. And be it enacted, That in order to assist in defraying the Expenses of applying for, procuring, and passing this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Magistrates and Town Council and they are hereby authorized and empowered to levy and assess, upon the Owners of Property within the Burgh of Dunbar and Royalty thereof, and upon the Trade of the Burgh of Dunbar and Royalty

Royalty thereof, in equal Portions, a Sum not exceeding Five hundred Pounds, together with the necessary Expenses of collecting the same, which Sum shall be exigible by Three equal Instalments, payable at Whitsunday yearly after the passing of this Act, and shall be assessed, levied, and paid in a similar Manner and along with the Cess or Land Tax payable in the said Burgh and Royalty of Dunbar, to the Collector of the Cess or Land Tax thereof, and shall be accounted for and paid over by such Collector to the Magistrates and Council as Trustees aforesaid, or to their Collector or Collectors, for the Purposes of this Act, and such Collector of the Cess or Land Tax shall have such and the same Powers for levying and recovering such Assessments as are competent to him for levying and recovering the Cess or Land Tax within the said Burgh and Royalty thereof.

Incorporation of 10 & 11 Vict. c.16.

XV. And be it enacted, That the "Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," shall be and the same is hereby incorporated with this Act, in so far as regards all Contracts to be entered into and Deeds to be executed by the Trustees, with respect to the Liabilities of the Trustees, and legal Proceedings against them, and with respect to the Appointment and Accountability of the Officers of the Trustees: Provided always, that the Provisions in the said Act contained in regard to Contracts and Deeds shall apply to the Cases only under this Act wherein the Estimate of Expense shall exceed Five Pounds.

Contracts for Repairs.

XVI. And be it enacted, That, previous to any Contract being entered into by the said Trustees, and where the Expense seems likely to exceed the said Sum of Five Pounds, Notice shall be affixed to the Church Door of the Parish of Dunbar, and shall be given by Advertisement, by Tuck of Drum through the Town, both Seven Days before the Day on which any such Contract shall be entered into, that the Terms of such intended Contract are in the Hands of the Town Clerk of the Burgh of Dunbar for public Inspection, and the Terms of each Contract shall be so deposited with the said Town Clerk at the Time of such respective Advertisements for public Inspection; and in all Cases where any pecuniary Penalties shall be recovered of and from any Contractor or Contractors the same shall be paid to the said Trustees, or to their Treasurer or Collector, and be applied for the Purposes of this Act.

Contractors not to act as Trustees.

XVII. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Trustee under this Act at any Time to become directly or indirectly a Contractor for executing any Work under the Authority of this Act.

Incorporation of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 27.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That, in so far as regards the Harbour of Dunbar, and Rates leviable in respect thereof, and other Purposes connected therewith, the "Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," is hereby incorporated with and shall form a Portion of this Act: Provided always, that nothing in this Act, or the said Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, shall extend or be construed to extend to compel the said Trustees to provide a Life Boat and Tide and Weather Gauge, with Barometer, until required by the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High High Admiral, in Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty, and upon such Requisition being made the Clauses relating thereto contained in the said Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act shall be in full Force as regards this Act.

Incorporation of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 17.

XIX. And be it enacted, That, in so far as regards the Works for the Supply of Water to the said Burgh and Neighbourhood, and all Matters therewith connected, the "Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847," shall be and the same is hereby incorporated with and shall form a Portion of this Act, excepting in regard to the Construction of Waterworks, and the Construction of Works for the Accommodation of Lands adjoining, in regard to Mines, the Supply of Water, and Payment and Recovery of the Water Rates, the Amount of Profit to be received, and as to the Recovery of Damages not specially provided for, and of Penalties, and the Determination of any other Matter referred to Justices or to the Sheriff: Provided always, that the Word "Undertaker" used in the said Act shall in this Case mean the Magistrates and Town Council of Dunbar; and that such Provisions in the said Waterworks Clauses Act as are framed on the Assumption of Parties other than Magistrates and Town Council being the Undertakers, and are therefore unsuitable to the Circumstances of this Case, shall not apply; and provided also, that the said Magistrates and Council shall have the sole Control in the breaking up of Streets within the said Burgh for the Purposes mentioned in the said Act, and shall not be bound to give Notice of any Intention so to do, and that the Water to be supplied need not be constantly laid on under Pressure, anything in the said Waterworks Clauses Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Supply may be increased.

