EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order supersedes the Hire-Purchase and Credit Sale Agreements (Maximum Prices and Charges) Order, 1950, as amended.

The principal change is that the maximum price or maximum charge in respect of a credit sale or hire-purchase agreement comprising price-controlled goods (other than typewriters) and also non-price-controlled goods is—

(a) in the case of a credit sale agreement which complies with the requirements of the First Schedule, the retail cash price of the goods together with 5 per cent. of that price;

(b) in the case of a credit sale or hire-purchase agreement which complies with the requirements of the Second Schedule, the retail cash price of the goods together with 20 per cent. of the difference between that price and the deposit.

Hitherto in such cases, except where the non-price-controlled goods were non-utility furniture or bedding, the maximum price or maximum charge has been the retail cash price of the price-controlled goods.
