GEORGII III. REGIS.

Cap. 57.

An Act for repairing, improving, and preserving the Harbour of Dysart, in the County of Fife.

[11th June 1803.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for laying a Duty of Two Pennies Scots, or One Sixth Part of a Penny Sterling, on every Scots Pint of Ale and Beer, which shall be brewed for Sale, brought into, tapped, or sold, within the Town of Dysart and Liberties thereof, and all Places adjacent, lying within Three hundred Yards of the Boundaries of the said Liberties, for repairing, improving, and preserving the Harbour of the said Town, which was to take place and have Continuance from and after the First Day of June One thousand seven hundred and fifty-three, for and during the Term of Thirty-one Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas the said Harbour was greatly injured by the violent Storms which happened in the Course of the last Winter, and the Pier thereof called The East Head is in Danger of falling, unless it be immediately repaired; and the said Harbour has been found to be dangerous to the Shipping frequenting the same from the present Direction and Situation of the said Pier called The East Head; and in order to render the same safe, it is necessary to extend the said Pier farther Westward, and 26 Geo: 2.

otherwiſe to improve the ſaid Harbour ſo as to render the ſame ſafe and commodious: And whereas the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the ſaid Burgh of Dyſart are unable to repair the Damage which the ſaid Harbour has ſuſtained, or to conſtruct the Works neceſſary to render the ſame ſafe and commodious, unleſs the Duty impoſed, and the Powers and Authorities granted by the ſaid recited Act, be renewed for a certain Period, and extended over certain Parts of the Barony of Dyſart and certain Villages erected thereon, and unleſs the Shore Dues now levied upon Veſſels coming into the ſaid Harbour, and other Dues payable upon Articles and Commodities exported from and imported into the ſaid Harbour be increaſed: May it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the Firſt Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and three, an Impoſition or Duty of Two Pennies Scots, or One Sixth Part of a Penny Sterling, (over and above the Duty of Exciſe, paid or payable to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors), ſhall be granted and laid upon every Scots Pint of Ale and Beer which ſhall be either brewed, brought into, tapped, or ſold within the ſaid Burgh of Dyſart, and Liberties thereof, and all Places adjacent thereto, lying within Six hundred Yards of the Boundaries of the ſaid Liberties, and alſo within the Manſion, Orchard, and Rectory, Eaſt and Weſt Ports, Tiend Barns, Park, Garden, and ſuch Parts of the Barony of Dyſart as are intermixed and connected with the Property of the ſaid Burgh, or within the Villages called Eaſter and Weſter Gallow Town, Park Head of Gallow Town, and Boreland, near and adjacent to the ſaid Burgh, or within One hundred Yards of the preſent Boundaries of the ſaid Villages; and that the ſaid Impoſition or Duty ſhall be paid and payable by the Brewers for Sale or Vendors, or Sellers of all ſuch Ale and Beer to the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the ſaid Burgh, and their Succeſſors in Office for the Time being, who are hereby appointed Truſtees for putting in Execution all the Powers in and by this Act given and granted; and the Money to be raiſed and collected by virtue of this Act is hereby veſted in the ſaid Truſtees, and ſhall be collected and received by ſuch Perſon and Perſons as the ſaid Truſtees, or the major Part of them, ſhall, from Time to Time, appoint to receive the ſame, and ſhall be paid to ſuch Perſon or Perſons in ſuch Manner and Proportions as the ſaid Truſtees, or the major Part of them, ſhall from Time to Time direct, and ſhall be applied and diſpoſed of for the Purpoſes of this Act, and to no other Uſe or Purpoſe whatſoever.

A Duty of Two Pennies Scots laid on every Scots Pint of Ale and Beer brewed, &c. within the Burgh of Dyſart, Liberties thereof, Parts and Villages adjacent.

Payable by the Brewer or Vendor to the Magiſtrates and Town-Council; who are appointed Truſtees for repairing the Harbour.