XX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to the Magistrates and Council to increase the Supply of Water to the said Burgh, by lowering the present Pipes, or a Part thereof, by enlarging the same, or by laying additional Pipes, and by the Introduction of the Water of such other and additional Springs into the said Pipes as they may acquire from the Owners thereof: Provided always, that with regard to the acquiring of such additional Springs the "Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," in so far as regards the Purchase of Lands by Agreement, shall be held to be incorporated with and form Part of this Act; but that nothing in the said Act contained shall be held to authorize the said Magistrates and Council to acquire such Springs otherwise than with Consent of the Owners of the same.

Incorporation of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 19.

For levying the Rates, Duties, and Assessments.

XXI. And be it enacted, without Prejudice to the Powers and Provisions contained in the said Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, herewith incorporated, as to the Collection and Recovery of Rates, That if any Person or Persons liable to and charged with Rates, Duties, and Assessments by this Act authorized to be levied, or any of them, including the Rates leviable upon Imports and Exports, and under Schedule (B.) hereof, shall refuse or neglect to pay the same when demanded, it shall and may be lawful for any One or more of the Magistrates of the said Burgh, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, to summon such Person or Persons before him or them on a certain Day to be specified in such Warrant; and in case such such Person or Persons shall not appear, or shall appear and shall not pay the said Rates, Duties, or Assessments respectively, or shall not show sufficient Cause to the contrary, the Magistrate or Magistrates issuing such Warrant is and are hereby empowered to make an Order for the Payment thereof; and if such Person or Persons shall not pay the same within Twenty Days after Notice of such Order, it shall and may be lawful for the Collector or Collectors of the said Rates, Duties, or Assessments respectively, by Warrant under the Hand or Hands of One or more of the Magistrates of the said Burgh, to take and distrain any of the Goods and Effects of the Person or Persons neglecting or refusing to pay the said Rates, Duties, or Assessments, and in case the same shall not be paid within Ten Days after any Distress shall be taken as aforesaid then it shall and may be lawful for the Collector or Collectors of the said Rates, Duties, and Assessments to sell the Goods and Effects so distrained, and therewith to satisfy the Rates, Duties, or Assessments so refused, neglected, or delayed to be paid, as also his or their reasonable Charges in taking, keeping, and selling such Distress, not exceeding Ten Shillings, rendering the Overplus (if any be) to the Owner or Owners thereof, on Demand.

Charge of the Distress not to exceed 10s.

Reserving all Remedies competent by the Law of Scotland.

XXII. And be it enacted, That, besides the Remedy given by this Act for levying, recovering, and making effectual the Rates, Duties, and Assessments by this Act granted, the said Trustees, or their Collector or Collectors, shall be entitled to use all other Methods, Remedies, and Execution against the Person or Persons neglecting or refusing to pay the said Rates, Duties, or Assessments which are competent by the Law of Scotland to the Magistrates or Magistrates and Town Council of Royal Burghs, or their Collector or Collectors, for recovering the ordinary Revenues of such Burgh.

Not to prejudice the Duties of Excise.

Duty to be paid but once for the same Spirits, &c.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That no Distress which shall be taken by the Authority of this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice, incumber, or render ineffectual any Duty of Excise due or payable to Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or any Penalty or Forfeiture incurred under any Law of Excise; nor shall this Act or anything herein contained extend or be construed to extend to charge any Porter, Ale, or Beer, or spirituous Liquors, with the Payment of the Duty hereby granted a Second Time, if it shall appear that the said Duty hath been once paid.

Trustees may lease the Rates and Duties.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees from Time to Time to let the Rates, Duties, and Assessments hereby granted, or any of them, by way of public Roup or Auction, for such Term or Terms, not exceeding One Year, as they may deem expedient, and upon such Conditions as they shall from Time to Time think fit, for the best Rent or Rents that can be had or obtained for the same; and the whole Powers and Provisions herein contained shall be applicable to the Tacksman or Lessee, or Tacksmen or Lessees, of the said Magistrates and Council, equally as if he or they were the Collector or Collectors of the said Magistrates and Council; and the Money arising thereby shall be applied and laid laid out to and for the several Purposes of this Act to which such Rates, Duties, and Assessments were applicable, and to and for no other Use or Purpose whatever.

