EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Under the Education Authority Bursaries (Scotland) Regulations, 1957, education authorities are required to estimate each year the expenditure which will be incurred in following his course by each student to whom a bursary has been awarded, and to deduct from it the amount, if any, of the contribution towards that expenditure which can be made by him and his parents. The amount payable is the excess of the estimated expenditure over the contribution.

These Regulations continue in operation the amendments to the Regulations of 1957 made by the Education Authority Bursaries (Scotland) (Amendment No. 1) Provisional Regulations, 1958, which expire on 30th June, 1961, increase from 25s. to 30s. a week the allowance for expenditure to be taken into account in assessing full-time further education bursaries for persons under the age of 17, and amend the rules for the assessment of the contribution in cases where any dependant of the parents is the holder of an award from public funds other than an education authority bursary or is in receipt of other income.
