REGULATION (EEC) No 375/73 OF THE COMMISSION

of 31 January 1973

laying down the temporary measures to be taken because of Accession relating to the implementation of Regulation (EEC) No 1349/72 concerning production of and trade with eggs for hatching and chicks of domestic poultry in Denmark

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty [1] concerning the Accession of new Member States to the European Economic Community and the European Atomic Energy Community, signed at Brussels on 22 January 1972, and in particular Article 63 (1) of the Act [2] annexed thereto;

Whereas the arrangements provided for by Council Regulation (EEC) No 1349/72 [3] of 27 June 1972 concerning production of and trade with eggs for hatching and chicks of domestic poultry are applicable from 1 February 1973 in the new Member States; whereas in order to implement those arrangements these Member States and the undertakings concerned need to take preparatory measures; for that reason implementation of those arrangements from the above date gives rise to some temporary technical difficulties in Denmark;

Whereas, therefore, provision should be made to Denmark, during an appropriated transitional period, for the possibility of marketing eggs for hatching and chicks of domestic poultry in accordance with the legal conditions existing before Accession, without this possibility preventing, the production of and the trade with eggs for hatching and chicks of domestic poultry from 1 February 1973 in accordance with the provisions of Regulation (EEC) No 1349/72;

Whereas the measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the Opinion to the Management Committee for Poultrymeat and Eggs;

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

Until 31 July 1973 inclusive eggs for hatching and chicks of domestic poultry may be produced and marketed in Denmark in accordance with the legal conditions in force before its Accession to the European Economic Community.

Done at Brussels, 31 January 1973.

For the Commission

The President

François-Xavier ORTOLI
