The Edinburgh Airport Shops Order 1974

Made - - - 27*th June* 1974

Coming into Operation 18*th July* 1974

Whereas it appears to the Secretary of State that Edinburgh Airport is an airport at which there is a substantial amount of international passenger traffic:

Now therefore the Secretary of State, in exercise of powers conferred by section 1(2) of the Shops (Airports) Act 1962(a) and now vested in him (b) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:

1. This Order may be cited as the Edinburgh Airport Shops Order 1974 and shall come into operation on 18th July 1974.

2. Edinburgh Airport is hereby designated for the purposes of the Shops (Airports) Act 1962 as being an airport at which there appears to the Secretary of State to be a substantial amount of international passenger traffic.

S. D. Wilks,

An Under Secretary,
Department of Trade.

27th June 1974.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

The Shops (Airports) Act 1962 exempts traders at airports designated as having a substantial amount of international passenger traffic from the provisions of Part I of the Shops Act 1950 (1950 c.28), which relate to hours of closing. By this Order the Secretary of State designates Edinburgh Airport as such an airport.