To be applied by them for the Purpoſes of this Act.

Truſtees may repair the Harbour.

II. And be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for the ſaid Truſtees, or the major Part of them, and they are hereby authoriſed and empowered to repair the Damage done to the ſaid Harbour as aforeſaid, to extend the ſaid Pier, called The Eaſt Head, further Weſtward, and to deepen, cleanſe, preſerve, and maintain the ſaid Harbour, and alſo to erect and conſtruct all neceſſary Works within the ſame, for the Reception and more convenient lading and unlading of Ships and Veſſels reſorting thereto.

III. And

Additional Shore Duties and other Dues to be levied.

III. And be it further enacted, That, in place of the Dues at present levied upon Veſſels coming into the ſaid Harbour, and upon Articles and Commodities exported from and imported into the ſaid Harbour, there ſhall be levied and paid the Dues ſpecified and contained in the Schedule hereunto annexed; which Dues are hereby veſted in the ſaid Truſtees, and ſhall be collected and received in the ſame Manner in which the ſaid Impoſition or Duty of Two Pennies on the Scots Pint, hereby authorized to be levied, is by this Act directed to be collected and received.

One Half only of the ſaid Dues to be paid by the reſident Burgeſſes.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That upon all Articles and Commodities belonging to Burgeſſes or Freemen of the ſaid Burgh of Dyſart, reſiding within the aforeſaid Limits, there ſhall be paid only One Half of the Dues ſeverally mentioned in the ſaid Schedule.

Dues paid upon Importation not to be paid upon the ſame Article exported.

V. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That all Articles and Commodities upon the Importation of which into the ſaid Harbour of Dyſart there ſhall have been ſeverally paid the Dues mentioned in the ſaid Schedule, and which ſhall be exported in the ſame State in which they were ſeverally imported, ſhall not, upon ſuch Exportation, be liable to pay any of the ſaid Dues.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Magiſtrates in every and each Year, during the Continuance of this Act, to apply to the Purpoſes to which the Shore Dues at preſent payable have been applied, ſo much of the Dues authorized to be levied by this Act, as upon an Average of the laſt Three Years ſhall be found to have been the Amount of the Shore Dues at preſent payable: Provided always, that the ſaid Shore Dues ſhall again become payable at the Expiration of this Act.

Truſtees to make Orders for the better Collection and Diſpoſal of the Money to be levied.

And to appoint Collectors thereof, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Truſtees, or the major Part of them, may and ſhall make ſuch Rules and Regulations, and give ſuch Directions for raiſing, collecting, receiving, and diſpoſing of the ſeveral Sums of Money ariſing from the ſaid Impoſition or Duty, and Dues hereby authorized to be levied as they ſhall think proper and neceſſary for the Ends and Purpoſes for which the ſame is hereby impoſed and granted; and ſhall alſo by an Act of the Town Council appoint One or more fit Perſon or Perſons to be Collector or Collectors of the ſaid Duty and Dues, and alſo order and direct One or more Officer or Officers, from Time to Time, to gauge the Veſſels of the Brewers, and the Worts, Ale, and Beer therein contained; and ſuch Brewers are hereby required to permit and allow the ſame to be done, as freely, and in ſuch Manner, and at ſuch Times as the Officers of Excife ſhall, for the Time being, be permitted and allowed to do.

Truſtees to order Books to be kept of the Receipts and Diſburſements.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Truſtees, or the major Part of them ſhall, from Time to Time, during the Continuance of this Act, order and direct One or more Book or Books to be provided, wherein ſhall be fairly entered and kept an Account of all Money which ſhall be received in purſuance of this Act, and of all Payments and Diſburſements made out of the ſame; and of the reſpective Times when the ſame was received, paid, or diſburſed, and for what Uſes and Purpoſes ſuch Payments nients or Diſburſements were made; and that within Thirty Days after the Firſt Day of July in every Year ſucceſſively, during the Continuance of this Act, an Account from the ſaid Books ſhall be fairly drawn out and ſtated by the Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers of the ſaid Duty and Dues, for the Time being, and delivered to the ſaid Truſtees, or the major Part of them, upon Oath, which Oath the ſaid Truſtees, or One of them, are and is hereby empowered and required to adminiſter.

