(Only the English text is authentic)

(84/122/EEC)

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community, and in particular the first paragraph of Article 115 thereof,

Having regard to Commission Decision 80/47/EEC of 20 December 1979 on surveillance and protective measures which Member States may be authorized to take in respect of imports of certain products originating in third countries and put into free circulation in another Member State (1), and in particular Articles 1 and 2 thereof,

Whereas Decision 80/47/EEC requires Member States to have prior authorization from the Commission to introduce intra-Community surveillance of certain imports ;

Whereas the Commission, by Decision 83/326/EEC of 28 June 1983 (2) and other relevant Decisions, authorized certain Member States to introduce such surveillance until 30 June 1985 ;

Whereas further requests were made under Article 2 of Decision 80/47/EEC by the United Kingdom Government to the Commission of the European Communities for authorization to apply intra-Community surveillance to imports of certain products originating in certain third countries and in free circulation in the other Member States ;

Whereas the information given by the United Kingdom authorities in support of these applications has been subjected to close examination by the Commission, in accordance with the criteria laid down by Decisions 80/47/EEC and 83/326/EEC ;

Whereas the Commission examined, in particular, whether the imports could be made subject to intra-Community surveillance measures under Article 2 of Decision 80/47/EEC, whether information was given as regards the economic difficulties alleged, whether, during the reference years set out in Decision 80/47/EEC, there had been deflection of trade and whether intra-Community licence applications had been submitted ;

Whereas this examination has shown that there is a risk that the imports set out in the Annex hereto are worsening or prolonging the existing economic difficulties ;

Whereas, therefore, the United Kingdom should be authorized to make these imports subect to intra-Community surveillance until 30 June 1985 ; whereas, however, for those products referred to in Council Regulation (EEC) No 109/84 of 4 January 1984 concerning common rules for imports of certain