Provisions to apply to Victoria Harbour.

XXV. And whereas a certain Harbour called the Victoria Harbour has been constructed upon the Property of the said Burgh near to the Old Harbour thereof, by the said Magistrates and Council, and by the Honourable the Commissioners of the British White Herring Fishery, with the Consent and Approval of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty: Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to the said Magistrates and Town Council as Trustees aforesaid to levy the Rates and Duties hereby granted upon Exports and Imports by Sea, and under Schedule (B.) hereof, for and in respect of the Use of the said Victoria Harbour; and that the whole Provisions herein contained and herewith incorporated with reference to the Harbour of Dunbar shall be applicable to the said Victoria Harbour equally as to the Old Harbour of Dunbar: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful to the said Trustees, unless otherwise agreed to by the said Fishery Board, to levy or take from any Fishing Boat or Vessel engaged in the said British Fishery any Harbour or Port Dues of any Kind mentioned in the said Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed, for or in respect of any such Boat or Vessel entering to or departing from the said Victoria Harbour, and that the said Trustees shall for every Refusal or Prevention of free Ingress or Egress of any such Vessel to or from the said Victoria Harbour forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds; provided also, that it shall and may be lawful to the said Fishery Board, at any Time when the Commissioners shall see fit, to consent to the said Rates and Duties, or any Portion thereof, being levied upon such Fishing Boats or Vessels equally as upon other Shipping; provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend to make any of the Quays made or to be made or erected in the said Harbour called the Victoria Harbour Legal Quays, or to confer upon such Quays the Privileges of Legal Quays, unless the same shall be approved of for that Purpose by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Power to improve Harbours.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to the said Trustees from Time to Time to alter, deepen, and otherwise improve the said Old Harbour and Victoria Harbour of Dunbar, and the Piers, Quays, and other Works thereto belonging, as to them shall seem expedient.

Licence may be granted to Herring Boats.

XXVII. And be it enacted, in order to save the Expense and Inconvenience attending the present Mode of Collection of Teind Duty by the said Magistrates and Council upon Herrings caught by Fishing Boats belonging to Dunbar, or brought within the Royalty, Harbours, and Shores thereof, it shall and may be lawful to the said Magistrates and Council, from and after the passing of this Act, to levy and take, in lieu of any such Teind Duty, any Sum not exceeding Ten Shillings yearly in Name of Licence for each Boat belonging to Dunbar, and engaged in the said Herring Fishery, or entering within the Royalty, Harbours, or Shores of Dunbar with Herrings, whether belonging to Dunbar or not: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall shall extend to charge the Owner of or any other Person in respect of any such Boat with any Sum in Name of Licence or Teind Duty until such Boat shall in the course of the Fishing Season have landed or sold or disposed of Herrings within the Royalty, Harbours, or Shores of Dunbar to the Extent of Ten Barrels; provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to subject to such Licence or Teind Duty any Boat or Owner of or other Person in respect of such Boat bringing into the said Victoria Harbour any Herrings, or any Herrings so brought, where the same are not landed or sold or disposed of within the said Royalty or Harbours or Shores of Dunbar; provided also, that it shall not be lawful for the Owners of Boats so licensed to bring, for the Purpose of landing, selling, or disposing of within such Bounds, Herrings caught or bought at Sea from the Owners of Boats who shall not have paid the said Sum for and in respect of the Boat with which such Herrings were caught, without Payment of the said Sum for each such Boat; provided further, that it shall not be lawful to the said Magistrates and Council to let or farm the said Licence Duty, but the same shall be collected by themselves, or by their Treasurer, Collector, or other Officer to be appointed by them.

Reserving Right to Teind on other Fish.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be held to affect the Right of the said Magistrates and Council to claim Teind Duty for and in respect of Lobsters and other Fish, which Right is hereby reserved entire: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held to confer upon the said Provost or Magistrates any Right to levy or collect Teind Duty upon Herrings or other Fish, which Right they shall not heretofore have possessed or exercised.

Jurisdiction conferred on Magistrates.