Truſtees may borrow Money, and aſſign the Duty and Dues as a Security.

Application of the Money borrowed.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Truſtees, or the major Part of them, ſhall have full Power and Authority by an Act of the Town Council to borrow any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding Four thouſand Pounds, and to convey, aſſure, and aſſign over the Duty and Dues hereby granted, as a Security to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be willing to advance or lend any Sum or Sums of Money thereon at legal Intereſt; and ſuch Sum or Sums of Money ſo borrowed ſhall be applied only for and towards ſuch Purpoſes as the Duty and Dues ariſing by virtue of this Act are hereby directed to be applied.

Expences of this Act to be firſt paid.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That, out of the Money to be collected, raiſed, or borrowed as aforeſaid, the Expences of procuring this Act ſhall in the Firſt Place be paid and diſcharged.

How the Duty and Dues of this Act are to be levied, on Refuſal of Payment.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons, liable to and chargeable with the Payment of the Duty and Dues by this Act granted, or either or any of them, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay the ſame when demanded, it ſhall and may be lawful for any One or more of the Magiſtrates of the ſaid Burgh, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, to ſummon ſuch Perſon or Perſons before him or them, on a certain Day to be ſpecified in ſuch Warrant; and in caſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall not appear, or ſhall appear and not pay the ſaid Duty or Dues, the Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, iſſuing ſuch Warrant, is and are hereby empowered to make an Order for the Payment thereof; and if ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall not pay the ſame within Three Days after Notice of ſuch Order, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Collector or Collectors of the ſaid Duty or Dues, by Warrant under the Hand or Hands of One or more of the Magiſtrates of the ſaid Burgh, to take and diſtrain any of the Goods and Effects of the Perſon or Perſons neglecting or refuſing to pay the ſaid Duty or Dues; and in caſe the ſame ſhall not be paid within Ten Days after any Diſtreſs ſhall be taken as aforeſaid, that then it ſhall and may be lawful for the Collector or Collectors of the ſaid Duty or Dues to ſell the Goods ſo diſtrained, and therewith to ſatisfy the Duty or Dues ſo refuſed, neglected, or delayed ſo to be paid, as alſo his or their reaſonable Charges in taking and keeping ſuch Diſtreſs, not exceeding a Fifth Part of the Sum diſtrained for, rendering the Overplus (if any be) to the Owner or Owners thereof on Demand.

Charge of the Diſtreſs not to exceed a Fifth Part of the Sum diſtrained for.

Beſides the Remedy given, all others may be purſued competent by the Law of Scotland.

XII. And be it further enacted, That, beſides the Remedy given by this Act for levying, recovering, and making effectual the Duty and Dues by this Act granted, the ſaid Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dyſart, and their Collector and Collectors, ſhall, from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and three, and during the

Continuance

Continuance of this Act, be entitled to uſe all other Methods, Remedies, and Execution againſt the Perſon or Perſons neglecting or refuſing to pay the ſaid Duty and Dues, which are competent by the Law of Scotland to the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Royal Burghs, and their Collector or Collectors, for recovering the ordinary Revenues of ſuch Burghs.

Not to prejudice the King's Duty of Exciſe.

Duty to be paid but Once for the ſame Beer.

XIII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That no Diſtreſs which ſhall be taken by the Authority of this Act, ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to prejudice, incumber, or render ineffectual the Duty of Exciſe payable to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors; nor ſhall this Act, or any Thing herein contained, extend or be conſtrued to extend, to charge any Wort, Ale, or Beer with the Payment of the Duty hereby granted, if it ſhall appear that the ſaid Duty hath been Once paid for ſuch Wort, Ale, or Beer.

