EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend the Education (Mandatory Awards) Regulations 1982; they do not affect any previous Regulations. They amend the provisions of the 1982 Regulations which relieve local education authorities of the duty to bestow awards on students who have not been ordinarily resident in the British Islands (or, in certain cases, in the European Community) throughout the three year period preceding the first year of their courses.

Where during this three year period a student has been resident wholly or mainly for the purpose of receiving full-time education, it is provided that there shall be no duty to bestow an award.

The present Regulations come into operation on 31st March 1983; accordingly, they do not affect the case of a student on whom an award was bestowed under the 1982 Regulations before that date.
