Whereas Commission Regulation (EEC) No 3037/74 [4] of 2 December 1974 concerning an invitation to tender for the export levy for husked long grain rice to certain third countries provided in Article 1 (3) for the tender to remain open until 31 January 1975; whereas in order to ensure a continuous outlet on those markets which traditionally import husked long grain rice from the Community, it is considered necessary to increase the quantity, as specified in the notice of invitation to tender, to which that invitation relates; whereas in view of this increase the invitation to tender should remain open until 28 February 1975;