XXIX. And be it enacted, in order to the Preservation and Encouragement of the Herring Fishery, and for other Purposes, That the Provost of the said Burgh and Bailies shall have and they are hereby empowered to exercise in and over the Bay and Harbour of Dunbar, and within the Space lying between the Carr Rock on the West of the said Town and Dunglass Mill on the East thereof and the Distance of Two Leagues to seaward, such Jurisdiction as they or any One of them may exercise within the Royalty and Bounds of the said Burgh of Dunbar: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held to alter or affect the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth and Seventh Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to carry into effect a Convention between Her Majesty and the King of the French concerning the Fisheries in the Seas between the British Islands and France; but it shall be competent to the said Provost and Bailies, or any One of them, also to exercise the Jurisdiction and Powers by the said Act conferred upon Magistrates and Justices of the Peace; provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall be held to authorize the said Provost and Bailies, or any One of them, to exercise over the Bounds before defined the Powers and Jurisdiction conferred by this Act in so far as regards French Fishermen or other Frenchmen, the Powers and Jurisdiction of the said Provost and Bailies over such Parties being restricted to such Powers and Jurisdiction

6 & 7 Vict. c. 69.

Jurisdiction as are by the said recited Act conferred on Magistrates and Justices of the Peace.

Magistrates may try summarily.

XXX. And be it enacted, That in the Prosecution of all Criminal Offences before the said Magistrates, where the Prosecutor shall in his Libel or Complaint conclude for a Fine not exceeding Three Pounds, besides Expenses, or for Imprisonment in Gaol or in Bridewell for a Term not exceeding Twenty Days, accompanied, when necessary, with Caution for good Behaviour or to keep the Peace for a Period not exceeding Six Months, and under a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, it shall be competent to them or any One of them to dispose of such Prosecutions in such summary Manner and according to such Forms (with such Changes as may be necessary) as are prescribed in regard to the Jurisdiction of Sheriffs where the Fine concluded for before them does not exceed Ten Pounds, or the Term of Imprisonment Sixty Days, with Caution, when necessary, to keep the Peace for Six Months, and under a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, by the Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to authorize additional Circuit Courts of Justiciary to be held, and to facilitate Criminal Trials, in Scotland: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held to restrict the said Provost and Bailies in the Exercise of such other Jurisdiction as is competent to them by Law. 9 G. 4. c. 29.

Regulations may be made.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be in the Power of the said Magistrates and Council to make all such Regulations as shall from Time to Time seem to them expedient for the better Preservation of the Peace and Safety of the said Burgh, and Improvement of the sanitary Condition of the same, and to enforce such Regulations under such Penalties as they may see proper, not exceeding Six Shillings and Eight-pence in any One Case; and any Party acting in Breach or in Neglect of such Regulations may be brought before the said Magistrates or any One of them, who are and is hereby empowered to try such Offences summarily, without any other Writing than a written Judgment, which shall state the Cause of Conviction; and in case of Conviction, and of the Fine inflicted not being immediately paid, the said Magistrates or Magistrate may, by the said Judgment, order the Offender to be incarcerated in the Gaol of Dunbar for any Period not exceeding Five Days: Provided always, that no Party shall be convicted for Breach or Neglect of any such Regulations unless they shall have been printed and published at the Church Doors and other conspicuous Places of the said Burgh for at least One Week before the Time of the alleged Offence.

Trustees may borrow, and assign the Rates, Duties, and Assessments as a Security.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That the said Trustees shall have full Power and Authority, by an Act of the Town Council, to borrow any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding Five thousand Pounds, for the Purposes of the said Harbours, Markets, and other Works, exclusive of the Supply of Water, and to borrow any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding One thousand Pounds, for the Purpose of increasing the Supply of Water, and to convey and assign over the respective Rates, Duties, and Assessments hereby granted, or such Parts thereof as they shall think proper, as a Security to any Person or Persons who shall advance or lend any Sum or Sums of Money thereon; and such Sum or Sums of Money so to be borrowed, after Payment of the Expenses of applying for, procuring, and passing this Act, in manner herein-after mentioned, shall be applied only for and towards such Purposes as the Rates, Duties, and Assessments arising by virtue of this Act are hereby directed to be applied to.

