COUNCIL DECISION

of 15 November 1999

implementing Joint Action 1999/34/CFSP with a view to a European Union contribution to combating the destabilising accumulation and spread of small arms and light weapons in Cambodia

(1999/730/CFSP)

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to Joint Action 1999/34/CFSP of 17 December 1998 on the European Union's contribution to combating the destabilising accumulation and spread of small arms and light weapons [1], and in particular Article 6, in conjunction with Article 23(2) of the Treaty on European Union,

Whereas:

(1) The excessive and uncontrolled accumulation and spread of small arms and light weapons poses a threat to peace and security and reduces the prospects for sustainable development; whereas this is acutely the case in Cambodia;

(2) In pursuing the objectives set out in Article 1 of Joint Action 1999/34/CFSP, the European Union envisages operating within the relevant international forums to promote confidence-building measures and incentives to encourage the voluntary surrender of surplus or illegally-held small arms, the demobilisation of combatants and their subsequent rehabilitation and reintegration; whereas this Decision is intended to implement Joint Action 1999/34/CFSP;

(3) The European Union considers that a financial contribution and technical assistance would pursue the aims of influencing public opinion in favour of civilian disarmament, consolidating and developing civil society involvement in the process of weapons collection and disposal of arms collected and/or rendered surplus through demobilisation;

(4) The European Union intends therefore to offer financial support and technical assistance in accordance with Title II of Joint Action 1999/34/CFSP,

HAS DECIDED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1

(b) assist the government of Cambodia and the police and security forces to develop guidelines for improved record-keeping and security for weapons held by them,

(c) assist the government of Cambodia and the police and security forces in developing procedures for voluntary surrender of small arms and for identifying and destroying surplus small arms, particularly in connection with planned demobilisation and restructuring of armed forces,

(d) support civil society programmes to raise public awareness on problems related to small arms and light weapons and further to

ANNEX

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR THE PROJECT MANAGER

1. For the purposes of Article 1(2)(a), the Project Manager, with the support of relevant experts, will continue to work for the development of appropriate laws and regulations. To that end, the Project Manager will assist the Government and Parliament in the process leading up to the adoption of a draft law on the subject and will help in its application, in particular through the development of secondary laws and regulations. He will also support public information and awareness programmes connected with that law.

2. For the purposes of Article 1(2)(b), the Project Manager, in cooperation with the Cambodian armed forces, will continue the work relating to record-keeping and the management and security of weapons stocks and to developing policies, guidelines and practices in this area. To that end, the Project Manager will monitor the project being conducted in Kampong Cham Province (Military District 1), organise a project in a further military district and continue, at national level, the efforts regarding training, systems development and the recording of arms. He will ensure that the relevant authorities are closely involved in defining and carrying through the new project.

   For the same purposes, but in relation to the police, the Project Manager, with the support of a relevant expert, will carry out a feasibility study on record-keeping, stockpile management and the security of weapons stocks. That project will comprise the development of training systems and record-keeping.

3. For the purposes of Article 1(2)(c), the Project Manager, with the support of relevant experts, will continue to assist and promote the Government's national programme of public ceremonies for the destruction of collected weapons and, where appropriate, of surplus weapons held by the army and the police and security forces (in particular in the context of demobilisation and reintegration programmes). The Project Manager may, if necessary and to a limited extent, lend support for capacity-building of the National Commission for Weapons Reform and Management. The Project Manager will continue to supervise and monitor implementation of ‘Arms versus development’ pilot projects in Kracheh and Pursat. He may expand those projects to local administrative areas in neighbouring districts.

4. For the purposes of Article 1(2)(d), the Project Manager will allocate financial aid to support activities by non-governmental organisations in Cambodia, including the coalition ‘Working Group for Weapons Reduction in Cambodia’, such as awareness raising, information sharing and education and training programmes. These activities may take place in selected regions in Cambodia, as agreed between the Project Manager and the relevant organisations. Particular attention will be paid to strengthening the coordination and budgetary cooperation among such organisations.

5. The Project Manager will ensure that appropriate procedures are established for effective monitoring and evaluation of activities. To this end, he will seek full cooperation from the Government of Cambodia and the police and security forces.

6. The Project Manager will encourage and assist other donors to support efforts to reduce and control small arms and light weapons and will stand ready, as appropriate, to carry out joint projects with other donors within the limits of his powers under these terms of reference. Bearing in mind the European Union's vanguard position in this domain, he will ensure that he plays a pivotal role in international efforts and, where appropriate, will contribute to the management and implementation of projects supported by other donors.
