COMMISSION DECISION

of 2 April 1997

on financial assistance for the Community reference laboratory for bivalve mollusc diseases

(Only the French text is authentic)

(97/260/EC)

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community,

Having regard to Council Decision 90/424/EEC of 26 June 1990 on expenditure in the veterinary field [1], as last amended by Decision 94/370/EC [2], and in particular Article 28 (2) thereof,

Whereas in Annex A to Council Directive 95/70/EC of 22 December 1995 introducing minimum Community measures for control of certain diseases affecting bivalve molluscs [3], Ifremer at La Tremblade in France is designated Community reference laboratory for bivalve mollusc diseases;

Whereas its functions and duties are set out in Annex B to Directive 95/70/EC; whereas Community aid must be conditional on accomplishment of these;

Whereas financial aid should be given to this Community reference laboratory to assist it in the execution of these functions and duties;

Whereas for budget reasons Community financial aid is granted for a period of one year;

Whereas for supervisory purposes Articles 8 and 9 of Council Regulation (EEC) No 729/70 of 21 April 1970 on financing of the common agricultural policy [4], as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 1287/95 [5], should apply;

Whereas the measures provided for in this Decision are in accordance with the opinion of the Standing Veterinary Committee,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DECISION:

Article 1

The Community shall grant financial aid to France for discharge of the functions and duties, as set out in Annex B to Directive 95/70/EC, of the Community reference laboratory for bivalve mollusc diseases.

Article 2

The Ifremer laboratory at La Tremblade in France shall discharge the functions and duties referred to in Article 1.

Article 3

The aid is set at a maximum of ECU 90 000 for the period 1 January to 31 December 1997.