Beer, etc. brought into the Town, etc. not having paid the Duty to be confiſcated.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if at any Time during the Continuance of this Act any Ale or Beer ſhall be brought in, vended, tapped, or ſold within the ſaid Burgh or Place, or Parts or Villages adjacent thereto aforeſaid, not having firſt paid the Duty hereby laid and made payable, ſuch Ale or Beer, with the Caſk wherein it is contained, ſhall be confiſcated for the Uſe of the Burgh.

Drawback to be allowed on Ale and Beer ſold and ſent without the Pariſh.

XV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Brewers or Brewer, liable in Payment of the Duty aforeſaid, ſhall be entitled to a Drawback thereof for all Ale and Beer which ſhall by them, or any of them, be ſold and ſent without the Limits of the Pariſh of Dyſart, the Quantity or Quantities to be aſcertained by an Account or Accounts to be made out from the Books of ſuch Brewer or Brewers, which ſhall be authenticated by his or their Oath or Oaths reſpectively; and the ſaid Magiſtrates, or the Perſon or Perſons authorized to collect the ſaid Duty ſhall be, and they are hereby empowered, at their or his Option, to inſpect the Sale Books of all and every ſuch Brewers or Brewer, and to compare the Account rendered by each Brewer with his actual Sales during the Period therein ſtated: Provided always, that every Brewer claiming the ſaid Drawback, who ſhall be convicted of keeping falſe Books, or rendering an untrue Account of the Quantity ſo ſold, ſhall be ſubject to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds Sterling.

Duty to be aſcertained by the Vouchers of the King's Officers of Exciſe.

And a Copy of the ſaid Vouchers to be delivered to the Truſtees or their Collectors for that Purpoſe.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the Extent or Quantity of Worts, Ale, or Beer brewed, and charged with the ſaid Duty hereby granted, ſhall be aſcertained by the Voucher or Vouchers made by the Officers of Exciſe for the Time being (conformable to which the Duties of Exciſe are payable), which Voucher or Vouchers ſhall be the Rule for determining any ſuch Difference; and the Collector or Officer of the Exciſe for the Time being, is hereby required to deliver an authentick Copy or Copies of the ſaid Voucher or Vouchers gratis, Once in every Six Weeks, or oftener if required, to ſome of the ſaid Truſtees, or to the Collector or Collectors of the Duty hereby granted, to be uſed for that Purpoſe.

Penalty of concealing or embezzling Beer, etc. liable to pay Duty.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time or Times after the ſaid Firſt Day of July One thouſand eight hundred and three, conceal or embezzle any Wort, Ale, or Beer, ſubject subject and liable to the Duty by this Act granted and made payable, in order to avoid the Payment of such Duty, the Magistrates of the said Burgh of Dysart for the Time being, or any Two or more of them, shall upon the Information of any Person or Persons, summon such Offender or Offenders before them, and the Party offending shall upon Conviction forfeit the Value of what shall be so concealed or embezzled, and the Sum of Ten Pounds Scots for the Expences of the Court, for which Distress conformable to the Law is hereby allowed.

Trustees, with Consent of the Overseer, may farm the Duty and Dues.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees, or the major Part of them, with the Consent of the Overseers herein-after named, or the major Part of them, to farm and set out the Duty and Dues hereby granted, or either or any of them, by Way of publick Roup, for such Term or Terms, and upon such Conditions, as they shall from Time to Time think fit, for the best Price and Prices that can be got for the same, and the Money arising thereby, shall be applied and laid out to and for the Purposes of this Act, and to and for no other Use and Purpose whatsoever.

Publick Act.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be adjudged and taken to be a publick Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same.

Endurance of this Act.

XX. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and the Duty and Dues hereby granted and made payable, and also all other the Powers and Authorities hereby given, shall take Place and have Continuance only from and after the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, for and during the Term of Twenty-one Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.
