(2006/80/EC)

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community,

Having regard to Council Directive 92/102/EEC of 27 November 1992 on the identification and registration of animals [1], and in particular Article 3(2) thereof,

Whereas:

(1) Article 3(2) of Directive 92/102/EEC provides for the possibility to authorise Member States to exclude from the list of holdings required by Article 3(1) natural persons who keep one single pig which is intended for their own use or consumption, or to take account of particular circumstances, provided that this animal is subjected to the controls laid down in that Directive before any movement.

(2) The authorities of the Czech Republic, France, Poland and Slovakia have requested this authorisation as regards holdings with one single pig and have given the appropriate assurances in respect of veterinary controls.

(3) Therefore the Czech Republic, France, Poland and Slovakia should be authorised to apply the derogation.

(4) Commission Decision 95/80/EC [2] grants Portugal the derogation provided for in Article 3(2) of Directive 92/102/EEC on the identification and registration of animals.

(5) Commission Decision 2005/458/EC [3] grants Italy the derogation provided for in Article 3(2) of Directive 92/102/EEC.

(6) It is appropriate to list in a single decision the Member States having been granted the derogation provided for in Article 3(2) of Directive 92/102/EEC.

(7) Decisions 95/80/EC and 2005/458/EC should therefore be repealed and replaced by this Decision.
