REGULATION (EEC) No 649/73 OF THE COMMISSION

of 1 March 1973

fixing the 'monetary' compensatory amounts

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community;

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 974/71 [1] of 12 May 1971 on certain measures of conjunctural policy to be taken in agriculture following the widening of the margins of fluctuation for the currencies of certain Member States, as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 509/73 [2], and in particular Article 6 thereof;

Having regard to the Opinion of the Monetary Committee;

Whereas Article 1 (1) of Regulation (EEC) No 974/71 provides that if, for the purposes of commercial transactions, a Member State allows the exchange rate of its currency to fluctuate by a margin wider than the one permitted by the international rules in force on 12 May 1971

(a) the Member State whose currency has appreciated by more than the margin of fluctuation should levy compensatory amounts on imports and grant compensatory amounts on exports

(b) the Member State whose currency has depreciated by more than the margin of fluctuation should levy compensatory amounts on exports and grant compensatory amounts on imports of agricultural products and products obtained from agricultural products in trade with Member States and third countries; whereas (a) now applies to Germany and the Benelux countries and (b) applies to France and Italy;

Whereas, pursuant to Article 1 (1a) of the same Regulation, if an exchange rate other than that corresponding to the parity of the currency of a Member State is used for the purpose of conversions between units of account and that currency, Article 1 (1) applies by analogy where, for the currency in question, the average spot market rate during a period to be determined differs by at least 1 % from the exchange rate used; whereas this applies at present to the English pound and the Irish pound;

Whereas Article 2 of the same Regulation provides that the 'monetary' compensatory amounts for products covered by intervention arrangements are equal to the amounts obtained by applying to the prices the percentage difference between:

— the parity of the currency of the Member State concerned declared to and recognized by the International Monetary Fund, on the one hand,

— the arithmetic mean of the spot market rates of this currency against the US dollar during a period to be determined;

Whereas, for other products whose price depends on the price of the products referred to above and which are governed by the common organization of markets or are the subject of a specific arrangement under Article 235 of the Treaty, Article 2 of the same Regulation provides that 'monetary' compensatory amounts are equal to the incidence, on the prices of the product concerned, of the application of the compensatory amount to the prices of the products referred to in the last recital on which they depend;

Whereas, however, Article 2a of Regulation (EEC) No 974/71 introduced rules which derogate from the abovementioned provisions; whereas, pursuant to that Article, the compensatory amount applicable to a given product and resulting for a given Member State from the calculation provided for in Article 2 of that Regulation — is reduced by the compensatory amount resulting from that calculation for the other Member State concerned if the currencies of both Member States have appreciated or depreciated;

— is increased by the amount indicated in the first indent if the currency of one of the two Member

[2] OJ No L 50, 23. 2. 1973, p. 1.

States has appreciated and the currency of the other has depreciated;

Whereas Commission Regulation (EEC) No 648/73 of 1 March 1973 [1] lays down detailed rules for the application of Regulation (EEC) No 974/71; whereas Article 3 of that Regulation provides that, for the purpose of calculating the compensatory amounts applicable in BLEU and the Netherlands, the percentage referred to in Article 2 (1) of Regulation (EEC) 974/71 is established on the basis of the arithmetic mean of the difference referred to in that paragraph for the Belgian franc and the same difference for the Dutch guilder during the period in question; whereas, since BLEU and the Netherlands are treated as a single Member State, compensatory amounts do not apply in intra-BLEU trade or in trade between BLEU and the Netherlands; whereas Article 4 of that Regulation provides that a basic compensatory amount is fixed for each Member State for which the conditions set out in Article 1 of Regulation (EEC) No 974/71 are fulfilled; whereas this basic amount applies in trade between the Member States and in trade with third countries; whereas, however,

(a) in intra-Community trade:

— if the conditions set out in Article 1 of Regulation (EEC) No 974/71 are fulfilled in respect of two Member States, the basic amount must be multiplied by coefficient based on the actual ratio between the two currencies in question;

— if an 'accession' compensatory amount applies, this must be multiplied by a coefficient based on the 'accession' compensatory amounts applicable in trade with the Community as originally constituted and the actual ratio between the two currencies in question; by way of derogation from this provisions, however, the 'accession' compensatory amount must be increased or reduced as the case may be in trade between new Member States by an amount based on the 'accession' compensatory amount applicable in trade with the community as originally constituted and the actual ratio between the two currencies in question;

(b) in trade with third countries, import charges and refunds fixed in units of account must be multiplied by a coefficient which reflects the monetary situation of the Member State in question;

Whereas the final paragraph of Article 1 (2) of Regulation (EEC) No 974/71 specifies that the provisions of that Regulation apply only where application of the monetary measures in question would lead to disturbances in trade in agricultural products; whereas, furthermore, Article 4 (2) of that Regulation specifies that no compensatory amount is fixed for products for which the amount calculated in accordance with Article 2 is negligible in relation to their average value;

Whereas the spot market rates recorded on 15, 16, 19, 20 and 21 February 1973 show appreciable variations for the currencies of the Member States which are already applying 'monetary' compensatory amounts for Ireland, Italy and the United Kingdom; whereas in this connection, some of the information serving as a basis for the calculation of these amounts should be brought up to date; whereas it follows from applying the rules referred to above that the 'monetary' compensatory amounts applicable from 26 February 1973 should be fixed at the levels indicated in the Annexes to this Regulation;

Whereas the monetary events which prompted this Regulation took place on 13 February 1973; whereas provision must therefore be made for transitional arrangements for the period 13 to 26 February 1973;

Whereas the manner in which the 'monetary' compensatory amounts are to be applied should be specified;

Whereas the measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the Opinions of the Management Committees for Wine, for Cereals, for Pigmeat, for Poultrymeat and Eggs, for Sugar, for Milk and Milk Products and for Beef and Veal;

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 4a (2) of Regulation (EEC) No 974/71, 'monetary' compensatory amounts shall be arrived at as follows:

1. The basic amounts shown in Annex I for the Member State concerned shall be multiplied by the coefficient shown in Annex II.

[1] See p. 1. of this Official Journal.

2. However, for the products covered by paragraph 1, 'accession' compensatory amounts, levies or other import charges expressed in units of account, as well as refunds, shall be multiplied by the coefficient indicated for this purpose in Annex II.

Article 2

1. In intra-Community trade, 'monetary' compensatory amounts shall be levied on imports and granted on exports.

2. In trade with third countries:

— the Member State whose currency has appreciated shall levy the 'monetary' compensatory amounts on imports and grant them on exports;

— Member States whose currency has depreciated shall deduct the compensatory amounts from the charge on imports and the refunds on exports.

Article 3

This Regulation shall enter into force on the day of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

However, the amounts resulting from its application shall apply from 26 February 1973.

By way of derogation from the preceding paragraph these amounts shall, at the request of the party concerned, apply from 13 February 1973 if application of this Regulation leads to

(a) the granting of:

— compensatory amounts which are higher than those applicable until this Regulation enters into force;

or

— newly introduced compensatory amounts;

(b) the levying of import charges which are lower than the 'monetary' compensatory amounts applicable until this Regulation enters into force.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 1 March 1973.

For the Commission

The President

François-Xavier ORTOLI
