EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This order transfers certain lower voltage transmission lines from the British Electricity Authority in whom they were vested under the Electricity Act, 1947, to the various electricity boards in whose areas they lie.

At the same time, certain other transmission lines which under the provisions of that Act were vested in the London, Southern, Midlands and Merseyside & North Wales Electricity Boards are transferred to the British Electricity Authority.

1952 No. 596

The Electricity (Transmission Lines, Scotland) (Transfer) Order, 1952

Made - - - -	21*st March*, 1952
Laid before Parliament	24*th March*, 1952
Coming into Operation	31*st March*, 1952

The Minister of Fuel and Power, after consultation with the Central Authority, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section nineteen of the Electricity Act, 1947(a), and of all other powers him enabling, hereby makes the following order :—

1.—(1) Interests in the transmission lines specified in the first column of the schedule to this order, being interests vested by virtue of the Electricity Act, 1947, in the Central Authority, and all rights, liabilities and obligations of that authority acquired or incurred by reason of those lines being vested in them, are hereby transferred to the electricity boards respectively specified in relation to the said lines in the third column of the said schedule :

Provided that nothing in this article shall affect any interest of any person in any property forming part of a generating station or substation specified as excluded with respect to any transmission line in the second column of the said schedule.

(2) For the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the foregoing paragraph, the Central Authority shall, on receipt of a proper indemnity against reasonable costs or expenses, grant to the appropriate electricity board all such deeds or other instruments as that board may require, or as the Minister of Fuel and Power may determine to be necessary.

2. Every agreement to which, immediately before the commencement of this order, the Central Authority were party shall in so far as concerns anything transferred by virtue of the foregoing article have effect as if—

(a) the appropriate electricity board had been a party to the agreement ; and

(b) for any reference (however worded and whether express or implied) to the Central Authority there were substituted as respects anything falling to be done at or after the said commencement, a reference to the said board.

3. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, any legal proceeding or application to any authority pending at the commencement of this order by or against the Central Authority shall, in so far as it relates to anything transferred as aforesaid, or to any agreement which has effect in accordance with the provisions of the last foregoing article, be continued by or against the appropriate electricity board to the exclusion of the Central Authority.

4. In this order the expression "transmission line" has the meaning assigned by the Electricity Supply Act, 1926(a).

5. In the application of this order, there shall be deemed to be included in any substation transferred by virtue of its provisions any interest held by the Central Authority in land forming the site of, or adjoining, that substation which was, immediately before the commencement of this order, exclusively occupied for the purposes thereof.

6. This order shall come into operation on the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and fifty-two, and may be cited as the Electricity (Transmission Lines, Scotland) (Transfer) Order, 1952.

Dated this twenty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

Geoffrey Lloyd,
Minister of Fuel and Power.

EMERGENCY LAWS

CONTINUANCE

1952 No. 2095

The Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1952

Made - - - - 4th December, 1952

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of December, 1952

Present

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by section seven of the Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1947(a) (hereinafter referred to as " the Act of 1947 ") it is provided that if an Address is presented to Her Majesty by each House of Parliament praying that any Defence Regulations specified in Part II or Part III of the First Schedule to that Act or any enactments contained in Part I of the Emergency Laws (Transitional Provisions) Act, 1946(b) (hereinafter referred to as " the Act of 1946 ") should be continued in force for a further period not exceeding one year from the time at which they would otherwise expire, Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct that the Regulations and enactments to which the Address relates shall continue in force for that further period:

And whereas an Address has been presented to Her Majesty by each House of Parliament praying that such of the said enactments and Regulations as are specified in the Schedule to this Order, which would otherwise expire on the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-two, should be continued in force for a further period of one year until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-three:

And whereas by subsection (2) of section eight of the Act of 1947 it is provided that where an Order in Council is made under section seven of that Act continuing any Defence Regulations for any period falling after the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty, that Order in Council may make provision for enabling any Defence Regulations continued in force in colonies and other territories by virtue of section eighteen of the Act of 1946 to be continued in force for that period:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the Act of 1947 and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The enactments specified in Part I of the Schedule to this Order, which would otherwise expire on the tenth day of December, nineteen
