REGULATION (EEC) No 2719/75 OF THE COMMISSION

of 24 October 1975

fixing the monetary compensatory amounts and certain rates for their application

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community;

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 974/71 (1) of 12 May 1971 on certain measures of conjunctural policy to be taken in agriculture following the temporary widening of the margins of fluctuation for the currencies of certain Member States, as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 475/75 (2), and in particular Article 6 thereof;

Whereas Article 1 (1) of Regulation (EEC) No 974/71 lays down that any Member State which for the purposes of commercial transactions allows the exchange rate of its currency to fluctuate by a margin wider than that permitted by the international rules in force on 12 May 1971 shall, in the case of the products listed in paragraph 2 of that Article and in respect of trade with other Member States and with third countries:

(a) where its currency has appreciated by more than the margin of fluctuation, levy compensatory amounts on imports and grant compensatory amounts on exports;

(b) where its currency has depreciated by more than the margin of fluctuation, levy compensatory amounts on exports and grant compensatory amounts on imports;

Whereas, pursuant to paragraph 1a of that Article, if an exchange rate other than that corresponding to the parity of the currency of a Member State is used for the purpose of conversions between units of account and that currency, the abovementioned paragraph 1 is to apply mutatis mutandis where, for the currency in question, the average spot market rate during a period to be determined differs by 1 % or more from the exchange rate used;

Whereas in the present situation those conditions are fulfilled for all Community currencies; whereas, however, for Denmark no monetary compensatory amount is required on the basis of such method of calculation;

Whereas, under Article 2 (1) (a) of the said Regulation, for products subject to intervention measures the monetary compensatory amounts for those Member States which keep their exchange rates at any given moment within a maximum spread of 2·25 % are to be equal to the amounts obtained by applying to the price the percentage difference between:

— the conversion rate used for purposes of the common agricultural policy; and — the conversion rate resulting from the central rate;

Whereas the monetary compensatory amounts for Germany and the Benelux countries should accordingly be calculated by applying 10 and 2 % respectively; whereas those amounts should remain unchanged for as long as the items used in calculating them do not vary;

Whereas Article 2 (1) (b) of the same Regulation lays down that the monetary compensatory amounts for Ireland and the United Kingdom are to be equal to the amounts obtained by applying to the price the average percentage difference between:

— the ratio between the conversion rate used for purposes of the common agricultural policy for the currency of the Member State concerned and the actual parity of each of the currencies of the Member States which keep their exchange rates at any given moment within a maximum spread of 2·25 %, and — the spot market rate recorded over a given period for the currency of the relevant Member State against each of the currencies of the Member States which keep their exchange rates at any given moment within a maximum spread of 2·25 %;

Whereas, however, this difference is to be reduced by 1·25 points for Member States whose currency has depreciated;

Whereas, for other products the price of which depends on the price of the products referred to above and which are governed by the common organization of markets, or are the subject of a specific arrangement under Article 235 of the Treaty, the abovementioned Article 2 lays down that the monetary compensatory amounts are to be equal to the incidence on the prices of the product in question of the application of the compensatory amount to the prices of the products on which they depend;

(1) OJ No L 106, 12. 5. 1971, p. 1.
(2) OJ No L 52, 28. 2. 1975, p. 28.

Whereas Council Regulation (EEC) No 475/75 [1] of 1 February 1975 on the exchange rates to be applied in agriculture, as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 2638/75 [2], fixed new representative rates for the Irish pound and the pound sterling; whereas those rates come into effect in principle on 27 October 1975, except in the case of products in the cereals sector, for which the new rate will not take effect until 1 July 1976 as regards common wheat and until 3 November 1975 as regards the other products of that sector, and of products in the beef and veal sector, for which the new rate is to take effect on 5 January 1976; whereas, when monetary compensatory amounts are fixed, account should be taken of those new rates and of the different dates on which they are to take effect;

Whereas in Regulation (EEC) No 1380/75 [3] of 29 May 1975, as amended by Regulation (EEC) No 2716/75 [4], the Commission laid down detailed rules for the application of Regulation (EEC) No 974/71; whereas under Article 4 of that Regulation a monetary compensatory amount is to be fixed for each Member State and for each product which meets the conditions laid down in Article 1 of Regulation (EEC) No 974/71; whereas that amount is to apply in respect of trade between Member States and with non-member countries; whereas, however:

(a) in trade with the new Member States, accession compensatory amounts and the fixed components provided for in Article 61 of the Act of Accession; and

(b) in trade with the non-member countries, import charges, export refunds and export levies;

as expressed in units of account, are to be multiplied by a coefficient derived from the percentage used in calculating the monetary compensatory amounts;

Whereas Article 9 of Regulation (EEC) No 1380/75 provides that no compensatory amounts are to apply to trade within the BLEU or to trade between the BLEU and the Netherlands, those States being treated as a single Member State; whereas, that same Article provides that no monetary compensatory amount is to be levied or granted in trade between Ireland and the United Kingdom, although that provision applies to cereals only from 3 November 1975, to common wheat from 1 July 1976 and to products in the beef and veal sector from 5 January 1976;

Whereas Article 1 (3) of Regulation (EEC) No 974/71 lays down that the provisions of that Regulation are to apply only where application of the monetary measures in question would lead to disturbances in trade in the products concerned; whereas in the present situation this rule makes it possible not to fix compensatory amounts for France or for Italy, and to fix amounts in the wine sector for Germany only, and only for certain types of wine;

Whereas the monetary compensatory amounts provided for in Regulation (EEC) No 974/71 were fixed by Regulation (EEC) No 2021/75 [5], which has since been amended several times; whereas it is therefore advisable to replace Regulation (EEC) No 2021/75 by a new Regulation;

Whereas the measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the Opinions of the Management Committees for Wine, Cereals, Pigmeat, Poultrymeat and Eggs, Sugar, Milk and Milk Products, and Beef and Veal,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

The monetary compensatory amounts provided for in Article 1 of Regulation (EEC) No 974/71 shall for each Member State be as shown in Annex I hereto.

Article 2

The coefficients provided for in Article 4 (3) of Regulation (EEC) No 1380/75 shall be as shown in Annex II hereto.

Article 3

Regulation (EEC) No 2021/75 is hereby repealed.

Article 4

This Regulation shall enter into force on 27 October 1975.
