EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order amends the Electricity (Industrial and Commercial Use) (Control) (No. 2) Order 1973 in the following respects:—

1. The exception in paragraph 22 of Part I of the Schedule for the use of electricity for the purposes of carrying out the routine maintenance or emergency repair of plant or equipment (other than motor vehicles), if carried out by persons normally engaged in such work, is amended to exclude such maintenance or repair of domestic electrical appliances, including television and radio sets.

2. The exception in paragraph 28 of Part I of the Schedule for overnight heating on commercial premises is extended to permit such heating in offices and showrooms on industrial premises.

3. The exception in paragraph 9 of Part II of the Schedule to the Order for the use of electricity on premises used for the sale of food or animal feeding stuffs is amended to confine the exception to cases where the sale is carried out on premises used for the sale of such goods before 13th December 1973, or in a shop whose business consists wholly or mainly of the sale of such goods.

The Electricity (Industrial and Commercial Use) (Control) Order 1973, which had effect in relation to a period ending on 31st December 1973 (6th January 1974 in Scotland), is revoked, together with the two Orders amending that Order.
