COMMISSION

COMMISSION DECISION

of 22 November 1991

approving the plan for infectious haemopoietic necrosis and viral haemorrhagic septicaemia submitted by Denmark

(Only the Danish text is authentic)

(91/640/EEC)

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to Council Decision 90/495/EEC of 24 September 1990 introducing a Community financial measure with a view to the eradication of infectious haemopoietic necrosis of salmonids in the Community [1], and in particular Article 4 thereof,

Whereas Article 1 of Decision 90/495/EEC requires Member States to submit a plan for assessing the infection rate in their territory for infectious haemopoietic necrosis (IHN) and viral haemorrhagic septicaemia (VHS);

Whereas by letter dated 24 December 1990 Denmark transmitted a plan to the Commission;

Whereas examination has shown that it meets the requirements of Decision 90/495/EEC, and in particular Article 3 thereof;

Whereas the requirements for a Community financial contribution pursuant to Article 7 of the said Decision are therefore met;

Whereas the measures provided for in this Decision are in accordance with the opinion of the Standing Veterinary Committee,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DECISION:

Article 1

The plan submitted by Denmark for determining the rate of IHN and VHS infection on its territory is hereby approved.

Article 2

Denmark shall bring into force by 1 January 1991 the laws, regulations and administrative provisions required for implementation of the plan referred to in Article 1.

Article 3

The Community's financial contribution to Denmark shall be 50 % of expenditure on the action specified in Article 3 (4) and (5) of Decision 90/495/EEC.

Article 4

The Community's financial contribution shall be granted on submission of supporting documents.

Article 5

This Decision is addressed to Denmark.

Done at Brussels, 22 November 1991.