Mode of Recovery of Penalties.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That all Expenses, and also all Penalties, Forfeitures, and Fines by this Act directed to be paid or inflicted, (the Manner of levying, recovering, and applying whereof is not herein otherwise directed, and where the said Magistrates and Council are not themselves the Parties offending,) shall, upon Proof of the Offences respectively before the Sheriff Depute or Substitute or any Two Justices of the Peace for the County of Haddington, or before any One of the said Magistrates of Dunbar, either by the Confession of the Party offending or by the Oath of any credible Witness or other competent Evidence, be levied, together with the Expenses attending the Information and Conviction, by Poinding and Sale of the Goods and Effects of the Party offending, by Warrant under the Hand of such Sheriff Depute or Substitute, Justices or Magistrate, (which Warrant such Sheriff Depute or Substitute, Justices or Magistrate, is or are hereby empowered to grant,) and the Surplus, if any, after deducting such Expenses, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Fines, and the Charge of such Poinding and Sale, shall be returned unto the Owner of such Goods and Effects; and in case such Expenses, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures shall not be forthwith paid upon Conviction, then it shall be lawful for such Sheriff Depute or Substitute, Justices or Magistrate, to order the Offender so convicted to be detained and kept in safe Custody until Return can be conveniently made to such Warrant of Poinding, unless the Offender shall give sufficient Security, to the Satisfaction of such Sheriff Depute or Substitute, Justices or Magistrate, for his or her Appearance before such Sheriff Depute or Substitute, Justices or Magistrate, on such Day as shall be appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Poinding, which Security the said Sheriff Depute or Substitute, Justices or Magistrate, is or are hereby empowered to take by Bond of Caution or otherwise; but if upon the Return of such Warrant it shall appear that no sufficient Goods and Effects can be found, then it shall be lawful for the said Sheriff Depute or Substitute, Justices or Magistrate, and they are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under their Hand, to cause such Offender to be committed to the Common Gaol, there to remain for any Time not exceeding Three Months, unless such Expenses, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Fines, and all reasonable Charges attending the same, shall be sooner paid; the Monies recovered or levied for such Expenses to be applied to the Payment of the same respectively, and the Monies arising by such Penalties, Forfeitures and Fines respectively, when paid, if not otherwise directed to be applied by this Act, to be paid to the said Magistrates and Town Council, to be by them placed to the Credit of the respective Accounts of Customs, or Harbour or Water Rates and Duties, as aforesaid, according as the Offence for which the same may have been levied shall have been in violation of the Regulations in regard to the respective Purposes aforesaid.

XXXIV. Pro-

Appeal allowed to Sheriff Depute or Quarter Sessions.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved by any Decision, Warrant, or Order of any Sheriff Substitute, or of any Justice or Justices of the Peace, in the Execution of this Act, it shall be competent to such Person or Persons to apply for Redress by way of Appeal to the Sheriff Depute of the said County of Haddington, when the Decision, Warrant, or Order is given or pronounced by the Sheriff Substitute, and when the same is given by a Justice or Justices of the Peace, to the Justices at the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County, provided that such Appeal or Application for Redress shall be entered within Ten Days after the Decision of the said Sheriff Substitute, Justice or Justices, shall have been given, and Security for the Payment of Costs and Issue of Suit being given by the Party appealing or applying for Redress; and the said Sheriff Depute, or the said Justices in their Quarter Sessions, on Appeal to them respectively, shall in all Cases proceed and determine summarily, and their Decision shall be final, and not subject to Review of any Superior Court, by Suspension, Advocation, Reduction, or otherwise.

Expenses of Act how to be paid.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That the Balance of the Expenses of applying for, procuring, and passing this Act, if any shall remain after Application of the Sum of Five hundred Pounds hereby granted for Payment thereof, shall be paid out of Monies raised in virtue of the said recited Acts, or that may be recovered in virtue of this Act; and such Balance of Expenses shall by the said Trustees be apportioned One Half on the ordinary Revenue of the said Burgh, One Fourth upon the separate Revenue of the said Harbours, and the remaining One Fourth upon the Fund for bringing Water into the said Burgh and Vicinity thereof.

Commencement of Act.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That this Act, except in so far as herein otherwise provided, shall have Effect from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of September next.

Public Act.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such.
