Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Colonies, etc.) Order in Council, 1952.

2. The Governor of any territory mentioned in the Schedule to this Order may by order provide:—

(a) for the continuation in force until the tenth day of December, 1953, of any Defence Regulations, being Defence Regulations in force in the territory at the date of the making of the Order of 1952 by virtue of section eighteen of the Act of 1946 and Article 3 of the Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1951;

(b) that any Defence Regulations so continued in force shall have effect subject to such exceptions, limitations and modifications as the Governor thinks necessary or expedient.

3. The provisions of section two, subsection (2) of section three, section four and section five of the Order of 1946 shall have effect in relation to this Order, and to Defence Regulations continued in force under this Order, as they have effect in relation to the Order of 1946, and to Defence Regulations continued in force under that Order.

The Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Guernsey) Order in Council, 1952

Made - - - - 4th December, 1952

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of December, 1952

Present

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas section eighteen of the Emergency Laws (Transitional Provisions) Act, 1946(a), as amended by subsection (1) of section eight of the Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1947(b), enabled His late Majesty by Order in Council to empower such authority as might be specified in the Order to provide for the continuation in force until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty, of Defence Regulations having effect in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, being a territory specified in section four of the Emergency Powers (Defence) Act, 1939(c), and for certain matters ancillary thereto:

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 26. (b) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 10. (c) 2 & 3 Geo. 6. c. 62.

And Whereas by Article 3 of the Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1952(a), made under the said section eight on the fourth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-two, it is provided that the powers exercisable under the said section eighteen shall be exercisable in relation to any Defence Regulations remaining in force by virtue of that section and Article 3 of the Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1951(b), when the said Order of 1952 was made, as if in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of the said section eighteen as amended by subsection (1) of the said section eight for the reference to the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty, there were substituted a reference to the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-three:

And Whereas it is expedient that further provision be made for the continuation in force for a further period of certain Defence Regulations remaining in force by virtue of the said section eighteen when the said Order of 1952 was made:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the said section eighteen as amended by subsection (1) of the said section eight and the said Order of 1952 and all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Guernsey) Order in Council, 1952.

(2) In this Order the expression "Bailiwick of Guernsey" includes the territorial waters adjacent to every part of that Bailiwick, and the expression "Royal Court" means the Royal Court of Guernsey.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889(c), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament, and for the purposes of section thirty-eight of that Act (which relates to the effect of repeals) this Order shall be deemed an Act of Parliament.

2. The Royal Court shall be empowered to provide—

(a) for the continuation in force until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-three, of any Defence Regulations having effect in the Bailiwick of Guernsey, being Defence Regulations remaining in force by virtue of the Emergency Laws (Transitional Provisions) Act, 1946, the Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1947, and the Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Guernsey) Order in Council, 1951(d), when the Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1952, was made;

(b) that any Defence Regulation so continued in force shall have effect, subject to such exceptions, limitations and modifications as the Royal Court thinks necessary or expedient;

(c) for the revocation in whole or in part of any Regulation so continued and for the making of any saving provisions which the Royal Court thinks necessary or expedient to take effect on the revocation or expiry of any such Regulation;

(d) for the application, in relation to Regulations so continued in force, of sections nineteen and twenty of the Emergency Laws (Transitional Provisions) Act, 1946, subject to such exceptions, adaptations and modifications as the Royal Court thinks necessary or expedient.
