Commencement and citation.

4. This order shall come into operation on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and forty-nine, and may be cited as the Electricity (St. Andrews and Hawick) (Transfer) Order, 1949.

Dated this twenty-fourth day of March, nineteen hundred and forty-nine.

Hugh Gaitskell,
Minister of Fuel and Power.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of this order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This order transfers to the South East Scotland Electricity Board—

(a) the St. Andrews electricity undertaking, vested by the Electricity Act, 1947, in the South West Scotland Electricity Board; and

(b) the Hawick electricity undertaking, vested by that Act in the East Midlands Electricity Board.

Those undertakings lie entirely within the South East Scotland area; but, having been at 31st March, 1948, the undertakings of companies whose main undertakings lay in the South West Scotland and the East Midlands area respectively, they passed under the Electricity Act, 1947, to the Boards for those areas.

The Electricity (South Wales) (Transfer) Order, 1949

1949 No. 569

Made - - - -	28*th March*, 1949
Laid before Parliament	28*th March*, 1949
Coming into Operation	1*st April*, 1949

The Minister of Fuel and Power, on the application of the South Wales Electricity Board and after consulting the Central Authority, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by sections nineteen and fifty-seven of the Electricity Act, 1947,(a) (in this order referred to as "the Act"), and of all other powers him enabling, hereby makes the following order:—

Transfer of property, rights, etc.

1. All such property, rights, liabilities and obligations are hereby transferred without further assurance to the South Wales Electricity Board as—

(a) immediately before the vesting date were property, rights, liabilities or obligations of the several undertakers for the purposes of—

(i) the Brecon Electricity Special Order, 1926, (in this order referred to as "the Brecon order");

(a) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 54.

(ii) in so far as the area of supply thereunder lies within the county of Monmouth, the West Gloucestershire Electricity (Extension) Special Order, 1928, as amended by the West Usk (Extension) Electricity Special Order, 1934, (in this order in relation to that part of that area referred to as "the Monmouthshire order");

(iii) the Abergavenny and District Electricity Special Order, 1930, (in this order referred to as "the Abergavenny order"); or

(iv) the Radnorshire and Brecknockshire Electricity Special Order, 1932, (in this order referred to as "the Radnorshire order"); and

(b) on the date aforesaid vested by virtue of the Act in the Midlands Electricity Board and remain so vested at the coming into operation of this order.

Modification of agreements, etc.

2.—(1) Every agreement to which the Midlands Electricity Board are party as undertakers as aforesaid, whether or not of such a nature that rights, liabilities and obligations thereunder could be assigned by that Board, shall, unless its terms or subject matter make it impossible that it should have effect as modified by this article, have effect, in so far as concerns any property, right, liability or obligation transferred by virtue of the foregoing article, as if—

(a) the South Wales Electricity Board had been a party to the agreement;

(b) for any reference (however worded and whether express or implied) to the Midlands Electricity Board, there were substituted, as respects anything falling to be done after the coming into operation of this order, a reference to the South Wales Electricity Board;

(c) for any reference (however worded and whether express or implied) to so much of the business carried on by the Midlands Electricity Board as corresponded to the undertaking authorised by any of the orders aforesaid, or to any part of any such undertaking, there were substituted, as respects anything falling to be done on or after the date aforesaid, a reference to so much of the business carried on by the South Wales Electricity Board as corresponds to that undertaking or that part.

(2) Every other document not being an enactment which refers, whether specifically or generally, to the Midlands Electricity Board shall, in so far as concerns any property, right, liability or obligation transferred as aforesaid, or the business carried on by the Midlands Electricity Board referred to in the foregoing paragraph, be construed in accordance with the provisions of that paragraph.

(3) Where any agreement provides for any person to render any services to the Midlands Electricity Board partly in their capacity as undertakers for the purposes of any of the orders aforesaid and partly in some other capacity, the question whether that agreement shall have effect subject to the modifications aforesaid shall, in default of agreement between the Midlands Electricity Board, the South Wales Electricity Board and the person concerned, be determined by the Minister.

Modification of Electricity Special Orders.

3. The Brecon order, the Monmouthshire order, the Abergavenny order and the Radnorshire order shall, as respects anything falling to be done after the coming into operation of this order, have effect subject to the modification that the undertakers for the purposes of each of these orders shall be the South Wales Electricity Board.

Commencement and citation.

4. This order shall come into operation on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and forty-nine, and may be cited as the Electricity (South Wales) (Transfer) Order, 1949.

Dated this twenty-eighth day of March, nineteen hundred and forty-nine.

Hugh Gaitskell,
Minister of Fuel and Power.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of this order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

1. This order transfers from the Midlands Electricity Board to the South Wales Electricity Board the electricity undertakings provided for by the following orders—

(i) the Brecon Electricity Special Order, 1926;

(ii) the West Gloucestershire Electricity (Extension) Special Order, 1928, as amended by the West Usk (Extension) Electricity Special Order, 1934, in so far as they apply to the county of Monmouth;

(iii) the Abergavenny and District Electricity Special Order, 1930; and

(iv) the Radnorshire and Brecknockshire Electricity Special Order, 1932.

2. These undertakings lie entirely within the South Wales area; but, having been at 31st March, 1948, vested in companies whose other undertakings lay in the Midlands area, they passed under the Electricity Act, 1947, to the Midlands Electricity Board.
