EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Provision is made in the Petroleum Spirit in Harbours Order, 1939, for regulating the loading and unloading, storage and conveyance of petroleum spirit in harbours, notwithstanding any restrictions imposed by or under any Act, and additional provision as to these matters is made in relation to the Manchester Ship Canal and the Port of Bristol by the Orders specified in the Second Schedule to this Order.

Similar provision having now been made by byelaws made under Section 7 of the Petroleum (Consolidation) Act, 1928, in the case of the harbours within the areas of the authorities specified in the First Schedule to the present Order, including the Manchester Ship Canal and the Port of Bristol, these harbours are accordingly excluded from the operation of the Order of 1939 and the Orders specified in the Second Schedule are revoked.
