EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends the Eastern African (Appeal to Privy Council) Order in Council, 1951, in the following respects—

(a) it increases the minimum amount, or value of the matter in dispute, necessary to found an appeal as of right from £500 to £1,000; and

(b) it enables the Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa, in special cases, to permit the execution of its judgment (where an appeal to the Privy Council is pending) either with a reduced security from the party in whose favour execution is ordered or without any security.
