The Education Workforce Council (Further Education Teacher Qualifications, Periods of Absence from Work and Miscellaneous Amendments) (Wales) Regulations 2026

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Education Workforce Council (Main Functions) (Wales) Regulations 2015 ("the 2015 Regulations") and the Education Workforce Council (Additional Categories of Registration and Further Education Teacher Qualifications) (Wales) Order 2024 ("the 2024 Order").

Regulation 2 amends the 2015 Regulations to make provision regarding neonatal care leave and absence because of sickness or injury. Regulation 2(2)(a) amends regulation 16 of the 2015 Regulations to include neonatal care leave in the list of statutory leave entitlements which the Education Workforce Council will apply to extend the specified period for which a person is able to carry out specified work without qualified teacher status. Regulation 2(2)(b) and (c) amends regulation 16 of the 2015 Regulations so that absence from work because of sickness or injury is disregarded when calculating the period of time a person is permitted to carry out the work specified in regulation 17 of the 2015 Regulations without qualified teacher status. Regulation 2(3)(a) amends regulation 19(1E) of the 2015 Regulations to include neonatal care leave in the list of statutory leave entitlements which will apply to extend the specified period for which a person is able to work as a further education teacher while working towards a further education teacher qualification. Regulation 2(3)(b) and (c) amends regulation 19(1E) of the 2015 Regulations so that absence from work because of sickness or injury is disregarded when calculating the period of time a person has been working towards a further education teacher qualification.

Regulation 19 of the 2015 Regulations sets out the requirements relating to further education teachers. To work as a further education teacher a person must be registered under section 9 of the Education (Wales) Act 2014 in the category of "further education teacher" and must also have (or be working towards) a qualification listed in Part 1 of Schedule 6 to the 2015 Regulations. Regulation 3 of, and the Schedule to, these Regulations replaces the tables of qualifications in Schedule 6 to the 2015 Regulations to update the lists of qualifications which a person can hold in order to work as a further education teacher.

Regulation 4 makes miscellaneous amendments to the 2015 Regulations. Regulation 4(2) corrects an error in a cross-reference to the requirements relating to a further education teacher. Regulation 4(3) corrects an error in the name of the General Teaching Council for Northern Ireland in the English text. Regulation 4(4) corrects a typographical error in the reference to the “2002 Act” in the English text.

Regulation 5 amends the 2024 Order to make provision regarding neonatal care leave and absence because of sickness or injury. Regulation 5(1)(a) amends article 4(5) of the 2024 Order to include neonatal care leave in the list of statutory leave entitlements which will apply to extend the specified period for which a person is able to work as an adult learning practitioner while working towards an adult learning practitioner qualification. Regulation 5(1)(b) and (c) amends article 4(5) of the 2024 Order so that absence from work because of sickness or injury is disregarded when calculating the period of time a person has been working towards an adult learning practitioner qualification.
