COMMISSION DECISION

of 14 November 1985

repealing Decision 84/10/EEC concerning certain protective measures against classical swine fever as regards fresh pigmeat

(85/513/EEC)

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to Council Directive 72/461/EEC of 12 December 1972 on health problems affecting intra-Community trade in fresh meat [1], as last amended by Directive 85/322/EEC [2], and in particular Article 8 thereof,

Whereas, following the outbreak of classical swine fever which occurred successively in certain areas of the Community, on 10 January 1984 the Council adopted Decision 84/10/EEC concerning protective measures against classical swine fever as regards fresh pigmeat [3];

Whereas, since then the development of the disease has required several alterations to the extent of the area in which the measures are applied in intra-Community trade in fresh meat;

Whereas, due to the favourable developments of the disease situation the restrictive measures previously applied may be repealed;

Whereas the measures provided for in this Decision are in accordance with the opinion of the Standing Veterinary Committee,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DECISION:

Article 1

Decision 84/10/EEC is hereby repealed.

Article 2

The Member States shall amend the measures they apply to trade so that they comply with this Decision. They shall immediately inform the Commission thereof.

Article 3

This Decision is addressed to the Member States.

Done at Brussels, 14 November 1985.

For the Commission
Frans ANDRIESSEN
Vice-President
