COMMISSION REGULATION (EEC) No 2271/76

of 17 September 1976

authorizing Denmark and the United Kingdom temporarily and totally to suspend the customs duties applicable to certain vegetables imported from third countries

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty of Accession (1), and in particular Article 59 (4) of the Act annexed thereto,

Whereas Article 59 (4) provides that, in respect of products covered by a common organization of the market, the new Member States may be authorized to align their duties to those of the Common Customs Tariff at a more rapid rate than that laid down;

Whereas the Governments of Denmark and the United Kingdom have requested authorization to make such an alignment until 30 September 1976 in respect of certain vegetables falling within heading No 07.01 of the Common Customs Tariff;

Whereas this measure will have a favourable effect on the supply situation in these new Member States by facilitating the import of the said products from third countries; whereas the request of Denmark and the United Kingdom should therefore be granted;

Whereas the measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the Management Committee for Fruit and Vegetables,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

The Governments of Denmark and the United Kingdom are hereby authorized to suspend totally until 30 September 1976 the customs duties applicable to imports from third countries of the products listed in the Annex hereto.

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on the day of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Communities. However, the authority conferred by Article 1 may be exercised with effect from 25 August 1976.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 17 September 1976.
