EMERGENCY LAWS

[NOTE.—For the continuance in force of certain Defence (General) Regulations and other specified codes of Regulations, see the Emergency Laws (Continuance) O., 1950 (S.I. 1950 No. 1770), Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Colonies, etc.) O. in C., 1950 (S.I. 1950 No. 1972), Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Guernsey) O. in C., 1950 (S.I. 1950 No. 1776), Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Isle of Man) O. in C., 1950 (S.I. 1950 No. 1774), and Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Jersey) O. in C., 1950 (S.I. 1950 No. 1775) below.]

1. CONTINUANCE

The Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1950

1950 No. 1770

Made - - - - 2nd November, 1950

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of November, 1950

Present,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by section seven of the Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1947(a) (hereinafter referred to as " the Act of 1947 ") it is provided that if an Address is presented to His Majesty by each House of Parliament praying that any Defence Regulations specified in Part II or Part III of the First Schedule to that Act or any enactments contained in Part I of the Emergency Laws (Transitional Provisions) Act, 1946(b) (hereinafter referred to as " the Act of 1946 ") should be continued in force for a further period not exceeding one year from the time at which they would otherwise expire, His Majesty may by Order in Council direct that those Regulations and enactments shall continue in force for that further period:

And Whereas such an Address has been presented to His Majesty by each House of Parliament as aforesaid praying that such of the said enactments and Regulations as are specified in the Schedule to this Order, which would otherwise expire on the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty, should be continued in force for a further period of one year until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-one:

And Whereas by subsection (2) of section eight of the Act of 1947 it is provided that where an Order in Council is made under section seven of that Act continuing any Defence Regulations for any period falling after the said tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty, that Order in Council may make provision for enabling any Defence Regulations continued in force in colonies and other territories by virtue of section eighteen of the Act of 1946 to be continued in force for that period:

(a) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 10. (b) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 26.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the Act of 1947 and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

1. The enactments specified in Part I of the Schedule to this Order, which would otherwise expire on the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty, shall continue in force for a further period of one year until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-one, unless previously revoked.

2. The Defence Regulations specified in Part II of the Schedule to this Order, which would otherwise expire on the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty, shall continue in force for a further period of one year until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-one, unless previously revoked.

3. The powers exercisable under section eighteen of the Act of 1946 (which, as amended by section eight of the Act of 1947, empowers His Majesty by Order in Council to make provision for the continuation in force, until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty, of Defence Regulations having effect in colonies and other territories), shall be exercisable, in relation to any Defence Regulations remaining in force by virtue of that section when this Order is made, as if for the reference to the said date there were substituted a reference to the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-one.

4. This Order may be cited as the Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1950.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.
