MEASURE

PASSED BY

The National Assembly of the Church of England

To amend the Ecclesiastical Commissioners Act 1840.

[28th July 1921.]

1. The purposes to which the revenues carried to the Common Fund of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners pursuant to the sixty-seventh section of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners Act 1840 and the properties and investments from which such revenues arise may be applied shall include the provision in accordance with any scheme or regulations from time to time established or to be established by the said Commissioners of pensions for clergymen of any class or classes whether beneficed or unbeneficed who are disabled by age or infirmity for the due performance of the duties of the preferments or offices which they are holding or have held in the Church within the Provinces of Canterbury and York. 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113, s. 67.

2. This Measure may be cited as the Ecclesiastical Commissioners Measure 1921.
