(2) Every person holding a licence or authorisation granted under this Order shall comply with every condition imposed by such licence or authorisation.

(3) Every licence or authorisation granted under this Order is and shall remain the property of the Minister, and the licensee or any person being in possession of any such licence or authorisation shall, if requested to do so by or on behalf of the Minister, produce or deliver it to such person or to a person of such class or description, and within such time, as may be specified in the request.

7. The Cream (Production and Sales) Order, 1940(a), is hereby revoked but without prejudice to any proceedings in respect of any contravention thereof.

8. Infringements of this Order are offences against the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939.

9. This Order shall come into operation on the 1st day of June, 1950, and may be cited as the Cream Order, 1950.

Dated the 25th day of May, 1950.

Maurice Webb,
Minister of Food.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order replaces the Cream (Production and Sales) Order, 1940. It prohibits the manufacture or supply of cream except under licence and the obtaining of cream except from the holder of a licence.

It also restricts the serving of clotted cream by catering establishments to a specified area, namely, the counties of Cornwall, Devon, Dorset, Gloucester, Somerset and Wiltshire, and imposes a maximum price for clotted cream, except when supplied as part of a meal by a catering establishment in the specified area.
