REGULATION (EEC) No 241/73 OF THE COUNCIL of 31 January 1973

laying down general rules for the system of compensatory amounts for sugar following the Accession of new Member States to the Community

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community;

Having regard to the Treaty [1] concerning the Accession of new Member States to the European Economic Community and to the European Atomic Energy Community, and in particular Article 62 (1) of the Act annexed thereto;

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission;

Whereas in respect of the new Member States Articles 51 and 52 of the abovementioned Act provide for the fixing of prices in accordance with specific criteria which could lead to differences in price level as compared with that of the common prices; whereas pursuant to Article 55 of the Act these differences in price are to be compensated by a system of compensatory amounts;

Whereas in relation to sugar, the aforementioned Articles 51 and 52 are applicable, pursuant to Article 81 of the Act, to the derived intervention price for white sugar, the intervention price for raw sugar and the minimum price for beet;

Whereas in respect of the products for which these prices are determined, the compensatory amounts applicable in trade between the Community as originally constituted and the new Member States, and between those States and third countries, shall, pursuant to Article 55 of the Act, be equal to the difference between the prices fixed for the new Member State concerned and the common prices; whereas the compensatory amounts applicable in trade between the new Member States shall be determined by direct reference to the compensatory amounts fixed for each of those States in respect of the aforementioned trade;

Whereas in accordance with Article 82 of the Act, the compensatory amounts applicable to products other than fresh beet in Article 1 (1) (b) of Council Regulation No 1009/67/EEC [2] of 18 December 1967 on the common organization of the market in sugar, as last amended by the Act, shall be derived from the compensatory amount for the primary product in question, in accordance with the rules in force for calculating the import levy;

Whereas in accordance with Article 82 of the Act, the compensatory amounts applicable to products other than molasses in Article 1 (1) (d) of Regulation No 1009/67/EEC shall be derived from the compensatory amount for the primary product in question, in accordance with the rules in force for calculating the levy in respect of the compensatory amount applicable to imports and in accordance with that in force for calculating the refund in respect of the compensatory amount applicable to exports.

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

The compensatory amounts for sugar applicable until 30 June 1973 in trade between the Community as originally constitued and the new Member States, in trade between the new Member States themselves as well as between the new Member States and third countries:

(a) shall be fixed for the products listed in Annex I in the manner indicated in that Annex;

(b) shall be obtained in respect of the products in Article 1 (1) (d) of Regulation No 1009/67/EEC by multiplying the basic compensatory amount indicated in Annex II by the sucrose content inclusive of the content of other sugars expressed in sucrose of the product in question.

Article 2

1. The compensatory amounts shall be levied on imports and granted on exports in trade between:

(a) the Community as originally constituted and Denmark, on the one hand,

and

(b) Ireland

and

The United Kingdom, on the other

by the Member States referred to in (a) and in (b) first indent.

2. In trade between Ireland and third countries and between the United Kingdom and third countries, levies and refunds shall be reduced by the compensatory amounts.

Article 3

The compensatory amount applied shall be that applicable on the day of importation or exportation.

Article 4

1. The detailed rules to be made for the granting, levying, and collection of compensatory amounts, in particular in order to prevent deflections of trade, shall be adopted in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 40 of Regulation 1009/67/EEC.

2. The detailed rules for applying this Regulation shall be laid down in accordance with the same procedure.

Article 5

This Regulation shall enter into force on the day of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.
