EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The main purpose of these Regulations is to enable the Training Authority to admit to training for the Teacher's General Certificate or for the Teacher's Technical Certificate in Domestic Subjects any woman who has passed in English on the higher grade but failed in one of the four other subjects in which she is normally required to pass at the Scottish Leaving Certificate Examination if the Training Authority are of opinion, after considering her performance at the examination and after an interview, that she is likely to become an efficient teacher.

ELECTRICITY

1953 No. 679

The Electricity (Area) (Gleadless and Base Green) Order, 1953

Made - - - -	20th April, 1953
Laid before Parliament	22nd April, 1953
Coming into Operation	1st May, 1953

The Minister of Fuel and Power (in this order referred to as "the Minister"), after consultation with the Central Authority and after giving to the East Midlands Electricity Board and the Yorkshire Electricity Board an opportunity to make representations, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section four of the Electricity Act, 1947(a), and of all other powers him enabling, hereby makes the following order:—

1.—(1) The areas for which the Yorkshire Electricity Board and the East Midlands Electricity Board (in this order referred to respectively as "the Yorkshire Board" and "the East Midlands Board") are established are hereby varied to the extent that there shall be included in the area of the first-mentioned Board, and excluded from that of the last-mentioned Board, such part of the parish of Eckington in the county of Derby, as lies to the north of a line coloured pink on the map certified as provided in the following paragraph running from its point of connection with the existing boundary between the areas aforesaid in the parcel delineated and numbered 57 on the map to its point of connection with the said existing boundary in the parcel delineated and numbered 5 on the map, being that part which was immediately before the commencement of this order bounded on the south-west, north-west and north-east by the said existing boundary.

(2) The new boundary constituted by this order between the areas aforesaid shall be the boundary shown on a map certified under the hand of the Minister at the making of this order to be the map relating to the variation effected by this order.

2. Any property, right, liability or obligation of the East Midlands Board existing immediately before the commencement of this order and held, used, acquired or incurred for the purposes of or arising in connection with a supply of electricity in any part of the area specified in paragraph (1) of the foregoing article, is hereby transferred without further assurance to the Yorkshire Board.

(a) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 54.

3.—(1) Every agreement (not being an agreement to which paragraph (3) of this article applies) to which immediately before the commencement of this order the East Midlands Board were party, whether or not of such a nature that rights, liabilities and obligations thereunder could be assigned by that Board, shall, unless its terms or subject matter make it impossible that it should have effect as modified by this article, have effect, in so far as concerns any property, right, liability or obligation to which the last foregoing article applies, as if—

(a) the Yorkshire Board had been a party to the agreement;

(b) for any reference (however worded and whether express or implied) to the East Midlands Board, there were substituted a reference to the Yorkshire Board;

(c) for any reference (however worded and whether express or implied) to so much of the business carried on by the East Midlands Board as corresponded to the business carried on by the Derbyshire and Nottinghamshire Electric Power Company immediately before the vesting date, or to any part of such business, there were substituted a reference to so much of the business carried on by the Yorkshire Board as corresponds to that business or that part.

(2) Every other document not being an enactment which refers, whether specifically or generally, to the East Midlands Board shall, in so far as concerns any such property, right, liability or obligation as aforesaid, or any part of the business carried on by them referred to in the foregoing paragraph, be construed in accordance with the provisions of that paragraph.

(3) For any agreement to which, immediately before the commencement of this order, the East Midlands Board were party, being an agreement made before the vesting date between the Derbyshire and Nottinghamshire Electric Power Company and the Parish Council of Eckington for the supply of electricity for street lighting in the parish of Eckington, there shall be substituted agreements between the East Midlands Board and the said Council and between the Yorkshire Board and the said Council for the supply aforesaid in such terms as the Minister shall, in default of agreement by the parties, determine.

4. This order shall come into operation on the first day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty-three, and may be cited as the Electricity (Area) (Gleadless and Base Green) Order, 1953.

Dated this twentieth day of April, nineteen hundred and fifty-three.

Geoffrey Lloyd,
Minister of Fuel and Power.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of this order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This order transfers certain land, including the housing estate at Gleadless and part of the site of the housing estate at Base Green, which lies in the parish of Eckington, Derbyshire, from the area of the East Midlands Electricity Board to the area of the Yorkshire Electricity Board.
