EMERGENCY LAWS

1957 No. 2057

The Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1957

Made - - - - 27th November, 1957

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of November, 1957

Present

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by section seven of the Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1947(a) (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1947") it is provided that if an Address is presented to Her Majesty by each House of Parliament praying that any Defence Regulations specified in Part II or Part III of the First Schedule to that Act or any enactments contained in Part I of the Emergency Laws (Transitional Provisions) Act, 1946(b) (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1946") should be continued in force for a further period not exceeding one year from the time at which they would otherwise expire, Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct that the Regulations and enactments to which the Address relates shall continue in force for that further period:

And whereas an Address has been presented to Her Majesty by each House of Parliament praying that such of the said enactments and Regulations as are specified in the Schedule to this Order, which would otherwise expire on the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, should be continued in force for a further period of one year until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight:

And whereas by subsection (2) of section eight of the Act of 1947 it is provided that where an Order in Council is made under section seven of that Act continuing any Defence Regulations for any period falling after the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty, that Order in Council may make provision for enabling any Defence Regulations continued in force in colonies and other territories by virtue of section eighteen of the Act of 1946 to be continued in force for that period:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the Act of 1947, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The enactment specified in Part I of the Schedule to this Order, which would otherwise expire on the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, shall continue in force for a further period of one year until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight, unless previously revoked.

2. The Defence Regulations specified in Part II of the Schedule to this Order, which would otherwise expire on the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, shall continue in force for a further period of one year until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight, unless previously revoked.

(a) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 10. (b) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 26.

3. The powers exercisable under section eighteen of the Act of 1946 shall be exercisable, in relation to any Defence Regulations remaining in force by virtue of that section and Article 3 of the Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1956(a), when this Order is made, as if, in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of that section as amended by subsection (1) of section eight of the Act of 1947, for the reference to the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty, there were substituted a reference to the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight.

4. This Order may be cited as the Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1957.

W. G. Agnew.
