CAP. XI.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Endowed Schools. [31st March 1860.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that some Restrictions upon the Government and Teaching of certain Endowed Schools should be removed or modified:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Power to Trustees of Endowed Schools to make Orders for the Admission of Children of Denominations herein stated.

I. It shall be lawful for the Trustees or Governors of every Endowed School from Time to Time to make, and they shall be bound to make, such Orders as, whilst they shall not interfere with the religious Teaching of the other Scholars as now fixed by Statute or other legal Requirement, and shall not authorize any religious Teaching other than that previously afforded in the School, shall nevertheless provide for admitting to the Benefits of the School the Children of Parents not in communion with the Church, Sect, or Denomination according to the Doctrines or Formularies of which religious Instruction is to be afforded under the Endowment of the said School: Provided that in the Will or Wills, Deed or Deeds, or other Instrument or Instruments regulating such Endowment, nothing be contained expressly requiring the Children educated under such Endowment to learn or to be instructed according to the Doctrines or Formularies of such Church, Sect, or Denomination.

Act not to apply to certain Institutions or to Scotland or Ireland.

II. This Act shall not apply to any of the Institutions mentioned in Section Twenty-four of the Act of the Third and Fourth of Victoria, Chapter Seventy-seven, entitled An Act for improving the Condition and extending the Benefits of Grammar Schools, nor to any School established or to be established by or in union with or to be in union with the National Society for promoting the Education of the Poor in the Principles of the Established Church, nor to any Institution maintained wholly by voluntary Subscriptions, or partly by voluntary Subscriptions and partly by School Payments, nor to Scotland or Ireland.

Short Title.

III. This Act may be cited as "The Endowed Schools Act, 1860."

CAP. XII.

An Act to apply the Sum of Eight hundred and fifty thousand Pounds out of the Consolidated Fund to the Service of the Year ending the Thirty-first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixty. [31st March 1860.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards making good the Supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this Session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the Sum herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

There shall be applied for the Service of the Year ending the 31st Day of March 1860

I. There shall and may be issued and applied, for or towards making good the Supply granted to Her Majesty for the Service of the Year ending the Thirty-first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixty, the Sum of Eight hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and
