(d) in the case of each subsequent child so included to a rate not exceeding 35s. 0d. a week."

Dated this 30th day of October 1967.

Wm. Craig,
Minister of Home Affairs.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

These Regulations amend the provisions of the Ulster Special Constabulary Pensions Regulations 1950 relating to the discretionary increases in widows' pensions and children's allowances.

Regulation 2(1), (2) and (3) increases the amount by which widows' pensions may be increased in the cases in which discretionary increases are permitted, and Regulation 2(4) and (5) makes similar provision in relation to children's allowances.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Sea Fishing Industry (Immature Sea Fish) Order (Northern Ireland) 1937 provided that no person should offer for sale or have in his possession for the purpose of sale, any escallop of a smaller size than four and a half inches. This Order re-enacts those provisions and in addition makes it an offence to land any escallop smaller than the minimum size, and to have in possession for the purpose of processing or otherwise using in the course of any business any such escallop.
