EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The Electricity (Central Authority and Area Boards) Regulations, 1947, deal with the terms of appointment and tenure of office of members of the Central Authority, other than the Chairman of the North of Scotland Board, and of members of Area Boards, other than the Chairman of the Consultative Council for the area concerned, the conditions under which the Minister may declare the office of a member vacant and the quorum and proceedings of the Authority and Area Boards. Provision is also made for the disclosure to the Minister of information in connection with certain business interests of such members.

These regulations amend those regulations so as to apply their provisions to the Electricity Council and the Generating Board. They also extend to members of Area Boards, who are Chairmen of Consultative Councils, the duty as to disclosure of information and include additional provisions in relation to proceedings.

Under section 1 of the Electricity Act, 1957, the Central Authority will cease to exist on the 1st January, 1958, when the provisions of those parts of the regulations applicable to them will no longer have effect.
