EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate it general purport.)

This Order amends the provisions of the East Africa (High Commission) Order in Council, 1947, relating to the officers of the High Commission, the East Africa Central Legislative Assembly, the fund for services which are not self-contained and the matters with respect to which the Assembly may pass laws.

1957 No. 1076

The East African Land Forces Organization Order in Council, 1957

Made - - - -	24th June, 1957
Laid before Parliament	28th June, 1957
Coming into Operation	1st July, 1957

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of June, 1957

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the British Settlement Acts, 1887 and 1945(a), and the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890(b), or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Interpretation

1.—(1) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

" civilian employees of the Organization " means those persons employed by the Organization as civilian members of the staff of the General Officer Commanding, of the staff of the pay, records, stores, supplies, ordnance, transport and wardens' services, and all other persons not being members of any of Her Majesty's forces who are employed by the Organization in services ancillary to the East African forces but shall not include the staff of the Organization;

(a) 50 & 51 Vict. c. 54 and 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 7. (b) 53 & 54 Vict. c. 37.

"the Organization" means the East African Land Forces Organization established under the provisions of this Order;

"East African forces" means Her Majesty's land forces raised in the Territories under the provisions of Ordinances enacted in the Territories;

"the General Officer Commanding" means the General Officer Commanding the East African forces;

"the Governors" means the Governors and Commanders-in-Chief of the Territories and includes the Officers for the time being administering the Governments of the Territories and, to the extent to which Deputies for the Governors are authorized to act, those Deputies;

"minister responsible for defence" means the member of the Government of any Territory responsible to the Governor of that Territory for defence;

"the Permanent Secretary" means the Permanent Secretary to the Organization appointed under the provisions of section 5 of this Order;

"the staff of the Organization" means the Permanent Secretary and the staff of the Office of the Permanent Secretary;

"the Territories" means the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya, the Trust Territory of Tanganyika and the Protectorate of Uganda.

(2) For the purposes of this Order, where reference is made to any officer by the term designating his office, such reference shall include any officer for the time being lawfully discharging the functions of that office.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Short title and commencement

2. This Order may be cited as the East African Land Forces Organization Order in Council, 1957, and shall come into operation on the first day of July, 1957.

Establishment and direction of the Organization

3.—(1) There is hereby established an organization to be known as the East African Land Forces Organization which shall consist of the respective ministers responsible for defence in each of the Territories.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the Organization shall comply with all the general or special directions which the Governors may see fit from time to time to give to it.

(3) The Organization shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and an official seal and shall be capable of suing and being sued and of purchasing, or otherwise acquiring, holding, and alienating property, movable and immovable, and of doing all such acts as bodies corporate may lawfully do.

(a) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(4) The Organization shall keep and use an Official Seal for sealing all things that shall pass the said Seal. Until an official seal shall be provided, an official stamp bearing the inscription "East African Land Forces Organization" may be used as the official seal.

The Chairman

4. The Chairman of the Organization shall from time to time be appointed by the Governors from among the members of the Organization.

The Permanent Secretary

5.—(1) The Organization shall appoint a Permanent Secretary to the Organization, who shall, subject to the provisions of this Order and to the general and special directions of the Organization, have power to act for the Organization, including the affixing of the Official Seal or official stamp, as the case may be.

(2) Where this Order or any other law confers or imposes upon the Organization the power or duty to make any appointment, give any directions, issue any order, enter into any contract or agreement with any person, do or authorize to be done any other matter or thing, or exercise any other power or perform any other duty, it shall be sufficient if the exercise of such power or the performance of such duty by the Organization be signified under the hand of the Permanent Secretary.

Employment of staff by the Organization

6.—(1) All persons employed by the Organization including the staff of the Organization shall hold office at Her Majesty's pleasure and shall be subject to any staff regulations made under section 13 of this Order.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the Organization shall appoint and employ the staff of the Organization and the civilian employees of the Organization on such terms and conditions as it shall think fit.

Powers of General Officer Commanding

7. The General Officer Commanding shall, on behalf of the Governors and subject to their general and special directions and to the provisions of this Order, be responsible for the organization and operation of the services performed by the civilian employees of the Organization.

Stores and supplies

8. The Organization shall procure and supply such stores and supplies as may be necessary for the proper and efficient organization and administration of the East African forces.

Funds of the Organization

9. The funds of the Organization shall consist of such sums as shall be provided therefor by the Legislatures of the Territories and of such other sums as may from time to time be received by the Organization from any other source.

Estimates of the Organization

10. The Organization shall, in consultation with the General Officer Commanding, prepare annual and any necessary supplementary estimates of its revenue and expenditure.

Financial control

11.—(1) The Organization shall supervise and control the expenditure of the funds of the Organization, including all sums made available from such funds to the General Officer Commanding for the purposes of this Order and shall keep or cause to be kept all necessary books of account and documents relating to such expenditure and shall appoint an auditor to audit annually the accounts of the Organization.

(2) The Organization shall act as financial adviser to the General Officer Commanding.

Additional functions of the Organization

12. If at any time the Governors at the request of one of Our Principal Secretaries of State shall so require, the Organization shall perform the like functions, or any of them, in respect of forces other than the East African forces as it is enabled by this Order to perform in respect of the East African forces.

Regulations

13.—(1) The Organization may make such financial, staff and other regulations as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient for the proper carrying out of the provisions of this Order:

Provided that any such regulations which provide for the terms and conditions of service of any person employed by the Organization including the staff of the Organization shall be subject to the approval of the Governors.

(2) Any regulations made under subsection (1) of this section shall be published in the Official Gazettes of the Territories.

Pensions, retiring benefits and gratuities

14.—(1) The Governors may make regulations providing for any member or class of member of the staff of the Organization or any civilian employee or class of civilian employee of the Organization to be pensionable or to be entitled to receive a retiring benefit or superannuation allowance under this Order in accordance with such terms and conditions as the Governors may prescribe.

(2) The Governors may make regulations providing that on the death of any member of the staff of the Organization who may be described by name or office or of any civilian employee of the Organization who likewise may be described by name or office, a pension or gratuity shall be paid to the widow, children or other dependants of such member or employee, as the case may be, subject to such terms and conditions as the Governors may prescribe.

(3) Any regulations made under subsection (1) or subsection (2) of this section may, with the consent of the Government concerned, make provision for any pension, gratuity, superannuation allowance or other retiring benefit to be payable by the Government of one of the Territories and may provide for that purpose that any member or class of member of the staff of the Organization or any civilian employee or class of civilian employee of the Organization shall be deemed to hold a pensionable or other office in such Government:

Provided that the Organization shall reimburse any such Government the amount of any pension, gratuity, superannuation allowance or other benefit such Government is required to pay under any such regulations and any other expenses it may incur in relation thereto.

(4) Any regulation made under this section shall be published in the Official Gazettes of the Territories.
