EMERGENCY LAWS

1958 No. 1961

The Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1958

Made - - - - 21*st November,* 1958

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of November, 1958

Present

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by section seven of the Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1947(a), it is provided that if an Address is presented to Her Majesty by each House of Parliament praying that any Defence Regulations specified in Part II or Part III of the First Schedule to that Act should be continued in force for a further period not exceeding one year from the time at which they would otherwise expire, Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct that the Regulations to which the Address relates shall continue in force for that further period:

And whereas an Address has been presented to Her Majesty by each House of Parliament praying that Regulations 1 and 6 of the Defence (Armed Forces) Regulations, 1939 (which are specified in the said Part III and would otherwise expire on the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight) should be continued in force for a further period of one year until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the said section seven, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Regulations 1 and 6 of the Defence (Armed Forces) Regulations, 1939, which would otherwise expire on the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight, shall continue in force for a further period of one year until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine, unless previously revoked.

2. This Order may be cited as the Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1958.
